

Employers Guests At B. P. W. Dinner; State President Here

"Our responsibility in this war is where we are," said Miss Dolores Brown, speaker at the Business and Professional Women's dinner Friday night. "Living on the Home Front" was the theme of the dinner meeting which was in celebration of National Business Women's Week.

"Boys on the fighting front want the folks at home to be taken care of," said Miss Brown. "The home front is where we must serve and where we have an opportunity to serve in many ways. Among other things we should provide wholesome recreation and interests to our boys on the fighting front."

"It inclined to criticize others. 'Take a Walk Around Yourself,' and check your attitude. Be realistic."

Rules for constructive living were given by the speaker as follows:

1. Budget your time so that you will have time to do constructive things.
2. Get under the load of human needs and lift it.
3. Explore the realm of silence.
4. Participate in things pertaining to the spirit.
5. Appreciate the beauty of nature.
6. Pitch friendship on a high level.
7. Read great biographies.
8. Uproot any habit that tends to drive you down.
9. Get out and move.
10. Be neighborly to all ages, creeds, and races. Knowledge destroys prejudice.

"We must be willing to practice things for which we are fighting—appreciate the suffering of others. Must do our part in a co-operative world, bound by ties of friendship and goodwill, to insure a lasting peace."

Miss Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown of this city, is director of religious education of the council of churches in Portland. She is a world traveler, and told some amusing anecdotes of her travels. By her personal experience in Canada, she found it quite important to know the names of the sheriffs in her home counties, Washington and Multnomah.

A distinguished guest at the dinner was Mrs. Isabel Brinker of Klamath Falls, state president, who brought greetings from the Oregon federation. Mrs. Mabel Graas, president, also was present.

Person Resigns As Red Cross Disaster Chairman

J. M. Person, who has been Red Cross disaster chairman for the past year, tendered his resignation at the meeting of the board of directors last Thursday night at Red Cross headquarters, and at his suggestion, L. Bachner was elected as disaster chairman.

Reports of various chairmen were given, including a report that 1156 surgical dressings had been completed and delivered to Portland headquarters; that the motor corps had taken a child to the Dornbecher hospital and had made several other long trips; that a nursing class had been started in the McKinley school community with 16 members; that the Junior Red Cross had shipped 475 Christmas tree ornaments and tray cards last week; and that the cotteeen class had paid the expense of the last blood donation.

Miss Mary Gray, state home nursing consultant, gave a talk on the importance of health work in home service and nursing on front lines. She said there were many nurses in Washington county working. However, these nurses are available for advance and in cases of emergency according to the county health office.

A letter was received this week by Mrs. Zola Morgan, Junior Red Cross chairman, in appreciation of the donation sent from this county which states:

"My Dear Mrs. Morgan: We have received your package from the Junior Red Cross members of St. Mary's of the Valley Academy at Brainerd, Oregon. This package, containing Christmas tray favors and 215 Christmas decorations, was just as nice as any we have received. They are already packed in two of the crates and will be on their way shortly. We thought the tray favors made from old Christmas favors received from them are also being included in one of the overseas Christmas kits.

Sincerely yours, EARL K. PECKHAM, Director, Junior Red Cross, Pacific Area."

Julia says—
Let the Children Cook

LAST MONTH, in one of these columns, I talked about the way youngsters like to put up their own school lunches. And, to tell the truth, I was amazed at the number of readers—both young and old—who wrote me afterward. Almost everyone was quick to point out that the younger generation not only likes to pack lunches, but also gets real satisfaction from various kinds of practical cooking.

More than one reader added this very timely thought: nowadays, when so many mothers are busy with war work, it's a real family help when the children take an active part in making the kitchen run smoothly. It gives them the feeling of "doing something" important, too.

I've found through my own experience that youngsters make creditable cooks provided they're not hurried and provided they start out on things they really like. For example, boys can handle this one enthusiastically and skillfully, right off the bat:

WAFFLES AND PANCAKES

2 cups enriched flour 1/2 tsp. salt
2 tps. baking powder 2 eggs
1/2 cup milk 1/2 cups melted shortening
4 tps. sugar

Sift flour, measure; sift again with baking powder, sugar and salt. Beat eggs in large bowl with rotary beater; add milk and shortening; beat until well mixed. Add flour mixture and beat with rotary beater until smooth.

For Waffles: Bake in hot waffle iron about five minutes or until no more "steam" escapes and waffles are a golden brown. Do not "peek" while baking. Makes six 6-inch waffles.

For Pancakes: Drop batter by tablespoonfuls on hot, slightly greased griddles. Turn cakes when bubbles break. Bake until golden brown. Makes 10 to 12 medium-sized pancakes (4 inches in diameter).

MYSTERY OF THE MISSING SOMETHING

THIS LOOKS LIKE COFFEE—IT SMELLS LIKE COFFEE—IT TASTES LIKE COFFEE. BUT SOMETHING SEEMS TO BE MISSING. HOW COME?

I DON'T KNOW. GREAT. JUST BOUGHT IT YESTERDAY, AND I PACK A GOOD DEAL FOR ME.

IT'S THE FUNNIEST THING. JOAN. YESTERDAY I PAID A LOT OF MONEY FOR A POUND OF COFFEE. BUT THIS MORNING, WHEN I GOT UP AND SAID "SOMETHING SEEMS TO BE MISSING AND HE DIDN'T MEAN CREAM AND SUGAR, EITHER. BECAUSE HE ALWAYS TAKES HIS COFFEE STRAIGHT" TO GET THE FULL FLAVOR.

WOULD YOU FOR YOUR COFFEE IF YOU BOUGHT IT IN THE WHOLE-BEAN AND HAD IT GROUND EXACTLY RIGHT FOR YOUR COFFEE MAKER. IN MY EXPERIENCE, THAT'S THE WAY TO GET REAL FLAVOR!

ILL BET MARTIN THAT SOUNDS LIKE AN O.K.!

AM-THIS IS SOMETHING LIKE IT. REAL COFFEE AGAIN—EVEN THOUGH IT COSTS PLINY OF MONEY—IT'S WORTH IT.

BUT THIS COFFEE ISN'T EXPENSIVE. I JUST DISCOVERED THAT IN COFFEE, IT'S FREEDOM THAT COUNTS. SO I BOUGHT WHOLE-BEAN COFFEE... HAD IT GROUND MYSELF... WAITED... SAY THIS IS GOOD COFFEE!
