

ON TO BERLIN—This map indicates the pincers course which the experts believe the Russians will follow to circle the Carpathian mountains. Once Odessa is left behind the Soviet armies will first take the Gains and the Ploesti areas much clearer. In Bessarabia and Poland, the Nazis are being backed against the Carpathian wall while, as the upper arrow shows, a direct line to Berlin will start when Lwow falls. The Balkan drive is almost certain to follow the Danube valley route and an unexpected and deadly blow to the Nazis could be directed if the Russians make their way to the Tatar and Jablonica passes to old Czechoslovakia and the plains of Hungary. There is always the further possibility that Allied second front plans will include smashes across Yugoslavia and Albania to join the Russians' Allies in the Balkan.

Spartians Billed To Meet Tiger 'S' There Today

Hills' Spartan baseball nine found time between showers Tuesday to travel to McMinnville and trounce the Grizzlies 8 to 4 in the second game of the current Tualatin-Yamhill valley league season. Weather permitting, the Hills nine is slated to travel to Seaside this afternoon (Thursday) to tangle with the Tigers. Next Tuesday the Spartans are slated to clash with the Forest Grove Vikings on the local diamond.

Both the Spartans and Bears scored runs in the initial inning Tuesday afternoon. In the next frame Dick and Morrison tallied for the locals to take the lead which Hills held to the end of the game. Schuler, Schuler, Maltbeke and Dick scored in a big third inning rally and then Morrison came through with the final run in the seventh. The Grizzlies tallied in the fourth with three runs but were unable to overtake the Spartans.

Van Dyke was born at De Pere, Wis., January 8, 1872. He was a farmer by occupation. Surviving are his widow, Adelaide; daughter, Helen, Forest Grove; sons, Frank, Santa Maria, Cal.; Lawrence, Newburg, Harold, Forest Grove; sisters, Mrs. William Verbort, Mrs. Albert Vandervelden, Mrs. Albert Jansen, all of Forest Grove; brothers, John Van Dyke, Forest Grove.

WFA Eases Rules for Egg Buying

With lack of storage space blamed for much of the recent slump in egg prices, WFA is urging greater consumption of eggs by U. S. civilians and at the same time attempting to speed up its own purchases. Prices received by farmers have dipped to below 20 cents a dozen in some areas.

Government buying is expected to be speeded up by (1) permitting the loading of three grades instead of one in a car, providing there are 100 cases of each grade; (2) accepting offers of daily instead of weekly; and (3) permitting cars to be loaded with both fiber and wood cases. Egg production this year is the largest on record—exceeding pre-war levels by 80 per cent.

SAILORS' BATH TUB—Somewhere in the South Pacific—if your laundry was late last week, it's because the boys in service are being taken care of first. Now available only to the armed forces, laundry washers of the type used by professional laundries back home, make swell bath tubs too. F. F. Robert Loving of Cincinnati, Ohio, watches two of his buddies enjoying a welcomed bath. And you must admit it's good, "clean" fun!

Examinations for West Point Slated

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Representative James W. Mott of Oregon has been advised by the war department that the first congressional district of Oregon will have a vacancy at the United States military academy, West Point, N. Y., to be filled in 1945.

To determine the eligible candidates of the first Oregon district, Congressman Mott has requested the civil service commission to hold a preliminary qualifying examination in that district on July 29, 1944. The first district embraces Henton, Clatsop, Columbia, Marion, Polk, Tillamook, Washington, and Yamhill counties.

The qualifying examination is open to all candidates from the first Oregon district within the eligible age, including those who are serving with the armed forces, congressmen, Mott said. Arrangements will be made for boys serving in the army, navy, marine corps and coast guard to take examination at the same time they are serving on July 29, 1944, whether in the United States or overseas.

Candidates for the military academy are eligible for admission from the day they become 17 until the day they become 22 years of age, on which latter day they are not eligible.

In addition to selecting a principal for the West Point vacancy, three alternates will be selected at the same time. In order to make the required arrangements it is necessary that applicants notify Congressman James W. Mott, United States House of Representatives, Washington 25, D. C., in writing not later than June 1 of their desire to participate in the examination. In the case of applicants in the armed forces, preliminary notification may be sent to Congressman Mott by their parents or guardians. Such notification should include the serial number of the applicant.

Increase Noted in Car Registrations

A reverse in the trend of motor vehicle registrations noted since the war was seen in Oregon. The Secretary of State Bob Farrell announced substantial increases in motor vehicle registrations at the end of the first two months of 1944.

At the end of February, there were 372,280 vehicles registered in the state, an increase of four per cent over the total of 357,533 a year ago.

The increase was noted in all types of vehicles. Private passenger cars increased from 293,029 to 301,884 in 1944; buses from 982 to 1,102; light delivery trucks from 28,998 to 39,705; and heavy trucks from 32,992 to 36,525 in 1944.

The truck increase was the strongest of any vehicle type, amounting to 10 per cent.

Registration fees for the first two months of this year amounted to $2,898,500.22 compared to $2,616,011.72 a year ago.

Beats Wife No More

"If God can save you, he can save me," said Old Pal who was a heavy drinker.

This, God did and later on Old Pal's wife told her joy—"Pal drinks no more; he never strikes me nor the children."

Pal came into such joy in the Lord that he now hunts up his brother and read the Bible to him. After some days, Pal asked brother what he now believed?

Pal got to believe the Bible, for you never could have quit drinking of your own will. The drinking sickness was asked: "Will you from this day accept Christ as your Lord?" The man, a Mohammedan from Africa, hesitated a long time and then began to say—"I praise you Lord Jesus, I praise you." Here the mission head said he saw the new life beginning in the man. Later the man himself said:

"I am now a believer, baptized and of the assembly of God's children. Praise the Lord."

When an old pal offered him a drink, he refused it saying he had quit liquor. The Old Pal asked him how he could quit and he told of how he had given his heart to the Lord, that he believed in the Lord Jesus and was saved.

Out it the first man was saved by the Mission. Then Old Pal and Pal's brother and Pal's wife, four brought out into victory over self and sin.

And what for you? Will you be put away in a drunkard's grave? No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of God. See 1 Corinthians 6:9-10. But believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Acts 16:31.—KNOW YOUR BIBLE.

Timber Sales on O & C Lands Heavy

W. H. Horning, chief forester for the department of the interior, reports that 39,915,000 board feet of timber on the revested Oregon and California railroad grant lands was sold at the regular monthly sale held in April. The timber sold, in this sale, was on 13 widely distributed areas, located in various counties in western Oregon. The total sale price was $130,786.50.

The total sales of O & C timber since July 1, 1943, amount to 304,970,000 board feet and sold for $1,016,022.33.

Timber sold from O & C lands has contributed substantially to the log supply so necessary to the sawmills and plywood plants in this area in filling the needs of our armed forces for lumber and other wood products. Most of the timber cut from government lands in western Oregon is obtained from the O & C lands.

The timber on the O & C lands is cut according to the requirements of sustained yield management. The total supply of timber available on these lands is ample to permit the perpetual harvesting of 500,000,000 board feet annually. Management practices are in effect which accomplish prompt reforestation of lands after the timber is cut. In general, this is done by leaving numerous trees for the natural seeding of all such areas. In places where fire has taken such a heavy toll of the green timber that reforestation by such natural methods is impractical, where that is the case, the damaged areas are reforested by the planting of nursery-grown seedlings. This season the foresters of the O & C administration are planting 1,000,000 trees on such an area which was devastated by fire.
