Lt. G. S. Griffith Speaker Friday At. B. P. Meet

"How to serve your country in the WAVES or SPARS" was the theme of the Business and Professional Women's club at their meeting Friday night by Lieutenant George S. Griffith of Portland, recruiting officer. He outlined the procedure of enlistment, qualifications of the applicant, schedule of training and other points in the life of a trainee. Lt. Griffith was accompanied by his wife Ann Peters, who has joined the WAVES and her mother, Mrs. R. Frank Peters, were honor guests.

Mrs. D. McKelton gave a short talk on "Mobilizing Women Power" and introduced the following women who are taking positions formerly occupied by men:

Mrs. Margaret S. Snow, garage work; Mrs. Hazel Huffman, with the P. G. E. company; Mrs. Gladys Langdon, shipyard employe, and Miss Birdlyn Matteson, with B. E. Maling company.

Group singing was enjoyed during the dinner hour led by Mrs. Maude Stannard and Mrs. Verda Zonderzan, with Mrs. Jessie Sewell as the pianist. The program closed with a short skit, "All That and Heaven Too," the characters being Martha Washington, Emma McKimney, Cleopatra, Eunice Kimmeler, Mary, Queen of Scots, Birdlyn Matteson and Eleanor Roosevelt. Maude Stannard. The play was written by Mrs. McKelton.

Table decorations were bows of ivy, and army "chow" was the main course served by the dinner committee.

Plans were made for the February meeting, which will be a birthday party with those whose birthdays are in the same month having a separate table and serving their own dinner. Also present a skit or number for the program.

Relatives Held As Jap Prisoners

Word has been received here by Miss Angie Harrington that Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hansen (Jessie Ireland) are prisoners of war at the Santomas university building in Japan. Information came through the Red Cross to Mr. Hansen's sister in Portland. Evidently Mr. Hansen had been taken prisoner more recently than his wife, as Mrs. Hansen's name was in a list released sometime ago by the war department.

Mrs. Hansen is well known here as a daughter of Lester Ireland and a niece of Miss Harrington.

Erickson on Visit

Clifford Erickson, fireman 2-c, navy construction, arrived here January 11 from Camp Endicott, R. I. for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erickson, of Hillsboro. ### Mrs. Izola Parker Speaker Friday On Recreation

Mrs. Izola Jensen Parker of the Oregon State college home economics extension service was here Friday afternoon for a meeting of representatives of the women's groups of Hillsboro at the home of Mrs. B. P. Rasmussen, recreational chairman of the P. T. A., and made plans to return January 27 to instruct a class in cowboy dancing and old time swing. It is hoped that from this class will come instructors for this type of dancing in all parts of the county.

Mrs. Parker says this is a part of the national "Keep Fit" program adding "Let us awaken and become physically strong through action, socially strong through co-operation, and spiritually strong by releasing tensions. Leaders are needed."

She studied cowboy dancing and swing with Lloyd Shaw at his Cheyenne Mountain school at Colorado Springs two summers, and will bring a variety of steps, and inspiration for this type of recreational activity.

Committee appointments made at the Rasmussen home were Mrs. Thomas Doyle, floor committee; Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain, music; and Mrs. Francis Sturgis, publicity chairman.

West Union Club Women Give Aid

WEST UNION—Mrs. E. A. Griffith, chairman of the Washington County Unit of the Camp and Hospital Service through the Red Cross, and Mrs. J. M. Person met with the West Union Senior Women's club January 14 to outline the plans and needs of the committee.

The club members were so inspired by the message received that they cut and completed ten caps needed by service men in the Columbia Basin area before the afternoon was over.

Games have been donated by several members that will be used to help service men in the hospitals while away from the home.

Bride-Elect Honor Guest at Party

A bridal shower honoring Miss Wilma Schildhauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schildhauser of Laurel, was held at the home of Miss Betty Rosecrans, Saturday afternoon. Miss Schildhauser is the bride-elect of PFC Alfred Hundis, U. S. army air corps, stationed at St. Joseph, Mo.
