Keenon Returns Home

T/S Richard Keenon, who has been with the 41st division overseas two years, arrived at Fort Lewis from New Guinea this week.

INSTALLED—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schouboe, who were installed last week as commander and president of Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary.

Lieut. B. Schoen Arrives Overseas

Lt. Bernice Schoen of the army nurse corps has arrived at her destination safely according to a V-mail letter from her received by Beulah Shepherd last week. In a later letter "destination" proved to be New Guinea, where the natives are surprisingly friendly and always willing subjects for candid camera fans. So far the natives have been being scared out of a good night's sleep by a curious lizard or some of the monstrous looking but apparently harmless insects that are always about.

Lt. Schoen left for overseas duty in February. While she enjoyed the trip very much, she declared that there was "nothing quite like that first feeling of being back on land again."

Firemen's Auxiliary To Discuss Ireland

"Ireland" will be the topic for discussion at the meeting tonight (Thursday) at the city hall. The club is making a study of other countries, the last meeting's theme being Alaska. All members are requested to bring copies of their talks on Alaska to this meeting to be put in a scrap book.

Refreshments and decorations will carry the Irish theme also.

A., officiating. Mrs. Homer Settlemier was installed as president; Mrs. Willard Hughes, first vice-president; Mrs. J. G. Behr, second vice-president; Mrs. Don Garrigus, secretary; Mrs. Albert Zenger, treasurer.

Committee reports included Mrs. John Kovaly's reminder of the P. T. A. shift to be found at the city library and the work of the summer roundup committee under the leadership of Mrs. Willard Hughes. Mrs. J. B. Thomas reported on the investigation of the need of a supervised summer playground in Hillsboro. Opinions of interested people are desired.

J. W. Poynter reminded the association that the proposed constitutional amendment for school aid will be an initiative measure and will need the signature of some 15,000 legal voters on a petition to be placed on the November ballot. He asked that those who are so inclined do so, but to be sure that the requirement of the legal vote is met, namely: name as registered, precinct name and number, and postoffice address. At the present time the state of Oregon contributes less than two per cent of the
