Joyce Kellington Named President

Miss Joyce Kellington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kellington of Hillsboro, was elected president of the Associated Women Students of Pacific university for the coming year at the election held Thursday. Frances Craven of Forest Grove was named secretary-treasurer.

Sewells Return Home From California

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sewell returned home Saturday from a two-week stay in California. They attended Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge and Pythian Sisters Grand meeting, Mrs. Mabel Grass, S. Sgt. Oregon game, and other grand sessions were well attended despite transportation curtailment they report. Other Oregon Pythians attending besides Grand Councilor and Mrs. Sewell were Mrs. Queen Wood of Independence, grand chief, and Mrs. Elna Koper of Grants Pass, grand chief.

Camp Fire Corner

Namanu group went on a nature hike cut the North Plains road Wednesday. Mary June Gentry was chairman of the refreshment committee. Patricia Grow, Ellen Van Dyke, Barbara Senke, Donna Peterson, and Agnes Huff completed three nature hikes.

Mrs. C. E. Wilhelm of Beaverton was honor guest at the tea given by Mrs. Bryce Nosler last Thursday. She told of the interesting projects her group finished at Camp Namanu, Portland Camp Fire camp, on the Sandy river.

At this guardians' meeting means for enlarging Camp Adahi were discussed. Girls from Forest Grove and Hillsboro now attend the summer sessions but accommodations are so limited that each year several must be excluded. Since Camp Namanu reservations have been exclusive to Portlanders first, it was suggested that Beaverton might be included. A letter to the Adahi sufficient to include their girls too.

Westwind Bluebird group had a picnic at the park following the Memorial day parade Tuesday. Mrs. Jim Burns and Mrs. Cyril La Jensen are hostesses to the girls and their mothers.

Officers elected at the meeting were: president, Marianne Burns; secretary, Mrs. Jim Burns; treasurer, Mrs. Jim Burns; and junior, Mrs. Jim Burns.

An organized group of Camp Fire Girls lack a guardian now as their camp cannot attend the meetings anymore. Any group interested in having this group please contact Mrs. Arthur Reing.

Camp Adahi, Washington county camp for Camp Fire girls, is located on the Gales Creek road five miles from Forest Grove. Session dates August 8 to 13, festivals from the land of Heidi and William Tell, August 14 to 20, gallant knights, princesses, Robin Hood, King Arthur, August 20 to 27, covered wagons, 49ers, and evening camp.

Medical cards may be obtained at time of registration and must be filled out by parents and doctors within 48 hours before girls go to camp. A county nurse will make Camp Adahi her headquarters during camp period. It is absolutely imperative that girls going to camp have their medical cards properly signed and filled out. Bring these cards with you.

All scribes please turn in your group news reports to Mrs. Al Schumacher by Monday noon.

Namanu group wishes to express its appreciation to R. W. Weil, who helped them to get organized and procured red ties for several of the girls.

Carmelita Napier, of Kawanai Alan Horizon group, won first prize for selling 150 poppies.

Jacqueline Barney and Patsy Patterson are completing the requirement for rank of Torch Bearer, the highest rank in Camp Fire. Jackie is winning her rank in home craft, and Patsy hers in citizenship.

Leaves for Omaha—Miss Dorothy Stevens, teacher in vic David Hill school, left Wednesday for Omaha, Neb., where she will spend the summer with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. William Stevens.

Former Resident Visits—Mrs. John Rauch, formerly of this community but now residing at Mount Angel, is visiting her son, Joe Rauch, and family of Gales Creek and friends.

Miss Easter Graduates At St. Helens Hall

Miss Nancy Aileen Easter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Easter, was a member of the graduating class of St. Helens Hall. The commencement exercises were held Friday evening at Trinity Episcopal church in Portland with Bishop Dagwell giving the address of the evening and awarding the diplomas. Thursday afternoon the traditional ceremonies and awarding of honors was held at the auditorium. Miss Easter was one of the two girls receiving honorable mention on the alumnae pin which is awarded annually to the senior of good scholarship who has most actively contributed to the school life. She received an award for work done as business manager of the annual Delphic, also an award for faithful and generous help in playing the organ and piano for chapel and the Tunesters, and was awarded the gold gavel pin for serving as student body president. Miss Easter's Hall is this year celebrating its Diamond Jubilee, having been founded in 1869.

Miss Guindon Home From Mexico Trip

Miss Violet Guindon returned the last of the week from an extended trip to Mexico. From Portland she flew to Mexico City, and from there made about a 700-mile trip by car. She visited Puebla and many other interesting cities and places including Taxco, the place which is famous for its old original buildings and furnishings, and lack of any modern equipment of any kind. She visited the onyx and pottery factories, silver mines and factories. The tropics, where bananas and pineapples were being harvested was another place of keen interest to the traveler. A bull fight was also included in the sight-seeing trip.

Returning home she came via Los Angeles, where she picked oranges, lemons and limes from the trees. At San Francisco Miss Guindon was grounded, but was fortunate in securing a last minute cancellation on the Beaver. She was gone three weeks.
