McKinley District Near Bond Quota; Final Effort Asked

MCKINLEY-ELMONICA—A total of $11,657.85 in bond sales was registered for McKinley district at the close of the drive. This includes a total of $9,578.79 in bonds sold by the committee. An allowance of 17 per cent of the sales on the Fourth at Hillsboro was allotted to this district, which boosted the total to within $721.15 of the quota of $12,230.

The committee feels justly proud of this, but would appreciate an effort on the part of a few who did not contribute to make this total and to help put McKinley over the top.

Appreciation of the splendid cooperation in the district is voiced by the committee, Mrs. J. P. Meurer, Mrs. Fred Courtwright, and Mrs. Sam Smith.
