Cedar Mill Needs Red Cross Workers

CEDAR MILL—The Cornell club met June 23 at the home of Mrs. Louis Stark for their regular meeting. They devoted the time to Red Cross sewing. Quite an amount of work was accomplished. The regular meeting was held Wednesday instead of Tuesday, because of the holiday at the home of Mrs. Alice Paine. The meetings are held each Tuesday at Mrs. Haine's home and there is need for more workers. The ladies have luncheon jackets and ditty bags to make for service men, and would like to have more help with these. Mrs. Katterman who has been critically ill for a long time, is reported much improved.
