REAL SOLDIERS, ARE U. S. NURSES—INDIA-BURMA BORDER
A detachment of U. S. nurses is in training here to replace Lt. Col. Seagrave and his Burmese nurses on the Burma front. The girls are being schooled in every aspect of jungle warfare, both natural and man-made, have to carry heavy packs on long hikes, must know how to care for themselves and their patients under most trying circumstances. Here Lt. Jennie Tinkovitz, right, of Fostoria, Ohio, Indiana, who tightens Jennie's pack in real soldier fashion, before an eight-mile hike.

Examination for Postal Subs Set

Following the program, a breakfast of stewed prunes, cereal, biscuits, muffins, ginger bread, cookies, coffee and tea, all prepared and served by the club members, were served to 25 guests. Tables were artistically decorated in the Valentine motif. Mrs. Harold Bergum and Mrs. Joseph Lorentzen were in charge.

Members of Star Pinocchio club were entertained at a luncheon, February 1, at the home of Mrs. Minnie Dushney. At the business session which followed, new officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Jewel Lorentzen, president; Bertha Carlson, vice president; Ruth DeHaan, secretary-treasurer. Two tables of cards were in play, when Hattie LaDue retained high score. Margaret Gaunt and Bertha Carlson drew and traveling prizes. Next meeting of the club will be at the home of Ruth DeHaan.

Donald Diehl, stationed with the army at Camp Abbot, near Bend, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Diehl, Sunday. He has been disabled for a week because of an injured ankle.

Mrs. Clyde Baumgartner entertained a group of friends at a party at her home, January 27, commemorating her niece, Mrs. Bob Davis, of Orenco, at a shower. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis, February 5, at Jones hospital, Hillsboro.

Norma and La Verne Kuhn of Scholls were week-end guests of Leone Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Frost were hosts at a family gathering Sunday at their home. In the group were his brother Earl Frost and family and an old friend, Alvy Terpeny, all of whom have just arrived from Vancouver, Wash. Also a large group of relatives from Portland.

John Thompson has returned from a week's stay with his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle, Hardman, in Beaverton.

Mary Kathleen, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don McInnis, who was ill with croup and flu last week, and under a doctor's care, has completely recovered.

Oscar Hagg Retires As Dairymen's Head

REEDVILLE—Oscar Hagg, past president of the Oregon Dairymen's association, returned late Friday, after attending the 50th annual meeting of the organization held in Eugene February 10 and 11. He visited friends in Corvallis en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagg were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nielsen at Eugene. Mr. Hagg is vice-president of the Challenge Creameries, and attended a board meeting of the organization Saturday in Eugene.

Mathieson Resigns
A. M. Mathieson resigned, February 1, from his position with McKesson & Robbins, wholesale drug-gists of Portland, with whom he had been associated the past 25 years, as traveling salesman and traffic manager, to accept a position as traveling salesman for the Prophylactic Brush company of Portland.

His new territory will include Oregon, Washington and Idaho. He returned Saturday from a trip to Spokane, Wash., and left Monday on a trip to Seattle. Upon his resignation he was honored at a luncheon by McKesson & Robbins, and was presented with a 25-year plaque in recognition of his long service.

Miss Patty Mathieson entertained twenty-eight members of the Christian Endeavor society at a Valentine party at her home Friday night. Games were played and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The NAME on the Front of a Store

It can be the good face, the inviting smile, the outward sign of inward character of a place of business.

Or it can be merely a group of letters.

The character of a store can shout "Come on in, we're glad to see you!" Or it can bespeak distrust and unfriendliness.

The store with a good name stands for a place where trademarks you can trust are sold by people you like to do business with.

We hope our "shingle" stands for a good place to buy when you are in the market for some of our goods.

For you have that free American Choice to shop where you want to shop, buy what you want to buy and pay what you want to pay.

Our motto, even in these times of limited merchandise, will continue to be:

"Good goods at Fair Prices"

For this war won't last forever and you certainly would get back at us in the peaceful future if we tried to put anything over on you in the fighting present.

We feature:

Trademarks you know
Products you can trust
Quality you can depend on Prices that are honest and we believe in this motto —

"Always Meet the Customer Half Way"

P.S. One of the good names in our store we're pretty proud of is:

— now ready in the season's latest styles.
