

Installation of New Pastor Slated At Zion Lutheran Church on Sunday

SCHIEFFLIN—The Rev. C. J. Krueger of Lebanon, S. D., will be installed as pastor of the Zion Lutheran church here at 2 p. m. Sunday. A reception for Rev. and Mrs. Krueger and their family will be held in the parish hall Sunday evening. The past weeks have found members of the congregation busily engaged in renovating the parsonage for its occupancy by the new pastor and family, who are due to arrive this week.

Officers Elected

Voting members of Zion congregation met Friday evening for their annual business meeting and elected the following officers: George Biersdorf, elder; Alfred Simandl, trustee; Wilbert Salzwedel, treasurer; Herman Kerkman, chairman; C. L. Schwank, elder to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of A. F. Kahle. Orville Sahnaw was elected head usher for the church. Treasurer's report showed the budget had been successfully met for the past year, and a

Fir Grove Club Aids Red Cross

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—The Fir Grove Ladies social club donated $5 to the Red Cross war relief drive and will give the profits from their card parties to that fund, beginning with a party held Saturday night at the Robert Soule home when Mrs. Flora Baker and Frank Hill won high score and Mrs. B. B. Cooley and Robert Soule low score. The ladies in charge, Mrs. Lena Meyers, is in charge of the Red Cross drive in the Fir Grove district.

Mrs. Emil Tauscher of Portland visited her mother, Mrs. Minnie Everett, several days last week.

Mrs. Tom Shuck was ill with pneumonia at a Hillsboro hospital last week. She was making a speedy recovery according to the report from her doctor Monday and expected to come home this week.

Evening church and Christian endeavor were discontinued at Mountain Top church during the duration of the cold weather. Morning services are usual.

Home From East—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wohlshlegel arrived home Friday from an extended trip east, where they took delivery of a new car at Detroit and returned home through California.

Mrs. Viola Otto entertained with a dinner party Sunday for Rev. and Mrs. Craxberger of Oregon City and their son-in-law and two daughters.

One farm work that the cold weather did not stop was trimming

Non-Slip Spot Pad
TRUSSE
Our experienced fitters also serve your needs for Abdominal Supporters, Elastic Suspenders, Shoulder Braces, etc.
Quality the Best—Price the Lowest!

DELTA DRUG STORE

SAVE AT SELFRIE'S

MATTRESS

SALE

SEE THESE AMAZING VALUES TODAY!

SPRING-FILLED MATTRESS—

220 coil inner-spring mattress

cotton linter filled and sisal pad construction, variety of colors.

Heavy tapestry covers. Full double-bed size. Full

Regular $24.50 values

$16⁵⁰

BOX SPRINGS TO MATCH

$24.50 value

$16⁵⁰

SELFRIE'S

FURNITURE COMPANY

136 S. 3rd Ave. HILLSBORO Phone 21

BE SMART!
DO IT NOW!

Did the recent cold and rainy weather show up flaws in your home . . . bring out the need for repairs or remodeling?

If so, act now . . . a few dollars spent now for this purpose will save many more later.

Keep your home up . . . its value will advance materially as new home construction is restricted.

See us for quality materials, free estimates and FHA Financing.

J. W. COPELAND

LUMBER YARDS

Hillsboro Phone 301

FIX UP YOUR HOME

BE SMART! DO IT NOW!

Did the recent cold and rainy weather show up flaws in your home . . . bring out the need for repairs or remodeling?

If so, act now . . . a few dollars spent now for this purpose will save many more later.

Keep your home up . . . its value will advance materially as new home construction is restricted.

See us for quality materials, free estimates and FHA Financing.

J. W. COPELAND

LUMBER YARDS

Hillsboro Phone 301

SELFRIE'S

FURNITURE COMPANY

136 S. 3rd Ave. HILLSBORO Phone 21

DELTA DRUG STORE

SAVE AT SELFRIE'S

MATTRESS

SALE

Buy Defense

Bonds and Stamps—
Help Your Country
And Help Yourself

Defense Work Provided for; Aid Red Cross

MCKINLEY-ELMONICA—An aircraft warning station has been built for this district and volunteers for short periods of 24-hour duty signed up.

Response Good

Response to Red Cross emergency fund requests has been good. Henry Bondfield of Seattle was a guest of the McKuskers last Friday.

Party Scheduled

The ladies of McKinley school district will hold a card party at the schoolhouse Friday evening, January 16. Pinocle and 500 will be played. Refreshments will be served. The ladies are requested to bring cakes. A cup shower will also be held. All who will may donate one or more cups for future use at the school. Funds are to be used for the school.

Mrs. Nels Larson has been ill at her home here since last Tuesday.

Mrs. Alphonina Torkelson is helping at the Larson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pothoff and family spent two weeks at the Rudolf Meyer farm at Bloomingdale, taking care of the place while the Meyer family made a trip to California.

New Year's day dinner party guests at the Freeman Rowe home were Mrs. Mary Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Robinson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffman and sons.

L. J. Puncocar went to the St. Vincent hospital Monday for treatment as the result of an injury from a fall two years ago.

Week-end guests at the K. C. Seuffert home were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seuffert and family and Mrs. Stella and Lee and Lella Galino of Beaver.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robinson and children Clarence, Karol and June Ann spent a week at their home here. They returned to Lakeview Friday where Mr. Robinson is employed doing state highway work.

Birthday Celebrated—Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rowe entertained with a dinner party Sunday in honor of Mrs. Florence Rowe's birthday anniversary. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamel and family.

In Naval Reserve—Roscoe Wurm, senior at Pacific university, has enlisted in the naval reserves. Roscoe spent the holidays at the S. S. Dalby home and returned to Pacific university this week to finish his college course before going into the service.

Miss Shirley Olsen of Camas, Wash., spent the week-end at the S. S. Dalby home.

Henrietta Dalby returned to Bellingham, Wash., Sunday to resume her studies at the Bellingham Normal school after spending the holidays with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mertz of Eugene, who have been visiting at the John Kamma home, are planning to make their home in this community.

Priscilla club meets today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. H. E. Scraggs instead of the Bastian home as formerly planned.

Mrs. R. L. Kingsbury will be the hostess.

School Not Opened—School was not opened the first of last week on account of the cold weather.

A letter from Fred Courtwright Jr. states that he has been stationed at Port Townsend, Wash.

The Robert Mead family have vacated the Holman home. Harold Weisenfluh has moved in.

Edward, Richard and Bill Moishsky have returned to U. of O. The tenant house on the Nipset property is being remodeled with an added room, new roof and modern plumbing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Siefert and sons Robert and Jerry of Salem were New Year's dinner party guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Oids.

Gustavus Salzwedel, who has been with the Oids for four years, has returned to his home at Glacstone. He expects to enter the army soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams have returned from Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Chris Jenne fell at her home last week and injured her leg. Mrs. Jenne is quite old and the fall necessitated remaining off her feet.

Former Resident of Rosedale is Bride

ROSEDALE—Mrs. E. A. Gillenwater, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leopold, Margaret Gillenwater and Cecil Parker attended the wedding of Mildred O'Connor and Dote Lobdell at the St. James church in McMinnville New Year's Day.

The bride was attired in white, her bridesmaids wore peach, blue and green, respectively. She is well known in this community. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O'Connor, lived on the place now owned by Mrs. F. Vance, and the E. A. Gillenwater farm before moving to Portland.

The church was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and poinsettias.

Alaska Resident Here—Fred Whitehead of Fairbanks, Alaska, visited here last week. It was his first visit since he left Mason Hill 25 years ago. Mr. Whitehead spent three days visiting at the Victor Christensen home, and was honor guest at a dinner party New Year's Day. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Christensen, and family.

Emil York left Saturday for Portland, where he is employed by the Sall River company. Mr. York, who has been busy getting an electric water system installed at his home, had to leave before the work was finished.

Donald Pieren is convalescing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Pieren. Donald had an appendix operation at the Jones hospital Christmas week.

Many family gatherings were held during the Christmas and New Year holidays. Among them was a dinner party at the J. M. Davidson home, where all members of their family were present.

Allan Cathy's family joined a group at the home of Mrs. Cathy's father, J. J. Dickson, where all members of the Dickson family were present.

The Fred Yungen family were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nyeger, at Colton. Lillian Yungen stayed for a few days with her sister.

Farmington Aid Will Meet Today

FAIRMINGTON—Mrs. Fred Stevens will be hostess for the Farmington Christian Ladies' Aid at her home today (Thursday).

Club to Meet January 10—The Community Welfare club will meet at the home of Mrs. Edgar Rehse Friday, January 16. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at 1:30 o'clock. Plans will be discussed for work for the new year. Every member is urged to attend.

Ice skating over the week-end was enjoyed by the young people here and from the nearby communities. Ponds frozen over on the Burkharter and Hatfield farms provided good skating.

Mrs. Nels Larson has been ill at her home here since last Tuesday.

Mrs. Alphonina Torkelson is helping at the Larson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pothoff and family spent two weeks at the Rudolf Meyer farm at Bloomingdale, taking care of the place while the Meyer family made a trip to California.

New Year's day dinner party guests at the Freeman Rowe home were Mrs. Mary Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Robinson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffman and sons.

L. J. Puncocar went to the St. Vincent hospital Monday for treatment as the result of an injury from a fall two years ago.

Week-end guests at the K. C. Seuffert home were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seuffert and family and Mrs. Stella and Lee and Lella Galino of Beaver.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robinson and children Clarence, Karol and June Ann spent a week at their home here. They returned to Lakeview Friday where Mr. Robinson is employed doing state highway work.

Birthday Celebrated—Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rowe entertained with a dinner party Sunday in honor of Mrs. Florence Rowe's birthday anniversary. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamel and family.

In Naval Reserve—Roscoe Wurm, senior at Pacific university, has enlisted in the naval reserves. Roscoe spent the holidays at the S. S. Dalby home and returned to Pacific university this week to finish his college course before going into the service.

Miss Shirley Olsen of Camas, Wash., spent the week-end at the S. S. Dalby home.

Henrietta Dalby returned to Bellingham, Wash., Sunday to resume her studies at the Bellingham Normal school after spending the holidays with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mertz of Eugene, who have been visiting at the John Kamma home, are planning to make their home in this community.

Priscilla club meets today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. H. E. Scraggs instead of the Bastian home as formerly planned.

Mrs. R. L. Kingsbury will be the hostess.

School Not Opened—School was not opened the first of last week on account of the cold weather.

A letter from Fred Courtwright Jr. states that he has been stationed at Port Townsend, Wash.

The Robert Mead family have vacated the Holman home. Harold Weisenfluh has moved in.

Edward, Richard and Bill Moishsky have returned to U. of O. The tenant house on the Nipset property is being remodeled with an added room, new roof and modern plumbing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Siefert and sons Robert and Jerry of Salem were New Year's dinner party guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Oids.

Gustavus Salzwedel, who has been with the Oids for four years, has returned to his home at Glacstone. He expects to enter the army soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams have returned from Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Chris Jenne fell at her home last week and injured her leg. Mrs. Jenne is quite old and the fall necessitated remaining off her feet.

Former Resident of Rosedale is Bride

ROSEDALE—Mrs. E. A. Gillenwater, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leopold, Margaret Gillenwater and Cecil Parker attended the wedding of Mildred O'Connor and Dote Lobdell at the St. James church in McMinnville New Year's Day.

The bride was attired in white, her bridesmaids wore peach, blue and green, respectively. She is well known in this community. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O'Connor, lived on the place now owned by Mrs. F. Vance, and the E. A. Gillenwater farm before moving to Portland.

The church was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and poinsettias.

Alaska Resident Here—Fred Whitehead of Fairbanks, Alaska, visited here last week. It was his first visit since he left Mason Hill 25 years ago. Mr. Whitehead spent three days visiting at the Victor Christensen home, and was honor guest at a dinner party New Year's Day. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Christensen, and family.

Emil York left Saturday for Portland, where he is employed by the Sall River company. Mr. York, who has been busy getting an electric water system installed at his home, had to leave before the work was finished.

Donald Pieren is convalescing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Pieren. Donald had an appendix operation at the Jones hospital Christmas week.

Many family gatherings were held during the Christmas and New Year holidays. Among them was a dinner party at the J. M. Davidson home, where all members of their family were present.

Allan Cathy's family joined a group at the home of Mrs. Cathy's father, J. J. Dickson, where all members of the Dickson family were present.

The Fred Yungen family were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nyeger, at Colton. Lillian Yungen stayed for a few days with her sister.

Benefit Party Huber Tonight

ALOHA-HUBER—A benefit card party will be given at the Huber hall January 8 at 8 p. m. Pinocle and 500.

Donald LaFollette was home over the week-end. He works in the Boeing airplane plant at Seattle.

Guests during the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trout were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Jones of Portland and Spencer Gardner of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor of Latourelle falls visited at the home of Mrs. Minor's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hudson, Sunday.

Mrs. Harry L. Hudson was the first 4-H club leader in Washington county in 1921.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mueller were Mr. and Mrs. Harris Palmer of Warren and Jerry Emal of Hillsboro.

Red Cross Group Meets—The local Red Cross sewing club meets on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 9:30 a. m. at the Huber hall until further notice.

Rubber Stamps.—Get them at the Hillsboro Argus.

COLD WEATHER SHIRTS

HEAVY GRAY SHIRT $1.69

All sizes for men.

With zipper fastener, 2 pockets, button flaps.

Plaid Shirts for Men $1.39

Red, green or blue plaids. Two pockets, button flap, button flaps. Pre-shrunk.

Plaid Shirts for Boys $1.19

Zipper fasteners, two pockets. Sizes 12½ to 14½

Men's Dress Socks, pair 25c

Wool, Rayon and Cotton. Fancy designs.

SPROUSE-REITZ STORES

5-10-15% A Western Organization

Former Scholls Boy Prisoner Of Japanese

SCHOLLS—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lusk, formerly of Scholls, that their son Allan, who enlisted in the marines about the time the family moved here, has been made a prisoner by the Japanese in company with 200 other marines. The Lusk were officially notified by the war department that their son was confined to prison in China, but no other information was given. The community joins with them in hoping for happier word from the boy.

Close neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCool surprised them Saturday evening in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. The wedding date really occurred on Christmas Eve, and was also the birthday of their son John, but the family was spending the holidays at the coast and did not return until Tuesday. The couple was honored with a gift from the group, and the evening was spent in cards and conversation. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Trask, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Demmin, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Shurman, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barthell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. McCool, Mrs. Chad Haynes, Mrs. J. T. McCann, Lois, John, Nellie, Rita and Jerry McCool.

More Snow Needed—So far there has been no report of damage done to walnuts by the unusually cold weather, and the light snowfall was welcomed by farmers, who would like more of the white covering.

Loyal Howard, who has been ill in an army hospital in Vancouver, returned to his parents' home here Friday and left Monday morning for Fort Stevens to remain for a short time before being transferred to California. A family dinner was held at the Howard home Sunday evening in his honor. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Floy Hu- enekens and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Zucher and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lin Howard and son, and Amy Alice Howard. Mrs. Loyal Howard is visiting her parents in Kansas, and is expected to return in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Livermore have a new granddaughter, Esther Livermore of Milwaukee, with them during the Christmas holidays.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, a son, last week at McMinnville.

Pleasant View Plans Program

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Pleasant View community club will be entertained next Saturday night with a moving picture show put on by Allan Corber of Portland. "Peanut" Haynes with his guitar, is expected here from Heppner. Haynes was a member of the Buck Haven Buckaroos here about eight years ago. Saturday's program will start with a 7:30 p.m. luck dinner. Everyone is invited to bring their dinner and attend the entertainment.

Hold Xmas Party—Twenty Fir Grove Ladies' social club members and five visitors attended their Christmas party last Tuesday. Among the visitors was Mrs. A. D. Hill of Miles City, Mont.

A former resident and club member. Gifts were exchanged and "mystery sisters" received gifts. A luncheon was served to a group of about 10 children. Next meeting will be January 13 with Mrs. B. B. Cooley.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Flynn, a girl, December 31, named Nancy Mae. Mother and baby are in a Newberg hospital. Nancy Mae's father is Mr. E. E. Langston's first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hill arrived in the Willamette valley Christmas Eve from Miles City, Mont., and plan to remain until after January 10 when their son Loran Hill who has been working in San Diego, Cal., will join them on the trip.

Scholls Club Sponsors Tea

SCHOLLS—Scholls Women's club will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. J. M. Stretcher Tuesday, January 13, beginning at 1:30. Proceeds will be used for endowment and scholarship loan donations of the group. Mrs. Conklin, county president, will be a special guest.

The New Year came very quietly to Scholls, minus its usual dynamite and gunshot greetings. War and cold weather conspired against the customary celebrations, though a few family gatherings, and small parties were held.

More Snow Needed—So far there has been no report of damage done to walnuts by the unusually cold weather, and the light snowfall was welcomed by farmers, who would like more of the white covering.

Loyal Howard, who has been ill in an army hospital in Vancouver, returned to his parents' home here Friday and left Monday morning for Fort Stevens to remain for a short time before being transferred to California. A family dinner was held at the Howard home Sunday evening in his honor. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Floy Hu- enekens and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Zucher and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lin Howard and son, and Amy Alice Howard. Mrs. Loyal Howard is visiting her parents in Kansas, and is expected to return in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Livermore have a new granddaughter, Esther Livermore of Milwaukee, with them during the Christmas holidays.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, a son, last week at McMinnville.

Pleasant View Plans Program

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Pleasant View community club will be entertained next Saturday night with a moving picture show put on by Allan Corber of Portland. "Peanut" Haynes with his guitar, is expected here from Heppner. Haynes was a member of the Buck Haven Buckaroos here about eight years ago. Saturday's program will start with a 7:30 p.m. luck dinner. Everyone is invited to bring their dinner and attend the entertainment.

Hold Xmas Party—Twenty Fir Grove Ladies' social club members and five visitors attended their Christmas party last Tuesday. Among the visitors was Mrs. A. D. Hill of Miles City, Mont.

A former resident and club member. Gifts were exchanged and "mystery sisters" received gifts. A luncheon was served to a group of about 10 children. Next meeting will be January 13 with Mrs. B. B. Cooley.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Flynn, a girl, December 31, named Nancy Mae. Mother and baby are in a Newberg hospital. Nancy Mae's father is Mr. E. E. Langston's first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hill arrived in the Willamette valley Christmas Eve from Miles City, Mont., and plan to remain until after January 10 when their son Loran Hill who has been working in San Diego, Cal., will join them on the trip.

home. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were overnight guests last Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Whitmore.

Sammy, Elsie and Donald Otto, children of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Otto, were all ill last week. Both of Sammy's ears were lanced.

The freezing weather, which started last week, put a stop to many fall and spring flowers blooming in the yards here. Before that corysanthums, nasturtiums, primroses, quince violets, and many other flowers could be picked in yards and daffodils were fast sticking their heads out of the ground.

Mrs. Della Brownhill of Dilley and Mrs. D. M. McInnis were overnight guests New Year's at the DeFord home. Mrs. McInnis remained several days.

Enlisted in Navy—John George Strouse was one of 50 young men who enlisted at the navy recruiting station in Portland Monday of last week. Strouse is the son of Mrs. Mark Gensib, and signed as a naval reserve.

Join Our CUSTOMER DIVIDEND CLUB

Save on your purchases at

ROCK CREEK TAVERN

Refreshments - Gas and Oil 2 miles East of Hillsboro on Highway.

PROTECTIVE VALUES ON THE HOME FRONT

It is only sensible for every householder to have the things on hand that are needed for home protection. Don't borrow from your neighbors—have your own! Fill your needs from our stock of quality merchandise today.

FLASHLIGHTS

79c to $2.75

Flashlight Bulbs 7c to 13c

Batteries 5c to 10c

Kerosene LAMPS

Complete 95c

Also repair parts