

Methodist Church Honors Mothers; Helen Schmidt Joins Army Nurses

CORNELIUS—Next Sunday at the Methodist church, the Youth Fellowship will again serve the church as choir and ushers. Special attention is given to the interests of religious education in the church. Last Sunday Rev. C. H. Schreiber baptized four children at the Mother's Day service.

Mother's Day was held at the Methodist church with specially honored mothers sitting in front pews marked with red, white and blue streamers. Three baskets, one in red, one in white, and one in blue, formed the setting. Carol Shaw, Faye Egelen and Elaine Goble, Don Wyatt and Charles Olsen sang, "You Are My Sunshine." A trio of girls, Misses Lucille Mann, Mayme Wyatt and Betty Greason, made a pretty picture as they knelt before Mother's Day. A service flag holding 43 stars, one gold one for David Edmondson, killed on the U. S. Oklahoma in 1941. As they knelt, dressed in red, white and blue, they lit the same colored candles and sang "Light a Candle in the Chapel." Jean Mundorff, Shirley McKethan, and Leona Wyatt presented flowers to service mothers, which had a tiny flag and a white ribbon. Blue bows, Beverly Trites and Ruth Grason ushered. Rev. C. H. Schreiber delivered the sermon. At the conclusion of the services the congregation stood with bowed heads in recognition of all mothers as Paula Jones sang, "God Bless Our Mothers." Bouquets were given to the following: oldest mother, Mrs. Belle Lilly, 79; youngest mother, Mrs. Edley, 20, and Mrs. W. K. Stevenson, 25; mother coming longest distance, Mrs. Don McPherson, 1000 miles from Los Angeles, Cal.; paragonage mother, Mrs. C. H. Schreiber for over 25 years; attending church here the longest, Mrs. George Holscher for over 50 years; mothers with three sons in service, Mrs. Leila Smith, Mrs. Floyd Allen, Mrs. Eleanor Mundorff; mothers with two sons or sons-in-law in service, Mrs. Nora Clites, Mrs. Dan Barrett, Mrs. Walter Collinger, Mrs. Millie McPherson, Mrs. Percy Newman, Mrs. W. Watkins, Mrs. Alfred Dore, Mrs. A. Henderling, Mrs. A. J. Oliver; mother of one service man, Mrs. George Milne, Mrs. M. LaFollett, Mrs. McKillop, Mrs. George Holscher, Mrs. Martha Mann, Mrs. A. Erickson, Mrs. G. Devine, Mrs. P. Lewis, Mrs. W.

Grade Schools Have Play Day

CORNELIUS—A number of Cornelius people attended the installation of the new pastor, Father John Larkin, at St. Anthony's Catholic church in Forest Grove Sunday evening. Father M. Jonas of Verboort was the installing priest.

Have Play Day
Fern Hill, Centerville and Blooming parochial schools will join the Cornelius school here Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock for a play day. There will be music and athletic events. The public is invited.

Hall's ambulance was called to take Mrs. Jean Warner of West Pacific avenue in Forest Grove to the Forest Grove general hospital Saturday morning. She is ill with bronchial pneumonia.

Sing in Concert
Margaret Mary O'Donnell sang at Maryhurst college Saturday in the musical concert at the Forest Grove union high school Friday night.

Cornelius Plans Civilian Defense Friday Night

CORNELIUS—Mayor George S. Simantel wishes to call the attention of everyone to attend the meeting Friday, May 14, at the city hall at 8 p. m. to re-organize civilian defense. It is very important that everyone attend this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watkins, and daughter, Joyce Thompson, spent the week-end with Mrs. Paul Watkins, at Stevens near Astoria.

To Locate Here
Mrs. May Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. James Foster and son Marvin of Blackwell, Okla., arrived by auto Saturday evening at the J. F. Straughan home. They expect to locate here. On Sunday they were all guests at the A. E. Frye home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Lom entertained with a dinner party Sunday at their home. All of their children but Robert were present. James Bean is recuperating at his home from a light attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Roscoe Rush is able to be up and will soon be able to return to her home near Gaston. She is staying at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Bean, here, and recently underwent an appendectomy.

Birthday Celebrated
A birthday party was held for eight friends at the home of June Dusick Saturday evening in honor of his 16th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing. Refreshments, including a birthday cake, were served.

Falls from Tree
David Goble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Goble, fell out of a tree Friday evening and sprained his back. The doctor taped it and he was able to go to school on Monday.

Mrs. Robert Van Lom and baby Joyce Ann of Vancouver arrived Saturday evening to visit her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Lom.

Carl Hoffman is building a combination garage, woodshed and fruit room at his home.

Mary Lou Jackson was in a class of five to take their first communion Sunday morning at St. Anthony's Catholic church in Forest Grove.

Mrs. Ashley Jackson is confined to her bed with flu and under a doctor's care.

Several Cornelius people attended the annual program given at St. Mary's school Sunday evening. Margaret Jane Doohar, who is a junior in the school, was in the program.

Children Attend Cornelius Clinic

CORNELIUS—Seven children were present for the child clinic held Tuesday afternoon, May 4. Shots were given and examinations made. Dr. F. T. Burke and Miss Margaret Graham were in charge. Assisting were Anita Gardner of Hillsboro, Mrs. William Mann and Mrs. Paul Senko.

Mrs. Richard Kunkle has gone to work at Swan Island shipyard as a welder.

Enos Miller of Menlow, Iowa, arrived Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ratliff and daughters, for a visit.

Fred Thompson of Moline, Ill., arrived Monday to visit his aunt, Mrs. Walter Watkins.

Mrs. M. A. Tilsen, who has been in the Forest Grove hospital for several days, returned to her home Friday and is slowly recovering from bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. C. Nation, who has been ill the past week with the flu, recovered and went back to her work at the Willamette shipyard, Monday.

Cuts Leg
S. C. Swank received a cut on his leg Saturday evening while cutting grass around his yard with a cycle. A doctor was called and several stitches were taken.

Hank Herring was ill at his home with the flu Friday and here, and was well enough to return to his store Monday.

Buy Lot
Mr. and Mrs. L. D. La Casse, who live in a trailer home at the Findley Garrison place, have purchased a lot at West Slope and expect to move there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Delmonte and children of Oswego called at the A. J. Oliver, R. P. Shaw, and Reynold Geiger homes Sunday. The Delmontes are former Cornelius residents. Their daughter Alice is a messenger girl at the Willamette shipyard and the other daughter is Mrs. Dell Collins of the U. S. air force and their son Jackie graduates from grade school this year.

Some of Mrs. Martha Mann's children surprised her with a potluck dinner Sunday. All sent her gifts, and a special gift came from her son, Sergeant Loyal Mann of Pomona, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Delmonte and daughter, Betty, of Portland, visited old friends here Sunday. They are former Cornelius residents and owned a home here. They were amazed at the improvements and the number of new buildings erected here since they left. Their daughter Betty is married and lives near Spokane, Wash., at an army post.
