Traditional Cornelius Festival Held in School Auditorium

CORNELIUS—The annual Rose Festival, a custom which was started several years ago and just held in homes, was held at the school auditorium Saturday evening. This was the largest and prettiest festival which has ever been held here. The hall was decorated in pastel colors and flowers were attractively placed around the room. The princesses wore pastel formals and carried arm bouquets; for dancing the queen and princesses wore corsages. The men wore white carnations.

The princesses and their escorts preceded the coronation. Leonard Melason was master of ceremonies and introduced the couples of the evening. Leading the procession was Princess Margaret Jane Doher, who was last year's queen, and her escort, Albert Vermer. Following were Beverly Trites and Byron Hodge, Anne Girod and Millard Ward, Lucille Mann and Jack Cartwright, Linda Girod and Duane Olanie, Jean Mundorf and Dean Frye, Queen Betty Jo Gresson was escorted by prime minister, Jerry Cartwright. The crown and scepter bearers were Dicky Van Lom and Jerry Hodge. Flower girls were Bonnie Olsen, Priscilla Mann, Paula Jones and Myrna Castleberry. They wore pastel dresses and carried nosegays. Girls wearing colonial caps and light dresses and carrying sprays of orange blossoms formed the aisle with streamers. They were Faye Engelen, Elaine Goble, Frances Castleberry, Shirley Baker, Bonnie Hall, Pauline and Bernice Herrin, Delores Van Loo, Nancy Kummer, and Mary Jackson.

Following the coronation Margaret Mary O'Donnell sang "In My Garden" accompanied by Mrs. Frank Doher. Mrs. Doher also played the processional and the waltz which opened the dancing when Queen Betty Jo invited the guests to join in the dancing. Mrs. Ray Trites made the arm bouquets and Mrs. Reynold Geiger made the nosegays and corsages. The young people were assisted by Mrs. Doher and Mrs. Geiger.

Tongue Enters Legal Practice

Thomas H. Tongue III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Tongue II of Hillsboro, has become associated with Edwin D. Hicks, Portland attorney.

He plans to specialize in administrative law, labor law and municipal law in addition to a general practice. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and law school and of Yale law school. While at the University of Oregon he was student body president.

On leaving Yale, he was appointed attorney for the bureau of municipal research for the University of Oregon and League of Oregon Cities, where he codified ordinances of several cities, including Hillsboro.

He spent a year in Washington, D. C. as attorney for the wage and hour division. Later he was stationed in Seattle as attorney in charge of litigation for the Oregon-Washington division. He then accepted a position with the national war labor board's west coast lumber commission, which he helped organize in September, 1942. Since that time he has been in charge of the office of the commission as its executive secretary.

THE KEY TO SECURITY

Attack ON THE DOUBLE Buy--DOUBLE

This time it's not a matter of maneuvers . . . not by a long shot.

This time the sergeant's shout "come on," means attack!

We've had plenty of time to think about it. Now it's actually happening.

They're going into action "on the double!"

We must double our backings!

WHEEL BEARINGS

★
Are you the kind of motorist who has oil change, lubrication, and all the other recommended services to keep your car in good condition—but forgets to have the WHEEL BEARINGS packed?

Wheel bearings need periodic lubrication. In this hot weather they need our special Ford wheel lubricant that doesn't drip out. The penalty for neglect is bearing failure. We'll pack the wheels and inspect the bearings—and when we do it you can rest assured it's done right—
