The President's Prayer

(President Roosevelt led in the following prayer over the radio Tuesday night in connection with the invasion of Europe by Allied forces)

My fellow Americans:

In this poignant hour, I ask you to join me in prayer:

Almighty God: Our sons, pride of our nation, this day have set upon a mighty endeavor, a struggle to preserve our republic, our religion and our civilization, and to set free a suffering humanity.

Lead them straight and true; give strength to their arms, stoutness to their faith.

They will need thy blessings. Their road will be long and hard. The enemy is strong. He may hurl back our forces. Success may not come with rushing speed, but we shall return again and again; and we know that by thy grace, and by the righteousness of our cause, our sons will triumph.

Souls to Be Tried

They will be sore tried, by night and by day, without rest—till victory is won. The darkness will be rent by noise and flame. Men's souls will be shaken with the violences of war.

These are men lately drawn from the ways of peace. They fight not for the lust of conquest. They fight to end conquest. They fight to liberate. They fight to let justice arise, and tolerance and good will among all thy people. They yearn but for the end of battle, for their return to the haven of home.

Some will never return. Embrace these, father, and receive them, thy heroic servants, into thy kingdom.

And for us at home—fathers, mothers, children, wives, sisters and brothers of brave men overseas—whose thoughts and prayers are ever with them—help us, almighty God, to rededicate ourselves in renewed faith in thee in this hour of great sacrifice.

Many people have urged that I call the nation into a single day of special prayer. But because the road is long and the desire is great, I ask that our people devote themselves in continuance of prayer. As we rise to each new day, and again when each day is spent, let words of prayer be on our lips, invoking thy help to our efforts.

Stout Hearts Asked

Give us strength, too—strength in our daily tasks, to redouble the contributions we make in the physical and material support of our armed forces.

And let our hearts be stout, to wait out the long travail, to bear sorrows that may come, to import our courage unto our sons wheresoever they may be.

And, O lord, give us faith. Give us faith in thee; faith in our sons; faith in each other; faith in our united crusade. Let not the keenness of our spirit ever be dulled. Let not the impacts of temporary events, of temporal matters of but fleeting moment—let not these deter us in our unconquerable purpose.

With thy blessing, we shall prevail over the unholy forces of our enemy. Help us to conquer the apostles of greed and racial arrogancelsm. Lead us to the saving of our country, and with our sister nations into a world unity that will spell a sure peace—a peace invulnerable to the schemings of unworthy men. And a peace that will let all men live in freedom, reaping the just rewards of their honest toil.

Thy will be done, Almighty God.

Bloodmobile Visit Slated on June 16

tute or to send someone in their place.

Persons without appointments but who wish to make a donation June 16 may phone Mrs. Abendroth or may report during the open hour between 11:30 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. at the donor center. The new diet requirement permits a volunteer to donate three hours after eating a normal meal.

Only one "bloodmobile" visit will be made during June to the local donor center, Mrs. Abendroth stated, pointing out that this makes it increasingly important to obtain full co-operation of volunteers to meet the June quota. During the summer months the mobile unit is making Sunday-Monday trips to counties some distance from Portland and Washington county's Monday trips have been cancelled.

Eligible donors who have not received cards from the blood bank committee within the past few months are asked to contact Mrs. Abendroth for an appointment. If the donor has been ill or did not answer the last card, no further appointments have been scheduled.

Visit of the "bloodmobile" to Hillsboro next month has been set for July 21. Persons wishing to donate on that date may make appointments now.

The Washington county blood donor center is located in the Masonic temple, southeast corner of Second and Lincoln streets, Hillsboro, opposite the county court house.

Acknowledgement of receiving a blood dedication card was received by Mrs. Margaret Hummels of Gaston this week from her son who is in the navy. Donors at the center may dedicate a pint of blood to any man or woman in the armed services overseas and a card is sent to the individual notifying him of the dedication. The cards were provided by the Hillsboro Coffee club and the Hillsboro Lions club auxiliary is providing the postage for the plan.
