

Children Hold Annual Rose Festival; Letter Carriers Re-Elect Officers

CORNELIUS—Years ago a group of children started a rose festival. As the years passed it was enlarged and new ones taken into the group. This year it was a large beautiful affair and was held Saturday evening at the school auditorium. The scene was decorated with pastel crepe, which formed a canopy in the center of the auditorium. The throne was banked in pastel crepe baskets and flowers from the gardens of townspeople. The girls wore pastel formal, rosebud corsages and carried arm rose bouquets with streamers entwined with roses. The silver scepter bearer was Merna Castleberry. The crown bearer, Jerry Dooher, carried the silver crown on a blue satin cushion. Prime Minister Tony Dooher, crowned the Queen, Margaret Jane Dooher, as she knelt on a blue satin cushion. The King was Albert Vermore. The Princesses were Lucille Mann, Shirley McKichan, Betty Jo Greason, Leona Wyatt, Manie Wyatt, and Beverly Triles. Escorts were Duane Olanie, John L. O'Donnell, Millard Wood, Jerry Cartwright, Jack Cartwright and Byron Hodge. Mrs. Frank Dooher played the processional. Mrs. R. Geiger made the corsages and Mrs. Triles made the bouquets. The Queen led the group in a dance and the evening was spent by a large group dancing.
