Hilhi News

Betty Gardner Award Winner

Betty Gardner has been selected for this year's Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship award. It was learned at Hilhi Wednesday afternoon in assembly. She was elected in a close vote of the faculty, after a ballot of the senior class had nominated her along with two other girls. She received the most votes in both polls.

Miss Gardner has been outstanding in her four years at Hilhi. She is president of this year's Home Economic club, secretary of Girl Reserves, one of the band majors, and on the annual staff, was in last year's junior play and is a member of the Ski Athletic association, of the Ski club and Pep club.

Her name will be placed in a bowl at Salem along with the names of the other D. A. R. winners in Oregon and on February 22, Rex Putnam, superintendent of the annual staff, will draw one of the girls' names out. This lucky girl will make a pilgrimage to Washington, D. C., with all expenses paid. Here she will meet with similar winners from all over the United States. No Hillsboro girl has made the trip and all at Hilhi hope that Miss Gardner will break the jinx this year.
