

Bergers Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Berger

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Berger of Bethany celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, August 9, at the Phillips grove. One-hundred and fifty relatives and friends showered them with flowers, gifts and congratulations. A picnic dinner was served at noon.

The following program was given in the afternoon. An address by Rev. Hatfield of Portland, extolled the Women's Guild; "Silver Threads Among the Gold," by seven daughters; solo, "Under His Wings," by their daughter, Freda; song by ten small grandchildren; accordion music by a grandson, Earl Dronbaugh. Concluding the program was old fashioned Swiss yodeling by a large number of the guests who made the air ring with harmonious melodies.

Mr. and Mrs. Berger were married on June 11, 1892, at Helvetia, and have lived on the same farm ever since. Mr. Berger's father having purchased the place several years before.

They have reared twelve children, all of whom are living, and with the single exception of one daughter, Mrs. Clara Wilson of Portland, all were present at the celebration. Mrs. Wilson is in New York visiting her husband, who is in the service.

The eleven children present were Mrs. Freda Galbraith of Oswego, Mrs. Margaret Lomax of Portland, Mrs. Florence Drorbaugh of Beaverton, Mrs. Lillian Imbrie of Hillsboro, Mrs. Lena Isler of Coquille, Mrs. Marie Mahon of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Ella Rogers of Bellingham, Wash., Carl Simon, Ernest and Henry Berger of route 4 Hillsboro.
