

"The Air-Wac" Topic BPW; Miss Matteson Elected President

"The Air-Wac" was the subject of an address by Major Vincent of Portland air base Friday night at the dinner meeting of Business and Professional Women's Club at the chamber of commerce. He told of the urgent need for women taking positions now held by men in 1942 could be released for active duty. Also of study course taken in training which would be of inestimable value in post-war times.

Other speakers were Cpl. Emma Stone and Cpl. Beverly Johnson, who told of their work in the Air-Wacs; and Technical Sergeant William Fletcher, who recently returned from combat duty in the South Pacific area. Sgt. Fletcher, who has been in the army 12 years, told many interesting experiences for his service in the different engagements. He said that prior to 1940 it was like a one-man army but he had seen "plenty of action" since.

Election of officers highlighted the business session with the following being elected:

Miss Birdie Matteson, president; Mrs. Elva Bachelar, first vice-president; Mrs. Margaret McBerry, second vice-president; Mrs. Hazel Hoffman, secretary; Miss Gussie Sigler, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Fowler, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Hilah Hughes, director of the over directors are Mesdames Margaret Sahnaw and Jane D. McKelton.

Installation of officers will be held in June.

Delegates were also elected to the state convention at Klamath Falls, May 3, 4 and 5, as follows: Misses Birdie Matteson, Angie Harrington, Berneta Kummer, and Mrs. Maude Stannard. Mrs. Emma McKelton, state magazine chairman, will also attend the convention.

Mrs. Merle Selfridge, war activities chairman, stated that only $800 was reported in war bonds this week.

Approximately two hours after the first curtain for "Night of January 16," Hillsboro senior class play, the audience jury declared Karen Andre played by Jacques Aubrey, as guilty of the murder for which she was on trial. Foreman Bill Christensen was spokesman for the jury which included Mike Payton, Mr. J. M. Peterson, E. M. G. M. of R. W. Poynter, Mrs. T. Doyle, Fred H. Krahmer, Mrs. Otto George, Fred Holmquist, William Mann, Mrs. John Kovaly and Francis Staley.

Creditable performances were turned in by a number of the seniors. Ken Arrington and Alan Judah, as the prosecuting and defense attorneys, played their parts exceptionally well. Lonnie Mueller turned in a near-professional performance as a taxi-hall dancer.

Miss Margaret Zuercher directed the play, which was enthusiastically received by the largest audience ever attending a high school play.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

USED CARS

- 1941 Plymouth Sedan
- 1941 Plymouth 5-passenger Coupe
- 1940 Plymouth Sedan
- 1939 Plymouth Sedan
- 1941 DeSoto Sedan
- 1937 DeSoto Coupe
- 1941 Dodge Sedan
- 1938 Dodge Coupe

SPENCER MOTOR CO.
227 S. Third Ave. Hillsboro, Oregon

Pythian Sisters Hold Successful District Meeting

District convention of Pythian Sisters held at the K. P. Hall in Forest Grove Wednesday, April 19, was well attended and an outstanding affair. Mrs. Florence Hedberg was district deputy grand chief and Mrs. Helen Fogel was independent secretary.

Other convention officers were Olga Bernhard of Forest Grove, past chief, Hazel Hollenbeck, North Plains, Theresa Dillon, Hillsboro, independent because of Mrs. Hedberg's illness; excellent singer, Elnor Bergquist, Gaston, excellent singer; Wanda Garrigus, Hillsboro, manager; Genevieve Froese, McMinville, M. of F. Eugene Platt, Vancouver, protector; Madeline Ewing, Gaston, guard; Grace Chandler, Hillsboro, and Elma Friday, Forest Grove, flag bearers; Jessie Walker, Forest Grove, musician; Blanche Blair, McMinville, song leader.

Afternoon's program included welcoming address by Mildred Hubbard and response by Maude Sharp of Gaston. Ritualistic work was exemplified by different temples of the district and reports were given.

Mrs. Maude Stannard of Hillsboro gave a reading.

Friendship temple of North Plains extended an invitation for the 1945 district convention, with Mrs. Eugene Cryder as district deputy grand chief.

Mrs. Helen Fogel was toastmistress at the banquet at 6 o'clock at the Congregational church.

Prior to the evening session a musical program was presented by Pacific university students. Several candidates were initiated into Delta temple, samples from Forest Grove, Hillsboro and Gaston taking part.

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence, grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, speaker at the district meeting at Forest Grove last week, and who was just completed her official visits to temples in this county.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Uncle Sam urges you to make use of the foods which are in plentiful supply! And that includes the No Point-Low Point groups—easy on your ration book, but strong on nourishment! So stock up generously this week. Save money and ration points while you feed your family well, and patriotically!

SAVE PAPER
Bring your Shopping Bag and Save Paper for War Needs.

Be sure to give her something useful. We've a marvelous collection of smart hand bags, lovely hosiery, dainty neckwear, costume jewelry, too!

Mrs. Robert R. Marriot of Port Townsend, Wash., and two sons are visiting Mrs. Marriot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLean of Aloha, this week.

Cpl. Corwin Home

Cpl. Philip D. Corwin arrived home last week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Blanche Corwin, and other relatives and friends. He is on a 20-day furlough and will report at Alamogordo, N. M., the last of the month. He just returned from service in the Caribbean area. His brother, William C. Corwin, S. K. 2/c, has been at Trinidad for the past year and a half.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

—SPEAKER—Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence, grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, speaker at the district meeting at Forest Grove last week, and who was just completed her official visits to temples in this county.

Circle One Meets—

W. S. C. S. will meet at the Methodist church next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members come, visitors are welcome.

Pythian Home and a number of past grand officers.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Prior to the evening session a musical program was presented by Pacific university students. Several candidates were initiated into Delta temple, samples from Forest Grove, Hillsboro and Gaston taking part.

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence, grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, speaker at the district meeting at Forest Grove last week, and who was just completed her official visits to temples in this county.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Uncle Sam urges you to make use of the foods which are in plentiful supply! And that includes the No Point-Low Point groups—easy on your ration book, but strong on nourishment! So stock up generously this week. Save money and ration points while you feed your family well, and patriotically!

SAVE PAPER
Bring your Shopping Bag and Save Paper for War Needs.

Be sure to give her something useful. We've a marvelous collection of smart hand bags, lovely hosiery, dainty neckwear, costume jewelry, too!

Mrs. Robert R. Marriot of Port Townsend, Wash., and two sons are visiting Mrs. Marriot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLean of Aloha, this week.

Cpl. Corwin Home

Cpl. Philip D. Corwin arrived home last week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Blanche Corwin, and other relatives and friends. He is on a 20-day furlough and will report at Alamogordo, N. M., the last of the month. He just returned from service in the Caribbean area. His brother, William C. Corwin, S. K. 2/c, has been at Trinidad for the past year and a half.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Easter Quilt Fledged To Women's Honorary University of Oregon

Eugene—Easter Quilt, Buxton, emblematic in social science, was one of 28 students judged to be Theta Upsilon, junior women service honorary. Tapping of the new members took place at the installation assembly for ASNU student officers last week in McAuliffe court. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Quier of Buxton.

Circle One Meets—

W. S. C. S. will meet at the Methodist church next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members come, visitors are welcome.

Pythian Home and a number of past grand officers.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Prior to the evening session a musical program was presented by Pacific university students. Several candidates were initiated into Delta temple, samples from Forest Grove, Hillsboro and Gaston taking part.

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence, grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, speaker at the district meeting at Forest Grove last week, and who was just completed her official visits to temples in this county.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Uncle Sam urges you to make use of the foods which are in plentiful supply! And that includes the No Point-Low Point groups—easy on your ration book, but strong on nourishment! So stock up generously this week. Save money and ration points while you feed your family well, and patriotically!

SAVE PAPER
Bring your Shopping Bag and Save Paper for War Needs.

Be sure to give her something useful. We've a marvelous collection of smart hand bags, lovely hosiery, dainty neckwear, costume jewelry, too!

Mrs. Robert R. Marriot of Port Townsend, Wash., and two sons are visiting Mrs. Marriot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLean of Aloha, this week.

Cpl. Corwin Home

Cpl. Philip D. Corwin arrived home last week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Blanche Corwin, and other relatives and friends. He is on a 20-day furlough and will report at Alamogordo, N. M., the last of the month. He just returned from service in the Caribbean area. His brother, William C. Corwin, S. K. 2/c, has been at Trinidad for the past year and a half.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Mrs. Miller Honor Guest at Shower

Mrs. Clement M. Miller, the former Virginia Haven, was given a surprise birthday shower, 37, 1348 Mission Street, Sunday, April 23, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Haven, last Thursday evening. Those attending were employees of Portland General Electric, where Mrs. Miller is employed.

Rev. Carl G. Overholum of Ballingram, Wash., was a guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson. From here he went to Los Angeles, Cal., to take up his new charge as pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran church.

Circle One Meets—

W. S. C. S. will meet at the Methodist church next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members come, visitors are welcome.

Pythian Home and a number of past grand officers.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Prior to the evening session a musical program was presented by Pacific university students. Several candidates were initiated into Delta temple, samples from Forest Grove, Hillsboro and Gaston taking part.

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence, grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, speaker at the district meeting at Forest Grove last week, and who was just completed her official visits to temples in this county.

Flourace Hedberg, D. D. G. C., was presented with a gift from her temple. Pete Kilian, captain of the degree team for many years, was also the recipient of a present, and the grand chief was presented with a lovely gift.

Uncle Sam urges you to make use of the foods which are in plentiful supply! And that includes the No Point-Low Point groups—easy on your ration book, but strong on nourishment! So stock up generously this week. Save money and ration points while you feed your family well, and patriotically!

SAVE PAPER
Bring your Shopping Bag and Save Paper for War Needs.

Be sure to give her something useful. We've a marvelous collection of smart hand bags, lovely hosiery, dainty neckwear, costume jewelry, too!

Mrs. Robert R. Marriot of Port Townsend, Wash., and two sons are visiting Mrs. Marriot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLean of Aloha, this week.

Cpl. Corwin Home

Cpl. Philip D. Corwin arrived home last week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Blanche Corwin, and other relatives and friends. He is on a 20-day furlough and will report at Alamogordo, N. M., the last of the month. He just returned from service in the Caribbean area. His brother, William C. Corwin, S. K. 2/c, has been at Trinidad for the past year and a half.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other son, Don, is in the South Pacific and has received two stars for being in two major battles.

Honored on Birthday

Guests at the R. L. Lauderdale home Friday evening for a dinner celebrating the 18th birthday of Charles Lauderdale were Mrs. E. C. Lauderdale of Seattle, Mrs. L. A. Lauderdale of Clackamas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Portland, Virgil Tucker, Connie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lauderdale and family. Following dinner the guests all attended the senior play at the high school.

Jackson Transferred

Robert W. Jackson, S/C son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of near North Plains, has been transferred from the training school in pre-radio material at Chicago to the U. S. naval training station at Del Monte, Cal.

Past Chiefs Meet—

Past Chiefs club of Phoenixia Temple will meet at the K. P. Hall Thursday night, May 4, with Mrs. Fred Sewell and Mrs. H. R. Emmott as hostesses. A pot-luck dinner for members and their families will be served at 6:30 with the business and social meeting following.

Dr. and Mrs. Bailey Return from South

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey returned home Sunday from a three weeks' trip to Southern California. They spent two weeks with their son, Robert S. Bailey, who is in radio school at Oceanside, and the other week with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and San Jose.

Their other