Westwind Bluebirds have discontinued their school until June 30 as their guardian is visiting in Texas. Bernadine Heinrich, secretary, reports. Mrs. Jim Burns is guardian.

Jackie Barney of Kawanui Alan Horizon group is completing requirements for Forest Ranger rank in home craft this week and is giving a series of six cooking lessons to a group of Trail Seekers. First of these, the making of hot breads, will be conducted next Wednesday. Honors will be awarded to the girls with satisfactory results.

A class in hospital nursing techniques has been organized for older girls. A graduate nurse from St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, and an undergraduate student, Conifer, will conduct the class. Several of the girls plan to join the United States Cadet Nurses following their graduation. Minimum age limit in this group is 12. Patricia Schneider was the practice patient last Wednesday.

Sara Johnston, secretary of Namanu group, played over "Stars of Tomorrow" program Saturday. Her left arm had just been removed from its cast the week previous.

Camp Day June 11! All girls are urged to attend Camp Adahi at the camp site on Sunday. Conference with other members and guardians and bring your group and parents one hundred per cent. Each year before camp sessions open, all the girls from Hillsboro and Forest Grove participate in Camp Day, preparing for the coming sessions. Many camp honors are won this way, and camp awards becomes presentable for the campers. Wear old clothes, take a picnic lunch, and bring any available aids such as axes, shovels, rakes, scythes, spade, etc.

Mrs. John Searcy, chairman of Hillsboro camp registration, announced Saturday that all reservations for the second session of camp, Gallant Knights, Princesses, and Robin Hood, were closed. The dates for this closed session are August 13 to 20. There are still a few vacancies in the other two sessions, Sennichilli, August 6 to 13, and Westward Ho August 20 to 27.

All girls planning to attend camp, should register with Mrs. John Searcy, Forest Grove, not later than next week. Some registered have neglected to obtain a parent's signature of approval. If your Camp Fire group is newly organized and hasn't a charter yet, don't give up camp registration. As long as the yearly dues are paid and a charter applied for, you are considered a Camp Fire Girl in good standing.

Three girls from Beaverton Camp Fire groups have registered with Mrs. Searcy. She announced also that each city has a certain quota limit and if one city doesn't fill it, another may be chosen to send their quota up. This is being done to give all an equal chance to get to camp.

The 14 girls in Namanu group are all keeping Camp Fire health charts for the month of June. Eight others are keeping budget charts for the three summer months. Sara Johnston is working for a national scribe's honor.

Mrs. Lester DeHaven and daughter Carol of Hillsboro, Wash., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morgan of Sarrento road, Beaverton. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan visited relatives at Jefferson over Decoration Day.
