

Pacific Cellist Recital Announced For Next Sunday

Robert Sonderskov, staff cellist of KOIN, will be presented in an artistic recital next Sunday afternoon in Marsh hall, Forest Grove, by the division of music of Pacific university. The cellist, who is a new member of the university division of music, will be assisted by the Pacific a cappella choir, directed by B. Ellsworth Harris. Admission will be free.

Sonderskov is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory in Copenhagen, Denmark, and was for 10 years cellist and conductor of the Danish opera company. He was with the Chicago Symphony orchestra for four years.

Program for Sonderskov will include "Sonata Arpeggione" (A-m-m-o-n-i), Schubert, "Adagio," Haydn; "Intermezzo," Granados; "Scherzo," Van Goens; "Gavotte," Popper and "Hungarian Rhapsody," Popper. He will be accompanied by George B. Williston at the piano.

Numbers by the 40-voice university a cappella choir will include "A Legend," Technikowsky; "Madame Jeanette," Murray; and "Finale to the first act of 'Pinafore,'" Gilbert and Sullivan.

"Pinafore," by Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented by the university February 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schneider attended the funeral of Mrs. Otto Schneider's father, Mr. W. A. Haget of Portland, December 31.

CELLIST—Robert Sonderskov, new faculty member of the division of music of Pacific university, who will be presented in artistic recital Sunday afternoon at Forest Grove.

Congregational Church Annual Meeting Sunday

Annual meeting of the Congregational church will be held at the church Sunday evening, beginning with a pot-luck supper for church families, members and friends at 6:30 o'clock. Officers will be elected, reports from the several organizations will be given and other business will include consideration of amendments to the church constitution.

State President To Visit Coffee Club January 14

Mrs. George Moorhead of Salem, state president of the Federation of Women's clubs, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Coffee club Friday afternoon, January 14. Her subject will be "The Home."

Mrs. Moorhead is an outstanding speaker and her subject is one every woman is interested in. Women's organizations in the community and all other ladies are especially invited to attend this meeting.

Miss Closson Weds Ensign Bjorklund

Holly and lighted tapers decorated Trinity Episcopal church in Portland Sunday evening, December 28, for the wedding of Miss Jeanne M. Closson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leroy Closson, to Ensign Ralph K. Bjorklund, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bjorklund, of Hillsboro. The Rev. Lansing E. Kempton performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of rich ivory satin with bustle back and full train. The gown was trimmed at the waist with hand run Alençon lace, and her full veil was of illusion.

The maid of honor, Miss Edith Catherine Collins, wore a dress of "bride's blue" jersey and carried a bouquet of pink anemones.

Misses Caroline Stone, Betty Sprague and Marjorie Rauch, bridesmaids, were dressed in similar frocks to the maid of honor and carried pink anemones.

Mr. Ernest G. Bjorklund was best man for his son. Ushers were Ensign Melvin Leek, Ensign John Kilbuck, and Lt. Don L. Closson.

A large reception followed in the Marine room of the Multnomah hotel. Presiding at the tea table were Mesdames Harold Bjorklund, Warren Kaley, Jacob Preble and Ralph Boddy. Assisting were Mrs. Bud Brandon and the Mesdames Jean Proehl and Donna Lea Biddy.

Ensign and Mrs. Bjorklund will make their home in Washington, D. C., temporarily, where Ensign Bjorklund will be trained in bomb disposal work.

For traveling the bride wore a purple wool dressmaker suit with chartreuse blouse and hat to match. Her accessories were brown and her corsage was of orchids.

Ensign Bjorklund graduated with honors on December 22 from the Midshipman U. S. naval school at Chicago, being seventh high in a class of nearly 200. He received the title of Battalion Sub Commander.

AMERICAN HOUSEWIVES WASTE enough food to feed AN ARMY OF 10 MILLION

- by buying too many perishables at one time
- by overcooking or burning
- by not using left-overs
- by not using all edible parts of food—tops of greens, heels of bread, etc.
- by forgetting food stored in the back of the refrigerator

These are some of the ways 15% of all food bought by the average family is wasted

Observes 91st Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Walker were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Walker in Forest Grove, honoring the 91st birthday of Samuel Walker, father of the men. Mr. Walker is well known over the state as a violinist, having played old-time music for dances for years. Despite his advanced age, he is in good health and entertained his sons and daughters-in-law with some of his favorite violin music in celebration of his birthday.

Rainbow Girls to Elect

Rainbow Girls will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at Masonic temple. Election of officers will be the main business.

Trailer Sold Through Small Classified Ad

One issue of the Argus was sufficient to bring the sale of a "house trailer, good rubber, stove and sanitary couch," for $100 although C. J. Crook of Cornelius had ordered the ad run twice in the Argus classified pages. Cost of running the ad for one time was 32 cents and 25 cents for any additional times. The trailer was sold for the price asked the day after the paper was distributed.

The thousands of Argus readers in Washington county assure a market if there is any demand at all. Argus classified pages constitute the great market place of Washington county.

For further information call Miss Pennington at the Washington county health department offices at the courthouse, Phone 3161.

P. U. Celebrates 95th Charter Day

The board of trustees, faculty and students are making extensive plans for the celebration on Sunday, January 9, of the 95th Charter Day of Pacific university.

Pacific university was established in 1841 and chartered in 1849. It is a pioneer Congregational college and has maintained high standards of scholarship and service, numbering many prominent men and women among its graduates.

Mrs. Judson Allen of Battle Ground, Wash., was a guest from Friday to Tuesday of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fayetta Allen, and Mrs. M. W. Johnson.

Red Cross Sewing Takes New Start

The Red Cross is anxious to complete the quota of hospital slippers as they are badly needed, according to word received at the production room. New material has also been received for blouses, pajamas and hospital shirts; also 300 each of kit bags and housewives are still to be finished. These should be completed as soon as possible as additional orders are expected at any time. Cutters would be greatly appreciated, and knitters are needed for army and navy gloves.

The rooms, which are comfortably warm now, are open from 1 to 4 Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Groups desiring to work at the rooms are requested to telephone the production room, 1701, and arrangements will be made for an afternoon or as much time as desired by the organization or club.
