

Hazeldale Sunday School Service Flag Dedicated at Church Sunday

HAZELDALE—Following regular Sunday school, a beautiful service flag containing 12 stars was dedicated with appropriate exercises and Rev. W. P. Keelbaugh of Beaverton delivered a forceful sermon suited to the occasion.

A. L. Berg of Beaverton sang two tenor solos and a tribute in poem form was given by Miss Elva Howey. The following boys from Hazeldale Sunday school are in the armed forces: Army: Frank Gillenwater, Clifford Halm and Chauncey Palm; Navy: John Gulliford, Lester Palm, Dwight Hesterlee, William Imlah, Richard Koch, Leo Salee, Robert Salee, Marine corps: Ben Jelderks.

Put Money in Bonds
Attendance was 58 at Sunday school. $101.11 was taken from the church banks. The money will be put in bonds to be used for building a church when the war is over. A pot-luck dinner was held at noon following the service flag dedication.

Mrs. Bertha Schulz was taken suddenly ill and rushed to Portland.

Monuments

Whether your need is for an elaborate family monument or a memorial marker, visit our display and let us help you with an unfamiliar family problem.

OREGON MONUMENT WORKS

H. H. Stannard, Mgr.
Hillsboro, Oregon

MEN WANTED

FOR HARVEST SEASON
IN MILL

Full or Part Time!

Start Work Immediately

TUALATIN VALLEY COOP

160 W. Main HILLSBORO Phone 271

Reedville Group Plans Picnic on Church Lawn

REEDVILLE—Annual picnic of the local Church Women's association will be held July 22 on the church lawn with a pot-luck dinner to be served at noon Mrs. Loren Slade, Mrs. C. A. Kelly and Mrs. J. A. Stierz are in charge.

A special offering of $8.49 was given by members of the local Sunday school Sunday morning, to be sent to the Friends Service organization for the starving children of Europe. An additional $1.01 was previously given by the "True Blue" class of the Sunday school making a total of $7.50 sent to that most humane cause, by the school.

Tells of Trip
During assembly period at Sunday school Sunday Mrs. Otto George gave an interesting account of her recent trip south. She told of the overcrowded condition of the trains and advised all to refrain from traveling unless of necessity. She found Florida extremely warm except one day when a heavy down-pour of rain lowered the temperature temporarily. She is glad to be home as she prefers the Oregon climate.

J. K. Wedgeworth of York, Alabama, is a guest for several weeks of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wedgeworth. This is his first trip to the west and he enjoys the scenery. He came by train through California and plans to return via the northern route.

Sells Place
Arthur Schrader, former local resident and now of Portland, has sold his home and acreage east of Reedville to Mrs. Bertha E. Weaver, who took immediate possession. Mrs. Weaver sold her home and acreage to Mr. and Mrs. Anders M. Pedersen.

A recent letter received by Mrs. John Farley from her son Robert Carroll, who is stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., while training as an army officer, states that he will soon complete his course there, when he will be transferred elsewhere. Mrs. Carroll is with him at Fort Knox.

Mrs. Don Miller and daughter Carolyn and her sister, Mrs. Leonard Uppinghouse, and children returned Thursday by train from Washington, where they spent several days with their grandmother, Mrs. Josie Oliver at Pomeroy, and also visited their aunts, Mrs. William Yoe and Mrs. Bert Oliver in Spokane. They were gone ten days.

Mrs. George Lippert came home Tuesday from Smith's hospital in Hillsboro, where she recently underwent major surgery. She is convalescing rapidly.

Mrs. Robert Selander (nee Evelyn Williams), whose marriage was an event of May 17 at San Diego, Cal., has returned to her parents' home here and resumed her position with General Motors in Portland. Her husband is in the naval training school in San Diego.

Lieutenant-Commander Tom G. Wallace, United States navy, of San Diego, was a guest last Wednesday of his cousin, Mrs. T. J. Nault, while en route to the east coast.

Miss Betty Corrieri and Mrs. M. Rones left last week for Nelscott to spend the summer at the beach.

Westminster Guild met Sunday afternoon at the Lewis and Clark college campus in Portland. A pot-luck lunch was enjoyed by the 14 members present. Mrs. Ralph Wilson was complimented with a shower and received some nice gifts.

Eloise Stiff and Dolores George returned Saturday from Cornelius, where they picked strawberries in the Gnos field for the season. Eloise left later for her home near Goldendale, Wash. Dolores spent the week-end with Doris Brownlee and Dorothy Kirkwood and left Sunday for her home in Portland.

Mrs. Glenn Stiff, formerly of Reedville, is reported seriously ill with arthritis at her home in Goldendale.

A. W. Buchanan is back on the mail route this week after a few

Three Injured in Auto Accident Near City

Alydeane Meahan and John De Sautel of Wheeler and Orvel Paul Tuggle of route 1 Nehalem were taken to Jones hospital Tuesday suffering injuries following a collision of an automobile driven by Miss Meahan with a car driven by Tom Prichard of Cornelius near the west city limits of Hillsboro Tuesday. Miss Meahan suffered a dislocated elbow and scratches and bruises, while Tuggle and De Sautel were released after head wounds were dressed.

Judge in Tillamook

Judge R. Frank Peters held court in Tillamook the first of the week and will go to Polk county Friday.

days' vacation, the first in two years.

A large group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. E. J. Lurie last Wednesday afternoon for a surprise bridal shower, complimenting Mrs. Richard Heiser (nee Agnes Moline), whose marriage was an event of July 3 in Portland. A coffee table, a set of dishes, and Heisey cut glass was presented to the bride. Dainty refreshments were served.

Dixie Mountain

James M. Parnole of the Fort Lewis fire department returned to the fort after spending a week visiting here.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Moran July 2.

Subscribe for the Argus

Publisher Chairman

FOREST GROVE—Hugh McGill-vra, publisher of the News-Times, has been elected chairman of Forest Grove union high school district board for the fifth time. He was appointed in 1939 to fill an unexpired term and was elected for a five-year term in 1940.

HELP WANTED

Full-time Workers Needed

from 6 to 10 in the evening

Also Part-time Workers

Imperial Feed & Grain Co.

549 S. 2nd Ave., Hillsboro

Washington County's Largest Feed Manufacturers

Phone 551

ON THE AIR! 3 NIGHTS WEEKLY

"Gardening for Food"

with Cecil Solly

Helpful talks by a noted garden expert and authority on growing conditions of the Pacific Northwest.

Consult your paper for time & station.

"LIGHT BEER PROMOTES TEMPERANCE"

SPONSORED BY OLYMPIA BREWING COMPANY, OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON, U.S.A.

DEDICATION

Washington County Victory Center

(South Side of Main Street — Between Second and Third)

Thursday, July 15, 7:30 p.m.

Big All Star Show

CAROL WORTH

"MISS OREGON"

Johnny Carpenter, KOIN
MASTER OF CEREMONIES

BEVERLY LOYD

MOVIE ACTRESS

Cover Girl in this week's Look Magazine

THE SINGING SENTINELS

(Oregon Shipbuilding Corporation)

PORTLAND AIR BASE BAND

(33 PIECES)

This Advertisement is a Contribution to America's All-Out War Effort by Spencer Motor Co.

Packard - Plymouth - Chrysler

Next Sunday in The Journal

WAR MAP

of the

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC

Showing in complete detail the vital combat areas
... New Guinea, New Georgia, the Solomons, etc.

A FULL PAGE MAP IN COLOR!

★ "BALCONY EMPIRE"

★ "ONE WORLD"

★ 3 MAGAZINES

★ 8 Pages Comics

★ 10 SECTIONS

Only 10c

Next Sunday, July 18th

SUNDAY JOURNAL

Portland, Oregon

Subscribe Now or Reserve a Copy From a Newsstand

To Subscribe, Phone Portland Journal Office
Hillsboro 1641 or 1101