

Couple Observe Golden Wedding

LAUREL—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the Laurel Community hall Sunday with about 200 friends, neighbors and relatives present. At the post-lunch dinner, served in the basement, the tables were placed in a V-shape with the honored couple and their immediate family seated at the base of the V. In front of the couple was a three-tier wedding cake topped by golden wedding bells with vases of golden nasturtium, baby breath and maiden hair fern and graded heights of candles on either side, making a lovely effect.

Mrs. R. E. Meyer, who had charge of the decorations, used the same motif at intervals on the other tables—yellow candles and bowls of baby breath, nasturtium and fern, with an added note of golden cellophane ribbon. The napkins with gold designs, folded in fan shape and set upright added to the effect.

Following the dinner the crowd assembled on the main floor for a short program at which W. H. McNay presided. A solo was sung by Miss Marjorie Will, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, two duets by Misses Irene Whitmore and Marjorie Will and two readings by Mrs. Max Roeder. Amos Watkins gave a short talk honoring the couple, and gifts from the neighbors and friends consisted of two serving rockers and other smaller items, were presented; also a bouquet of lovely rosebuds from the Laurel Ladies club.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt have lived in this community for most of their 50 years. Mr. Schmidt having been reared on the place now known as Holly Hill farm. His parents lacked only a month of celebrating their golden wedding anniversary when his father died.

This is the first golden wedding to be celebrated in this community, although Mr. and Mrs. John Davis celebrated theirs at Mountain Home shortly after they moved here. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mulloy would have been married 50 years had Mrs. Mulloy lived about three weeks longer.

Another couple, married 56 years ago, attended the party. They were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cooley of Salem, former residents of Laurel. Mr. and Mrs. John Will Sr. who were not able to be present, have been married for 54 years. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt have four children—Mrs. John Will, Cecil and Charles, all of Laurel, and Lieut. George Schmidt, with the armed forces.

The committee helping plan the party for Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt consisted of Mesdames R. E. Meyers, W. H. McNay, Elbert Stevens and Ted Rutschman.

Mix a pound of cooked pork sausage with three cups of corn squash. Add bread crumbs, seasoning, and a beaten egg. Pack in a loaf pan, sprinkle sausage meat over the top and bake in a hot oven until brown.

To stretch egg white, add a pinch of salt or cream of tartar to the whites as you start to whip them. This also helps the foam to hold its stiffness.

Serve raw vegetable salads often. For the next one use carrots, cabbage and spinach.
