WAVES IN SUMMER SEERSUCKER

Cool and happy are Ensign Eloise English of Washington, D. C., left, and Virginia Laws, Yeoman, third class, of Denver, Colorado, in their new summer uniforms. The uniforms are gray and white pinstriped seersucker, consisting of jacket and one-piece skirt-dress having a round collar, set-in belt at the waist, and a single kick-pleat in front. They are identical for officers and enlisted women, except for the hats and the insignia of rank or rating. Ties, shoes, purse and gloves are black. The cost of these summer uniforms is covered by part of the Navy clothing allowance—$200 for enlisted WAVES, $250 for officers. Women may apply for the WAVES at Navy Recruiting Stations or Offices of Naval Officer Procurement.
