

Local Man with AAA Leader

W. J. Enschede, Hillsboro, in center, is pictured with Fred S. Wallace, right, chief of the AAA and special war board assistant to the secretary of agriculture, who made his first visit to Oregon recently to attend a conference of 13 western state war board chairmen. While here he inspected some of Oregon's famous seed crops. J. J. Inskeep, left, Clackamas county agent, and Enschede are showing Wallace a grass-seed field ready for harvest. The AAA chairman said every pound of Oregon's cover crop seed would be needed. Enschede is one of the Oregon AAA state committeemen. (Cut courtesy The Oregonian)

THREE CHEERS FOR THE BARGAIN HUNTER!

Budget-stretching is a fine art... and one that we all must learn. It is vital to "Thrifty and Savings for Victory."

One way to stretch budgets is to select the things that will give us the longest service so replacements can be put off as long as possible.

Another way to stretch the budget is to watch every newspaper ad with a sharp eye. An advertisement like this, for example, is full of things for the thrifty!
