

Highlights Given On Red Cross Work At Board Meeting

Highlights of the reports given at the meeting of Red Cross directors last Thursday night showed an active month.

Home Nursing—Corinne Pennington, R. N., chairman. Three classes holding sessions in home nursing, 52 students enrolled.

Junior Red Cross—Zola Morgan, chairman. 240 rooms enrolled, 3 high schools, 560 elementary pupils, 1216 high school students.

Production—Mrs. E. L. Carver, chairman. Shipments this month included 165 pairs hospital gowns, 12 sewed cotton quilts, 25 bed jackets, 10 bathrobes, 24 afghans, 70 men's pajamas, 60 ladies' and girls' houses, 40 pairs of shoes, 74 bedsets, 40 pairs of flannel socks, 19 bed shirts, 15 pneumonia jackets, 200 housewives, 200 kit bags, 325 wash cloths. Received two bolts material for coats and lining for same, from the Gold Beach chapter. The 200 kit bags to be filled and ready and waiting for the playing cards and 400 put in by workers at production rooms. The 200 housewives and kit bags are part of the 1944 quota of 500.

Knitting—Mrs. R. G. Cull, chairman. 21 turtle-neck sweaters, 9 helmets, 25 pair gloves, 4 watch caps, 17 pair knee bands, 39 pair knitted bed socks, 27 thigh stocking socks.

Surgical Dressings—Mrs. L. R. Wilkie, chairman. 215 hours, 1500 dressings. Now working on a new quota and will welcome workers. Working time, Thursdays 1 to 4 afternoon, and 7:30 to 9:30 evenings. Quoting from a letter recently received from Mrs. Bissell, director volunteer special services, "The total number of dressings shipped to the army during 1943, was just under one billion."

Motor Corps—Mrs. R. W. Weil, captain. 22 hours blood bank, 4 trips to Doernbecher, 58 miles a trip, total 232 miles; 8 hours theatre collection, 90 hours, 8 days; 2 trips to Beaverton, 1 trip to Tigard, 72 miles. Three trips to Forest Grove, 36 miles, 45 hours. Total 1084 hours and a total of 340 miles. Eleven active members in the corps with a membership of 16. Meeting is twice a month, and 16 have certificates.

Canteen and Nutrition—Mrs. J. Kovaly, chairman. One class in nutrition in process of organization. March 17, 44 hours served. 14 volunteer workers, 19 centers. Pins were awarded at last meeting. March 27, 10 volunteers served 64 hours.

Disaster—J. Buchner, chairman. Family burned out at Pumpkin Ridge in March. Children's clothing and comforters were given.

Home Service—Mrs. Rose S. Hard, chairman. 900 cases active during March. Disbursements, $35, repayments by clients, $50.

Blood Plasma—Mrs. F. Abendroth, chairman. 500 pints of plasma were collected during March. It started coming to Hillsboro on April 26, 1943. Mrs. Abendroth has 125 names on the donor list, 543 inactive and 922 active. The year April, 1943, to April, 1944 had 2771 pints to its credit. For the year April, 1944, to April, 1945, the quota is 3300 pints. The plasma means 140 pints on each donation day.

Good Neighbors Club Helps Red Cross

Good Neighbors club of Grabel community met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Louis Hillicke. It was voted to donate $5 to the Red Cross war fund and the members are also working on a quilt for the Red Cross.

Five Sons in Service

Mrs. Barbara Tollefson of Aloha received the first card last week from her son, S. Sgt. Fritz Tollefson, an armor gunner in the air force, saying that he is a prisoner of war in Germany. He said he wasn't wounded or injured and if she wanted further information about him to contact the Red Cross. She now has five sons in the service, the fifth leaving just a short time ago. Jack is in New Guinea, Norman and Olaf are in the South Pacific, with the merchant marines, and Lt. Leif is also in the South Pacific somewhere.

Return from California—Mrs. Rose Brosher and her daughter, Mrs. Roy Carter, returned last Thursday from San Francisco and Vallejo, Cal., where they visited Mrs. Brosher's brother, George Marcott, her mother and sister, Mrs. Josephine Condon, and other relatives. They were gone three weeks.

U. of O. Girls Visit

Audrey Jean Benge, a student at University of Oregon, was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Benge. She was accompanied home by three roommates, the Misses Cathie Watring of Hawaii, Dorothea Wilson and Pat O'Hara of Bend. The girls expressed themselves as proud of the spirit displayed by the University of Oregon girls during the Easter season when very few bought extravagant new clothes. Audrey will enlist in the marine corps in August and Dorothea will go into nurse's training in Portland. The other two will attend the summer session at University of Oregon.

Visits Parents Here—Mrs. E. M. Barham of Oakland, Cal., was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Strathman, leaving for home Monday night with her small son John, who has been staying with his grandparents the past five months.

Receives Ivory Gifts—Mrs. Helen Geertgens received a bracelet, cross and heart pendant made of ivory from the Aleutians, sent by her husband, Pfc. Wayne Geertgens, who is stationed there.

Service Club Meets—Service club will meet next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William R. Manley, 623 East Main street.

Miss Williams and Pvt. L. Lauderdale Wed at Clackamas

The home of Mrs. Mary Williams of Clackamas was the scene of the wedding April 14 at 8 p. m. when her daughter, Elizabeth Ann, became the bride of Pvt. Lawrence A. Lauderdale of the army air corps. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Julian Mockford of Oregon City.

The bride's sister, Miss Joyce Williams, was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Lauderdale, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Alfred Richards, wore an informal blue silk dress and carried a large bouquet of red rosebuds.

Following a short wedding trip the bridegroom will report to McClellan Field at Sacramento, Cal., where he will be in the second aviation processing squadron of the army air communications system. Mrs. Lauderdale plans to join him there later.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and a family of Hillsboro and other relatives and friends of the young couple, including Mrs. H. A. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. James Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanKlee and families of Scholls.

Highbes Entertain For Eastern Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Highbes entertained Sunday afternoon at their home in Beaverton with a reception for Mrs. Highbes' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snellberger, who were recently married at Lansing, Mich.

There were about 35 guests present. Mrs. Lucinda Hines, sister of Mr. Snellberger, poured, and Mrs. Jack Satchell presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. C. O. Hanes, mother of Mrs. Highbes, and Mr. and Mrs. Snellberger arrived Saturday for a visit. Mrs. Hanes, whose home is in Haley, N. D., has been ill at the home of a daughter in Missoula, Mont., since last November.

Mrs. Young Wins Prize On Primrose Seedling

CEDAR MILL—Mrs. Frank R. Young again won a first prize on a primrose seedling at the recent Primrose Society show in Portland. Other prizes taken by Mrs. Young's primroses were one first on an anemone and a second prize on an auricle. An entry last year in the seedling division also brought first prize.

Okiki Camp Fire Girls Elect Officers

The Okiki Camp Fire group elected officers Monday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Paul Patterson. Patsy Ringle was elected president; Virginia Patterson, vice-president; Kathryn Kroeger, secretary; Darlene Adams, treasurer; Mary Lou Phillips, sergeant-at-arms, and Ann Meyer, scribe.

The girls also discussed plans to raise money to buy a war bond. A popcorn sale was held last Thursday and the money will be applied on a bond.

Ray Mellebeke Marries Idaho Girl

Raymond Mellebeke and Miss Betty Hunter were married Saturday night at Nampa, Idaho, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Mellebeke.

Ensign Mellebeke is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and entered civilian pilot training in November, 1942 at Nampa, Idaho; and then to Del Monte, California. Later he took training at Hutchinson, Kan., and then on to Corpus Christi, Texas, where he received his wings on December 31; from there to Florida for advanced training. He took carrier training at Chicago before coming home on furlough at Easter time. He left Nampa Wednesday to report for duty at Norfolk, Va.

His wife expects to join him later if he remains in the state.

Mrs. Thwaite and Mrs. Douglas Honored by Guild

Mrs. E. W. Thwaite, having invited more swimmers than any other woman in the county, was presented a Red Cross service pin at a meeting of All Saints Episcopal guild held at the church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Rose Douglas also a prolific knitter, was presented a pin.

A mission offering was placed in a newly arranged Christmas tree.

Mrs. Ethel Powers, chairman of the evening's program, explained that the funds would be used for supplies for the church hospital at Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Mabel E. Grass read a "Christmas Letter" by Kamuk.

This was served by Miss Corinne Pennington, president of the group. Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Powers.

Members are reminded to bring canned fruit for the George White Service center in Portland.

Plan Fellowship Meet

"Youth Faces the Problems of the Nation" will be the subject for discussion at a meeting of the Methodist church on Fellowship Day, May 4. This will be an all-day session, with school students and adults taking part in the program.

Mrs. Thomas C. Goff has returned from Astoria after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Brown, who is seriously ill at St. Mary's hospital.

RE-ELECTED—Mrs. Otto George of Redville, who was re-elected last week as president of the Washington County Council of Parent-Teachers association.

State Officers Visit Pythian Sisters Temple

Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence made her official visit to Phoenixia temple, Pythian Sisters, Friday night at the K. P. hall.

Other grand officers present were Mrs. Sadie Graham, grand senior, and Mrs. Estella Johnson, grand mistress of finance. Mrs. Hazel Holjenbeck, past grand chief, and a number of other members of the North Plains temple were also guests.

A pot-luck dinner was served at 7 o'clock, with Mrs. H. H. Stannard, Mrs. Russell Morgan and Mrs. C. L. Oakes as the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. W. W. Weaver, most excellent chef.

The temple voted $10 to the Red Cross camp and hospital and motor corps fund instead of having a both at the Hi-Jinks. Saturday night as originally planned. Initiation was held during the evening.

The grand chief was presented with a gift, Mrs. Estella Johnson making the presentation speech.

An open meeting will be held with the Knights lodge on April 24 with the Pythian Sisters in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Agnes Brown, Misses Angie Harrington and Eliza Shorey were named as the refreshment committee to meet with the Knights, and Mesdames Don Garrigus, Zola Morgan and Vesta Rutherford were appointed to have charge of the program.

Degrees Conferred at Eastern Star Meeting

Conferring of degrees was exemplified at the regular meeting of the Eastern Star held in the Masonic temple Tuesday evening. Several visitors from outside chapters were recognized. The social club reported the date of the card party changed to April 27. Refreshment committee for the evening included Mrs. Minnie Barnes, Mrs. Fred Sewell, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. C. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bailey.

U. of O. Girls Visit

Audrey Jean Benge, a student at University of Oregon, was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Benge. She was accompanied home by three roommates, the Misses Cathie Watring of Hawaii, Dorothea Wilson and Pat O'Hara of Bend. The girls expressed themselves as proud of the spirit displayed by the University of Oregon girls during the Easter season when very few bought extravagant new clothes. Audrey will enlist in the marine corps in August and Dorothea will go into nurse's training in Portland. The other two will attend the summer session at University of Oregon.

Visits Parents Here—Mrs. E. M. Barham of Oakland, Cal., was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Strathman, leaving for home Monday night with her small son John, who has been staying with his grandparents the past five months.

Receives Ivory Gifts—Mrs. Helen Geertgens received a bracelet, cross and heart pendant made of ivory from the Aleutians, sent by her husband, Pfc. Wayne Geertgens, who is stationed there.

Service Club Meets—Service club will meet next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William R. Manley, 623 East Main street.

Miss Williams and Pvt. L. Lauderdale Wed at Clackamas

The home of Mrs. Mary Williams of Clackamas was the scene of the wedding April 14 at 8 p. m. when her daughter, Elizabeth Ann, became the bride of Pvt. Lawrence A. Lauderdale of the army air corps. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Julian Mockford of Oregon City.

The bride's sister, Miss Joyce Williams, was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Lauderdale, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Alfred Richards, wore an informal blue silk dress and carried a large bouquet of red rosebuds.

Following a short wedding trip the bridegroom will report to McClellan Field at Sacramento, Cal., where he will be in the second aviation processing squadron of the army air communications system. Mrs. Lauderdale plans to join him there later.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and a family of Hillsboro and other relatives and friends of the young couple, including Mrs. H. A. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. James Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanKlee and families of Scholls.

Highbes Entertain For Eastern Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Highbes entertained Sunday afternoon at their home in Beaverton with a reception for Mrs. Highbes' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snellberger, who were recently married at Lansing, Mich.

There were about 35 guests present. Mrs. Lucinda Hines, sister of Mr. Snellberger, poured, and Mrs. Jack Satchell presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. C. O. Hanes, mother of Mrs. Highbes, and Mr. and Mrs. Snellberger arrived Saturday for a visit. Mrs. Hanes, whose home is in Haley, N. D., has been ill at the home of a daughter in Missoula, Mont., since last November.

Mrs. Young Wins Prize On Primrose Seedling

CEDAR MILL—Mrs. Frank R. Young again won a first prize on a primrose seedling at the recent Primrose Society show in Portland. Other prizes taken by Mrs. Young's primroses were one first on an anemone and a second prize on an auricle. An entry last year in the seedling division also brought first prize.

Okiki Camp Fire Girls Elect Officers

The Okiki Camp Fire group elected officers Monday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Paul Patterson. Patsy Ringle was elected president; Virginia Patterson, vice-president; Kathryn Kroeger, secretary; Darlene Adams, treasurer; Mary Lou Phillips, sergeant-at-arms, and Ann Meyer, scribe.

The girls also discussed plans to raise money to buy a war bond. A popcorn sale was held last Thursday and the money will be applied on a bond.

Ray Mellebeke Marries Idaho Girl

Raymond Mellebeke and Miss Betty Hunter were married Saturday night at Nampa, Idaho, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Mellebeke.

Ensign Mellebeke is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and entered civilian pilot training in November, 1942 at Nampa, Idaho; and then to Del Monte, California. Later he took training at Hutchinson, Kan., and then on to Corpus Christi, Texas, where he received his wings on December 31; from there to Florida for advanced training. He took carrier training at Chicago before coming home on furlough at Easter time. He left Nampa Wednesday to report for duty at Norfolk, Va.

His wife expects to join him later if he remains in the state.

Mrs. Thwaite and Mrs. Douglas Honored by Guild

Mrs. E. W. Thwaite, having invited more swimmers than any other woman in the county, was presented a Red Cross service pin at a meeting of All Saints Episcopal guild held at the church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Rose Douglas also a prolific knitter, was presented a pin.

A mission offering was placed in a newly arranged Christmas tree.

Mrs. Ethel Powers, chairman of the evening's program, explained that the funds would be used for supplies for the church hospital at Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Mabel E. Grass read a "Christmas Letter" by Kamuk.

This was served by Miss Corinne Pennington, president of the group. Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Powers.

Members are reminded to bring canned fruit for the George White Service center in Portland.

Plan Fellowship Meet

"Youth Faces the Problems of the Nation" will be the subject for discussion at a meeting of the Methodist church on Fellowship Day, May 4. This will be an all-day session, with school students and adults taking part in the program.

Mrs. Thomas C. Goff has returned from Astoria after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Brown, who is seriously ill at St. Mary's hospital.

Miss Williams and Pvt. L. Lauderdale Wed at Clackamas

The home of Mrs. Mary Williams of Clackamas was the scene of the wedding April 14 at 8 p. m. when her daughter, Elizabeth Ann, became the bride of Pvt. Lawrence A. Lauderdale of the army air corps. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Julian Mockford of Oregon City.

The bride's sister, Miss Joyce Williams, was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Lauderdale, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Alfred Richards, wore an informal blue silk dress and carried a large bouquet of red rosebuds.

Following a short wedding trip the bridegroom will report to McClellan Field at Sacramento, Cal., where he will be in the second aviation processing squadron of the army air communications system. Mrs. Lauderdale plans to join him there later.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and a family of Hillsboro and other relatives and friends of the young couple, including Mrs. H. A. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. James Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanKlee and families of Scholls.

Highbes Entertain For Eastern Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Highbes entertained Sunday afternoon at their home in Beaverton with a reception for Mrs. Highbes' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snellberger, who were recently married at Lansing, Mich.

There were about 35 guests present. Mrs. Lucinda Hines, sister of Mr. Snellberger, poured, and Mrs. Jack Satchell presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. C. O. Hanes, mother of Mrs. Highbes, and Mr. and Mrs. Snellberger arrived Saturday for a visit. Mrs. Hanes, whose home is in Haley, N. D., has been ill at the home of a daughter in Missoula, Mont., since last November.

Mrs. Young Wins Prize On Primrose Seedling

CEDAR MILL—Mrs. Frank R. Young again won a first prize on a primrose seedling at the recent Primrose Society show in Portland. Other prizes taken by Mrs. Young's primroses were one first on an anemone and a second prize on an auricle. An entry last year in the seedling division also brought first prize.

Okiki Camp Fire Girls Elect Officers

The Okiki Camp Fire group elected officers Monday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Paul Patterson. Patsy Ringle was elected president; Virginia Patterson, vice-president; Kathryn Kroeger, secretary; Darlene Adams, treasurer; Mary Lou Phillips, sergeant-at-arms, and Ann Meyer, scribe.

The girls also discussed plans to raise money to buy a war bond. A popcorn sale was held last Thursday and the money will be applied on a bond.

Ray Mellebeke Marries Idaho Girl

Raymond Mellebeke and Miss Betty Hunter were married Saturday night at Nampa, Idaho, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Mellebeke.

Ensign Mellebeke is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and entered civilian pilot training in November, 1942 at Nampa, Idaho; and then to Del Monte, California. Later he took training at Hutchinson, Kan., and then on to Corpus Christi, Texas, where he received his wings on December 31; from there to Florida for advanced training. He took carrier training at Chicago before coming home on furlough at Easter time. He left Nampa Wednesday to report for duty at Norfolk, Va.

His wife expects to join him later if he remains in the state.

Mrs. Thwaite and Mrs. Douglas Honored by Guild

Mrs. E. W. Thwaite, having invited more swimmers than any other woman in the county, was presented a Red Cross service pin at a meeting of All Saints Episcopal guild held at the church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Rose Douglas also a prolific knitter, was presented a pin.

A mission offering was placed in a newly arranged Christmas tree.

Mrs. Ethel Powers, chairman of the evening's program, explained that the funds would be used for supplies for the church hospital at Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Mabel E. Grass read a "Christmas Letter" by Kamuk.

This was served by Miss Corinne Pennington, president of the group. Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Powers.

Members are reminded to bring canned fruit for the George White Service center in Portland.

Plan Fellowship Meet

"Youth Faces the Problems of the Nation" will be the subject for discussion at a meeting of the Methodist church on Fellowship Day, May 4. This will be an all-day session, with school students and adults taking part in the program.

Mrs. Thomas C. Goff has returned from Astoria after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Brown, who is seriously ill at St. Mary's hospital.

Returns to Duty

Pfc. William Elmer Schulmerich left Sunday evening for Camp Van Dorn, Miss., after a short furlough with home folks.

Mrs. Schulmerich, who has been with him in Mississippi, accompanied him home and will remain here indefinitely.

Subscribe to the Argus

Thursday, April 20, 1944

HILLSBORO ARGUS—5

Jack Wohler Home

Jack Wohler, who has been taking boot training for the navy at Farragut, Idaho, is visiting at the home of his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wohler. He reports back to Farragut on April 29 and will probably be transferred to California for further training.

"Everybody's Talking"

"Say, Sarge . . . have you heard about Perfection Bread? It's now enriched with vitamin B1 and other vitamins and minerals, as recommended by the National Research Council."

PERFECTION BAKERY

Hillsboro, Oregon

Fir Grove Bossy's MOODs:

Thoughtful

Because she knows her responsibility to all the growing children who depend on

FIR GROVE GRADE A Raw and Pasteurized MILK

to keep healthy and make them strong. She's confident, too, because Fir Grove has been serving Hillsboro for 18 years—and pasteurizes its own Grade A Raw Milk.

FIR GROVE DAIRY

Grade A Milk and Cream

Phone Hillsboro 3171

IT PAYS TO BUY ALL YOUR HOME BAKING NEEDS at SAFEWAY

Check these values

Shortening, Royal Satin 3-lb. 60c

Snowdrift Shortening 3-lb. 68c

Margarine, Dalewood (6) 1-lb. 18c

Bak. Powd., Clabber Girl 10-oz. 8c

Bak. Soda, A & H, 1-lb. pkg. 3 for 25c

Vanilla Extract, Schillings 2-oz. 35c

Beet Sugar 5-lb. bag 32c

Cocoa, Little Mill 1-lb. pkg. 11c

Corn Bread Mix, Cinch 1-lb. pkg. 18c

Cake Flour, Swansdown 2 1/4-lb. 26c

Fruit Cocktail No. 2 1/2 33c

Libby (43 points)

Peaches No. 303 17c

Red Tag, Halves (28 points)

Prunes No. 2 1/2 13c

Red Tag, fancy (12 points)

Apricots 12-oz. can 12c

Red Tag (15 points)

Peas, Standard No. 2 10c

(No points)

Peas, Pictswt No. 2 14c

(No points)

Corn 12-oz. can 14c

Pictswt Vacuum (6 points)

Spam, Hormel (3) 12-oz. 35c

Devil, Ham, Cudahy 3-oz. 15c

(1 point)

Milk, tall can 3 for 25c

Cherub (1 pt. per can)

Milk, tall cans 3 for 29c

Borden's (1 pt. per can)

Oats 48-oz. pkg. 21c

Morning Glory

Edwards COFFEE

Top quality blend you'll really enjoy.

Lb. jar Only 28c

CRACKERS GRAHAM

Nabisco Honey-Maid

2-lb. 29c

2 pkg. 29c

CORN

Forest Pride

Sweet

(8 points)

No. 2 can 10c

Green BEANS

Blue Lake

(No points)

No. 303 can 9c

Crackers, Hi-Ho 1-lb. pkg 21c