Scholls Women Improve Room For Club Meets

SCHOLLS—A considerable quantity of Red Cross work was accomplished at the all-day meeting of the Scholls Women's club held January 12 at the Rowell home. The pleasant basement room where the meetings are held has been improved by the addition of a new door, and new furniture arrangements for greater efficiency. Sewing machine work occupied the morning, on ski suits and bathrobes, the group partaking of a bag lunch at noon, with dessert served by the hostesses of the day. The regular club session was held after lunch, during which time the members did hand finishing on the work started in the morning. It was planned by the club to donate the sum of $25 for purchase of some sort of cupboard or supply shelves for emergency materials already completed by ladies of the community, which will be installed at the church. A committee comprising Mrs. Jennie Larkin, Mrs. Jo Guild and Mrs. Ruth Chandlee was appointed by President Bennett to take care of the matter. For the afternoon program, Mrs. J. B. Twiford gave an address on International relations, and made a resume of the president's latest speech. A recent letter from Garnet Guild in Palestine was also read. Twenty-six ladies were present.

Mrs. Minnie Bennett is visiting several days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Max Bennett. George Bennett, who has been ill for some time at the Bennett home, continues unchanged.

Visits in California

Fred Aebischer returned home Thursday from San Diego, Cal where he accompanied his mother from Newberg, to meet his brother, who is in the parachutt division of the army. The brother has been in training for some time at Fort Benning, Georgia, and having a short leave, made arrangements to meet the others of his family at the home of a sister, Mrs. John Abel in San Diego. On the return trip, Mr. Aebischer visited his wife's brother, Phil Bogard, at Los Angeles. Dan Aebischer also returned home the same day from Wilmington, N. C., where he went with Harold McCall, who had been living here at the Aebischer home since September. The two young men left December 17 to spend the holidays there, Mr. McCall stayed with his relatives.

Attends Meeting

Mrs. Ruth Chandlee attended an all-day meeting of the executive board of the Oregon State Women's club held at the Congress hotel last week. Tentative plans for the state convention were discussed, the meeting to be held this year in Salem, sometime in May or June. Due to restrictions, the convention will be considerably stream-lined this year, it was said.

Injured on Wagon

Ray Moore has almost completely recovered from injuries suffered last week when the neckyoke on a wagon with which he was hauling wood, broke, tipping the wagon and spilling the wood. Mr. Moore suffered a cut lip, which took six stitches to close, and also suffered from shock.

Mrs. S. D. Trefern (Hazel Bartlett) of Kimberly, Idaho, is a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bartlett, for an indefinite time.

Albert Amacher was home from Bremerton navy yard, over Sunday.

Skating Enjoyed

The cold winds of Sunday and Monday wreaked havoc with water pipes and car blocks, while wood piles vanished rapidly under the onslaught of King Winter. Farmers were hoping for a heavy fall of snow to protect the grain, or a rain to dissolve the frost in the ground. Tuesday's temperature, however, was a little higher, with a south wind blowing light snow across the country. Youngsters who were fortunate enough to have ice skates, were busy cutting figures on the ice-covered ponds left by the recent high water, and a few of their elders took advantage of the cold weather to finish butchering.

Mrs. J. T. McCann returned Friday from a trip of several days to southern Oregon, where she visited her son Elden, at Camp White.

Harmony Club Honors Lincoln

KANSAS CITY—The Harmony club members and their husbands met with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCoy Thursday at Forest Grove with an all-day meeting. Pot-luck dinner was served at noon. The meeting was called to order by the new vice-president, Mrs. Opal Wear. She will take the place of the new president, Mrs. Leona Shiffer, until Mrs. Shiffer is able to take over at the next meeting. Each member as their name is called, will read a poem about Abraham Lincoln and tell something about his life. Members will work also on Mrs. Clara Vanderzanden's Friendship quilt. The next meeting will be held February 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vanderzanden with an all-day meeting. Pot-luck dinner at noon.

Goes to Texas

Mrs. Malcolm Eslinger, who has been at Hobbs, New Mexico, left there recently to join her husband at Amarillo, Tex., where he is stationed at an army camp and attending school to learn mechanical work on airplanes.

Mrs. Caroline Caputo and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joe Caputo, and daughter Joan of Portland are visiting this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vanderzanden, and family.

Have Benefit Party

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Vanderzanden gave a "500" card party Sunday evening for the benefit of the Roy Altar Society.

A number of relatives surprised Mrs. D. E. Ewing Sunday at their home in Forest Grove in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oglesby returned home Wednesday from a fishing trip at Alsea, where they spent several days.

Guests at the C. H. Hamilton home Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Stevens of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Ruth Seawabel of Hubbard. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen were guests Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Martin and little daughter Lorene of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jackson and little sons Donald and Gordon of Buxton were guests several days of the girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCoy, of Forest Grove.
