about three-quarters of an hour. Most volunteers are able to return immediately to their work.

Persons who wish to make donations may phone Mrs. Abendroth at Hillsboro phone 3612 for an appointment. Volunteers without appointments are welcome to report at the donor center in the Masonic temple, southeast corner of Second and Lincoln streets, Hillsboro, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. Only four hours must elapse between eating a normal meal and making a blood donation, thus making open hours particularly convenient.

Co-operation Asked
Co-operation of volunteers with appointments Monday is urged in the matter of reporting promptly at the time set. Mrs. Abendroth declared. She also asked that people who have appointments and who will not be able to attend call her as soon as possible or send an eligible substitute. This co-operation will go a long way toward assuring the meeting of the day's quota of 140 pints of blood.

Recent extension of the period between donations from eight to 10 weeks has made it necessary to obtain many new donors. Mrs. Abendroth pointed out in urging more volunteers to take part in the program.
