

Miss Marian Ellis And L. R. Jaquith Married at Canby

Miss Marian Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton G. Ellis of Canby, and Lee Roy Jaquith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jaquith of Mountain Home, exchanged marriage vows at a double-ring ceremony at the Canby Evangelical church the evening of July 10. Rev. J. D. Williams, president of the Simpson Bible Institute of Seattle, officiated, assisted by Rev. F. E. Fisher and Rev. E. A. Fogg, of the Canby and Mountain Home Evangelical churches.

Large baskets of pink and white gladioli and a basket of white hydrangeas and candelabra formed the setting for the bridal party.

Following the ceremony, Rev. A. J. Wavignier, "The Old Story of Jesus' Love," accompanied by Mrs. Wallace Russell, sister of the bridegroom, Mr. Russell also played the wedding march from Mendelssohn.

In a dedication service at the close of the ceremony, Rev. and Mrs. O. E. McGowan sang "O Jesus, I Have Promised."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white satin gown made with a long train and wore a finger-tip veil held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with bouvardia and roses from which fell streamers of white satin ribbon, tied with pink rosettes.

Miss Gertrude Ellis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Ellis, Mrs. Gordon Ellis, and Miss Marian Doble, wore pink gowns and carried bouquets of bouvardia, roses and baby breath tied with blue ribbon bows.

Little Dona Gilbertson, the flower girl, wore a pink dress and

Lt. Bronleewe Home

First Lieutenant Loren Bronleewe of the marine corps air force arrived home Thursday on a 15-day leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bronleewe. He has been transferred from Eagle Mountain lake marine air base at Fort Worth, Texas, to Cherry Point, N. C. Previously he had spent a year at St. Thomas island in the Caribbean. His brother, Major Thomas Bronleewe, is now stationed at Cherry Point, where he is operations officer of a B-25 combat squadron.

carried a basket of rose petals. Kenneth Jaquith, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Gordon Ellis, Harry Schmeltzer, and Ted Zacher.

A reception followed in the church parlors for more than 150. The young couple left for Lone Rock, Wash., where the bridegroom is pastor of the community church.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Jaquith are graduates of Simpson Bible Institute in Seattle, Wash.

Miss Helen Dean On Entertaining Tour from Chicago

Helen Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dean of Hillsboro, has been studying voice in Chicago since last fall, and was last month chosen as one of 10 young women to travel with a company of entertainers appearing at state fairs.

They also put on the evening program for the annual five-day stampede at Calgary, Alberta, Canada, where Miss Dean met relatives and friends. From Calgary they were taken in army planes to Edmonton, to entertain American and Canadian troops stationed there. On the return trip they are to appear at places in Saskatchewan, Can., Wisconsin, and Minnesota.

Off for Camp Westwind
