CELEBRATES—Mrs. Martha Collins, who celebrated her 94th birthday anniversary Saturday. This picture was taken when she was crowned "Mother Queen" in 1938.

Mrs. M. Collins Celebrates 94th Birth Anniversary

Mrs. Martha Collins celebrated her 94th birthday Saturday, April 22, with a luncheon and later a dinner party at the home of one of her nieces in Portland. Friends and relatives called during the afternoon and evening, and she received many lovely cards and gifts.

Her many early experiences and reminiscences make her a lovely hostess.

Mrs. Collins has been a resident of Hillsboro for nearly 60 years and she has been closely associated with early history and the growth of the country.

Mrs. Collins was crowned "Mother Queen" of Washington County Pioneer and Native Sons and Daughters association at their annual meeting in June, 1938.

Sgt. Brown on Furlough
Sgt. Leonard Brown came home on a 10-day furlough for a surprise visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Brown of Sherwood route 2. He is a member of an armored division at Camp Polk, La.

Schoens Celebrate 20th Wedding Anniversary Here

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoen celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary Saturday night, April 15, at the Legion hall, with 111 guests in attendance. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock, with a program and dance following. Mrs. William Fisher of Salem entertained with several vocal solos, accompanied by her husband, and Miss Margaret Say, concert master of the Portland junior symphony, played a number of violin selections, accompanied by her mother.

It was also the occasion of the 25th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson of Portland, cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Schoen, and the second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Zeek of Tigard, nephew and niece of the hosts.

Other important event of that date was the graduation from Baker School of Howard Schoen, U. S. N. of Bremerton, Wash., who attended the celebration.

Daffodils, spires and candles were artistically used as decorations on the tables, with a large decorated wedding cake as the centerpiece.

Mrs. Pat Johnston Elected Secretary
Mrs. Pat Johnston, proprietor of Pat's Beauty shop, was elected secretary of the Oregon Association of Beauty Shop Owners and Operators Monday at conclusion of a two-day convention at the Benson hotel, Portland. Darwin Jones of Portland was named president, Agnes Smith of Forest Grove was president of District one.

Officers were installed at an evening dinner, when a parade of costume styles was shown to the diners.

D. U. V. Rummage Sale Saturday
Daughters of Union Veterans will hold a rummage sale Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock at the city hall, West Main street. Committee in charge of the sale will be Mrs. M. Wick, and the Misses Angie Harrington and Anna Sias.

Sgt. Corrieri on Leave
Sgt. Robert (Pete) Corrieri, who has been visiting his father, Dick Corrieri, and sister, Mrs. Charles Wilhelm of Beaverton, and Hillsboro relatives, will leave today (Thursday) to report back to Matagorda Field, Texas. He has been here about ten days.

VFW, Auxiliary Meet
Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary will meet at the V. F. W. hall at 8 p. m. Friday, according to Les Schouboe, commander.

Entertain at Dinner
Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson Tuesday night were Mrs. Charles Fisher of Portland, Indiana; Paul Geismann of the U. S. navy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frantz and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hillis. Mrs. Fisher, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frantz, left Wednesday for her home. Mr. Geismann returned to duty in the navy Wednesday.

Receive Felicitations
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jossy of Astoria are receiving felicitations on the birth of a daughter, Carol Susan, April 20. The baby is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jossy of West Union, and is the first girl born in the family for 46 years. Mr. Jossy is the county 4-H club agent in Clatsop county.

Attend Clinic
A Linotype clinic was held in Portland Sunday to give newspaper people assistance in the manpower shortage. Members of the Argus force attending were John Laura, Howard Hillis and John Conrad.

Enlists in Marine Corps
L. Leonard King has enlisted in the marine corps and is awaiting orders to report. He is the son of Mrs. M. L. King of North Plains.

Attend Conference
M. P. Casey and J. H. Garrett were delegates from the Hillsboro Rotary club to the district conference at Victoria, B. C., Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Concert Slated At Hilhi Friday

One of John Philip Sousa's grand marches will open the last concert of the union high school music department for this season, on Friday, April 28, at 8:15 p. m. Included on the program will be the band, chorus and featured solo and ensembles.

The band numbers 51 this year, as many have been called into the service since the fall term, but the group has maintained its balance and is presenting a program of selections to delight all.

A feature number is Domenico Savona's "Marching Along," which will be sung by a chorus of 73 and accompanied by the band. In it is included the hymns of the army, navy and marines with a thrilling climax of "Marching Along Together."

Feature soloist will be Catherine, Enschede in a novel number, for band and piano soloist.

So many have requested the appearance of the violin ensemble again, that they are appearing in this program.

Camp Fire Girls Attend Launching At Swan Island

Camp Fire Girls and their leaders, numbering 109, went to Portland Tuesday morning to witness the launching of a tanker at Swan Island shipyard. The tanker was named in honor of Camp Namanu, established 21 years ago as a recreational camp for Camp Fire groups, and located 30 miles east of Portland on the Sandy river.

Miss Ann Burgess, an outstanding Portland Camp Fire Girl, was master of ceremonies. Miss Burgess was councilor at Camp Adair last summer and will be again this summer.

Mrs. Edward J. Kolar, president of the Portland Area Council, which includes Hillsboro, was sponsor of the ship.

Camp Fire girls from Washington, Multnomah and Clackamas counties in Oregon, and Clatsop county, Washington, were invited guests, with 2000 in attendance.
