

A message to our red-blooded young men

THE NAVY NEEDS YOU

Since The Argus, in conjunction with other weekly newspapers throughout the state, launched the recruiting campaign for the U. S. Navy we have become more thoroughly acquainted with the advantages which the Navy offers men who enlist. We find that "Life in the Navy" has many things that the boys of today should have. There are many things about it that they like. And, weighing them together, it seems a good all-around experience for any red-blooded youth. Those who enlist get valuable vocational training; they get traveling experience; they learn discipline and they have fun. But, most of all, they are being most patriotic and are doing their share for the national defense of America. We hope that some of the boys of this community will enlist in the Navy very soon, and we'd like to send them a booklet about "Life in the Navy" with no obligation. If you are interested, or have a friend who is interested, will you sign the name on the accompanying coupon and send or bring it to The Argus office right away? There's no obligation, of course.
