Mrs. Flint is Chairman for Rebekah Meet

SCHOLLS—Preparations for the Rebekah convention to be held at the Odd Fellows hall Saturday are almost complete, and attendance from lodges at Forest Grove, Gaston, Beaverton, Hillsboro, and the local lodge is expected to be good. Mrs. Anabel Flint is chairman of the affair.

A group of young people from the local Sunday school enjoyed an evening picnic Wednesday, with Jean Trask and Nellie McCool in charge.

District superintendent, Dr. Guy Goodsell of the Methodist churches, will conduct the evening services at the church August 27, at 8 o'clock, with the quarterly conference following the evening meeting.

Little Sandra Sweet, daughter of Mrs. Ina Sweet, was a recent honor guest at party given by her mother, on the occasion of the little girl's sixth birthday. Relatives and near-by children attended the party.

An unexpected family re-union came about in Portland last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. George Hackett, going in to call on Mrs. Hackett's mother, Mrs. Minnie Horton, to honor the latter's 75th birthday, found a number of other relatives already there. Eight of Mrs. Horton's 10 children were in attendance, including a son from Iowa. A son in the service in Italy and a daughter living in Seattle were absent.

Two birthdays in the Roy McCool family received attention during the past week. Mr. McCool was honored with a family dinner Tuesday evening and a daughter, Miss Lois McCool, was honored on Sunday when several out-of-town community relatives and friends were present. Miss McCool is employed in the Goodman dental offices in Portland.

B. R. Nickerson of Bellingham, Wash., who spent several days visiting the McCool family, returned this week to his home. He is the father of Wayne Nickerson, who will be remembered here for his banjo playing and an appearance on the Major Bowes show some time ago. Wayne is now in Iowa, and continues his musical work there.

Mrs. Gene Lovegren spent two days in the hospital last week under observation for a kidney ailment. She is now at home again and improving in health.

Pupils Presented in Recital by Dean of Music at Linfield

BEAVERTON — Beverly Bestmeh, Jeanne Branch, Lila Mae Cullen, Melva Beeler, and Cary Shurt of Beaverton, and Kathleen Inlay of Reedville were presented in a musical recital at the Bethel Congregational church last Friday evening by their teacher, Miss Alice Clement, dean of the conservatory of music at Linfield college.

A special musical concert, preceded the evening service at the church of the Nazarene Sunday night.

Orders Changed
Capt. Bob Norton, flag fortress pilot, was ordered to Italy following a furlough. Upon his arrival there it was found that the order was a mistake, and he was returned to the U. S. as an instructor. He is the husband of Geraldine Smith Norton.

Leonards Visit
Lt. Billy Leonard U. S. N. R., and wife of Seattle have been guests of his mother, Mrs. Carrie Leonard. Lt. Leonard expects to be transferred to Australia when he returns to Seattle.

Peterson to Enter Navy
Harold Peterson, formerly of Beaverton and now of Oakland, Cal., has been visiting friends and relatives here. He will enter the navy upon his return to California.

Mrs. Harry Barnes entertained with a dinner in her home last Sunday. Mrs. Jack Fleetwood of Mapleton, another sister, also came to Beaverton to join Mrs. Ina. A son in the service in Italy and a daughter living in Seattle were absent.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Foe have returned from a visit with relatives in Colorado, Nebraska, and Kansas. They report good crops and plenty of rain in the midwest.

Attend Girl Scout Camp
Carol Jean Sheely, Pat McCloskey, Melva Beeler, Virginia Talbert, and Nancy Nagues last Sunday for the Girl Scout camp at Wildwood.

Car Stolen While Family in Town

Up to Monday morning, no trace had been found of the car belonging to Mr. McNew of Midway, which was stolen while the family were in Hillsboro one night during the week. The keys had been left in the unlocked car, which made it an easy matter for the thief to make off with it.

Daughter Born
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Godfrey are parents of a daughter, Mary Ann, born at the Newberg hospital.

Father in Normandy
A son was born August 12 to Col. and Mrs. Ross Shutt at Jones hospital. Mrs. Shutt is the former Audrey Munger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Munger, and is the first child and grandchild on the maternal side. The young father, who could not be immediately notified, is with the army in Normandy.

A number of members of the Scholls Women's club enjoyed the annual picnic meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. William Chandlee in Hillsboro Tuesday. The day was spent socially, with no business meeting being held, though Mrs. Chandlee made an announcement of the forth-coming paper drive, which was to terminate Wednesday, at which time Mrs. Chandlee would pick up the papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meadows are living on a newly purchased farm at Mountindale, and visited in Scholls over Sunday.

Word has been received by Scholls friends of David Jaquith, son of former residents here, that the young man is convalescing from an appendicitis operation performed in a Los Angeles hospital. David has been staying with relatives in Whittier, and has been employed in an aircraft factory there.

Members of the Walter Heaton and Henry Hesse families, as well as Harry Frewing and Scholls residents, attended the Farmers Union picnic held at Champoe Sunday. Dolores Shipley spent the week-end in Portland with Evelyn Boleen and Nadine Hergert.

Allen Boleen, who broke his right wrist some time ago, continues to
