VFW Auxiliary Elects Delegates; Plans Poppy Sale

Delegates and alternates were elected to the V. F. W. Auxiliary department encampment in Portland, June 18, 19 and 20, at the meeting of that group Friday night at the V. F. W. hall. Delegates elected were Verdas Brown, Myrtle Helvogt, Vera Batchelder, Veral Brown and Violet Swanson. Alternates elected were Vivian Beach, Mary Frances Kenney, Eva Alter, Lida Pitman, and Mary Cavaness. The same delegates were elected to serve at the national convention to be held at Chicago, Ill., this summer.

Plans were also made for the annual Buddy Poppy day. The president, May Schouboe, pointed out that our work has been greatly accelerated with the return of our young disabled comrades who are returning home to take up their places in the American way of life. They need our assistance and there is much that we can do to help. All members are asked to come and help sell poppies May 26 and 27. Headquarters will be at the Wallace Folsom home, 171 South First avenue, corner First and Washington.

Officers Elected At Coffee Club Meeting Friday

Annual meeting of the Coffee club was held Friday afternoon at the chamber of commerce rooms, beginning at 1 o'clock with a pot-luck luncheon. The meeting was set ahead one month, due to the possibility of a busy time in June because of the shortage of help in harvesting berries, etc. Officers were elected for the year and will be installed at the first meeting this fall, September 8. Those taking office will be Mrs. Emma McKinney, president; Mrs. William Vandenberg, vice-president; Mrs. Ellis Taylor, secretary; Mrs. Andrew Ferland, treasurer; Mrs. M. Elder, financial secretary; Mrs. H. H. Stannard, Mrs. Kenneth Sundt and Mrs. Mary Hunter, board members.

The president, Mrs. Stannard, announced that the ruler over the "Happy Days" celebration July 2, 3, 4 would be called Miss Democracy this year in keeping with the times. It was voted to sponsor a candidate for this event, with Mrs. Sundt and Mrs. Taylor appointed as a committee to name a candidate.

Reports of the year's work were read by Mrs. Sundt, secretary, and Mrs. Alice Connell, sunshine chairman. The treasurer, Mrs. Don Garrigus, was unable to be present and will give her report later.

Mrs. W. B. Chandlee sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sowell, and assembly singing was led by Mrs. Chandlee and Mrs. Clyde Yount.

If possible a picnic meeting will be held in June, the date and place to be announced later.
