

Allen Family Receives Word From Three Sons

CORNELIUS—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allen heard from all three of their sons, who are in the service, on Monday. Donald, who hadn't been heard from since September, is now in Los Angeles, Cal., and expects to be home in a month. Ross' letter was dated December 25 in Australia. He had not yet received his Christmas packages from U. S. He said they would not hear from him again for a long time and said to tell all his friends he is being transferred to Burns. All are well.

Club Meets Today

The Civic club meets Thursday afternoon (today) at the city hall at 2 o'clock. Mrs. F. Doobler, local teacher, has arranged a program for the meeting.

Service Men Write

Oliver received a letter from her son Frank, who is somewhere in the south Pacific, stating that he was fine. She also heard from Vern Shay, in the hospital at Camp Young, Cal. He said to say hello to all his Cornelius friends.

Husband in Texas

Mrs. J. Z. Haynes received a letter from her husband, who is in the army and was stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. He has been transferred to Camp Borden, Tex., and is now in the medical corps.

School Dismissed

Because of difficulty in heating the building, all the rooms were dismissed all day except the first and second grades, who also dismissed at noon on Monday.

Tows Gravel Truck

Gloyd Hall towed a gravel truck which was used on the airport at Astoria and was wrecked when it skidded on ice from Astoria last Saturday afternoon. He ran into a heavy snow on the other side of Buxton.

Pigeon Comes to Place

J. J. Dumas of northwest of Hillsboro reports that a pigeon came to his place Friday night late and has remained there. Its leg bears the following brand: W. F. 22015 Circle T. Lazy 39. It seems to be worn out and doesn't want to leave, according to Dumas, who says the owner is welcome to it anytime he comes after it.

Kenneth Thelin Heads Winning Future Farmers

CORNELIUS—Kenneth Thelin, local boy attending Forest Grove high school, is president of the Future Farmers of America organization there, which received a banner of award for the second time in a parliamentary contest in the lower Willamette valley district held recently at Dayton.

Joe Senko Buys Rare Flowers

CORNELIUS—Joe Senko has purchased 30 rare varieties of red, apricot, yellow, pink and white rhododendrons for his nursery. One white one, named King George, rated as four stars, is eight inches across and the bouquet is 18 inches high. These flowers have two, three and four star ratings and were bought from the John Henry Nursery at Molalla, who import these flowers from England, and other foreign countries. Mr. Senko has also added a few more rare camelia plants, including the Black Prince and the Fimbriato Superba.

Overseas Army Mail Restricted

States and overseas as a personal gift from McKinney & McKinney, publishers, the requirement being that the service men make a written request to the publishers. Pending a further study and interpretation of the order, no statement of policy to be put in effect by the Army can as yet be made according to Verne McKinney, editor.
