

Legion Auxiliary Opens Year With Good Membership

Legion Auxiliary opened the new year with 76 paid-up members, according to a report by the membership chairman, Mrs. Ethel Powers, at the meeting Tuesday night. An effort will be made to have the complete quota by Armistice Day.

As "Poppy Days" will soon be here, the unit ordered 3300 poppies which will be made by men in the Veterans hospital. Medals and pins will be made by the unit.

October 27 and 28 were named as dates to hold a rummage sale, the place to be announced later. Year's committees were appointed by the president as follows: Membership, Ethel Powers; Marie Bristol; publicity and unit activities, Emma McKinney; Grace Busch; rehabilitation, Helen Fickler; Pauline Young; national defense, Lena Peters; Georgia Patterson; Lena Peters; Americanism, Jennie Hurd; Arline Eslinger; community service and music, Olive Schulz; Goldie Davis; Florence Kramien; child welfare, Rose Hurd; Margaret McKinney; poppies and poppy posters, Maybelle McCoy; Emma Ferland; junior activities, Dorothy Halvorsen; Yvette Weil; war activities, Lucile George; Della Christensen; constitution and by-laws, Marie Hoffman; Laura Morgan. Other special committees were also named.

The new officers were hostesses for the evening, carrying out the Halloween motif in decorations and refreshments.

Chapel Formally Opened Sunday

On Sunday afternoon a capacity crowd of nearly 200 attended the formal opening of the Baptist Gospel chapel, which was held in the Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase, musicians from Portland, gave a special number. Rev. and Mrs. Poulin from Aloha also sang. Mrs. Mugford and Tommy were on the platform with Rev. W. T. Mugford.

Services will be held each Sunday at the regular church time. Rev. Mugford still broadcasts "The Gospel Crusaders" over KXL each Sunday at 8 a. m.

PTA Announces Theme of Year

At a Monday evening meeting of the high school P-T-A. in the union high school cafeteria, "Guiding the Citizens of Tomorrow" was announced as the theme for the year's work by Mrs. E. Ray Miller, president.

Following the business meeting, Principal John R. Cox introduced members of the high school faculty, and then discussed briefly some phases of the high school work. He declared that "Absenteeism is the biggest problem of the school this year" and stressed the importance of regular attendance by every student. Excuses for necessary medical and dental attention will be accepted if accompanied by a signed statement from the doctor or dentist to whom the student went, declared Cox.

Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain, chairman and hostess for the meeting, directed get-acquainted games for the remainder of the evening until refreshments were served.

Mrs. Arthur Chamberlain, chairman of the next meeting, to be held December 4 in the high school library. All parents are invited and urged to attend these meetings.

Stuebe-Neukirch Nuptial Ceremony Held September 20

Miss Gertrude Stuebe, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. L. Stuebe, Stuebe, Ill., and Mr. Henry Neukirch of Cornelius were united in marriage in a beautiful and solemn candlelight service in St. Paul's Lutheran church at 7 o'clock on the evening of September 20.

Proceeding the ceremony a short organ recital was given by Mrs. A. Peters after which followed the wedding march from Lovegrain.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. Stuebe, the bride's father. Rev. J. Stuebe, brother of the bride, addressed the couple briefly on the basis of Romans 12:12.

The altar was banked with baskets of white, bronze and orchid daisies, roses, gladioli and colored foliage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was escorted in ivory satin made with a close-fitting bodice, long tight sleeves and a wide skirt with a train. The bride's full veil was secured to a halo of fluted tulle caught at the sides with orange blossoms.

She carried a white prayer book adorned with a single orchid and streamers of white satin ribbon. Miss Dorothea Stuebe, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a gown of rose tulle, fastened with maroon colored velvet bows. She carried a Colonial bouquet of rose and white baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Barbara Stuebe, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white floor-length dotted Swiss dress and carried a basket of yellow and white baby chrysanthemums.

Mr. R. Nordbrock served as best man and James Stuebe, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer. Tobe Kirscher Jr. and Gene VanBehrens acted as ushers.

Immediately after the service the parents of the bride gave a small reception at their home. Decorations were pink, white and yellow streamers of crepe paper, a most interesting bell and baskets of gladioli and daisies.

A charivari crowd gathered at the home to extend their best wishes and farewells. At 10 o'clock a luncheon was served, with the Misses Emma and Elizabeth Walters and Hildegard Bohman assisting in serving. Mrs. John Stuebe cut the wedding cake.

Out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Stuebe, James, Barbara and Martha May of Taylor, Ill.; Miss Dorothea Stuebe, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Louis Schultenburg and daughter Doris of Columbus, Ind.; Miss Hildegard Bohman, Orem, Utah; Mrs. Kathryn Schimmel, Decatur, Ill.; and Miss Dora Gust, Newton, Ill.

The couple will make their home in Cornelius.

Boxes to Be Packed For Camp-Hospital

Camp and Hospital Service Council will again pack Christmas boxes for the boys in the army and navy hospitals. The boxes will be covered, packed and wrapped the same as last year. Any donations which organizations or individuals wish to make should be done this month, as all materials will be bought in quantity, so as to pack boxes all at one time. Time and place will be announced later.

Hospitals are filled to overflowing with boys who have been returned and will be coming in from now until Christmas. These boys have given a lot, and we should be ready to help make their Christmas a little more cheery.

Golf clubs and used golf balls are badly needed at the Barnes hospital. Anyone having some to donate or sell very reasonable, contact Mrs. E. A. Griffith.

Walnuts and filberts of this year's crop are wanted for packing in the boxes. Who will donate some? Will need at least 300 pounds.

Make your donations through Camp and Hospital Service Council of the Red Cross, and help Washington county get the credit for the donations. For further information call 3431, Mrs. Griffith.

Truck Here Monday—

Goodwill Industries truck will be in Hillsboro Monday. Phone 2962.
