Miss Corinne Pennington, vice-president; Mrs. E. R. Bailey, secretary; and Mrs. Neil Ward, treasurer. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. George Laver of Banks and Mrs. Arthur Reing.

Mrs. Ora Laws of Seattle visited friends here last week, returning home Friday. Mrs. Laws formerly resided in Hillsboro.

IF HEAD COLDS HANG-ON

DO THIS! To relieve discomforts, one of the best things you can do is put a good amount of home-tested Vicks VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water.

Then feel the wonderful relief come as you breathe in the steaming medicated vapors that penetrate to the cold-congested upper breathing passages! See how this soothing, irritating, quick coughing, and helps clear the head-bringing grand comfort.

FOR ADDED RELIEF... rub throat, chest and back with VapoRub at bedtime. Vicks VapoRub works for hours—2 ways at once—to bring relief from distress. Remember—It's Vicks VapoRub you want.

Americanism Program Theme At Auxiliary Meet

Americanism is the keynote of the Legion Auxiliary meeting Tuesday night at the Legion hall. Pictures of Girls State at Silver Creek falls last year will be shown, with two local girls, Norma Lou Knogger and Jean Folsom, included in the picture.

A large number of Camp Fire girls will receive their Americanism awards, according to Mrs. Jennie Hurd, Americanism chairman. Mrs. Arline Eslinger is also a member of the committee.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mesdames Emma Ferland, Lou Gates, Clara Gordon, Theresa Dillon, Vida Goodman and Marie Bristol.

All members are requested to bring cartoons and poetry cut from magazines. These will be used for carbon books for the hospitals.

The president, Mrs. Jennie Griffith, urges that all members be there promptly at 8 o'clock so that Camp Fire girls may return home at 9 o'clock.

Pitsenberg Visits Here

Chief Engineer Chester Pitsenberg of New York visited his grandmother, Mrs. Hester Pitsenberg, at 244 West Walnut, and other relatives in this vicinity, including an aunt, Mrs. George Thompson of route 1, Gaston. His mother, Mrs. Zoe Pitsenberg, and brother, Vernon, reside at St. Helens. Following his leave Pitsenberg will go to San Francisco, Cal., where he expects to be stationed. Another brother, J. Eugene Pitsenberg, is also in San Francisco, recovering from wounds received in action in Italy last summer.

WCSA Hears Reports

Reports on the district conference held January 12 at Dallas were given by Mrs. P. J. Kalka of St. Helens. Following his leave Pitsenberg will go to San Francisco, Cal., where he expects to be stationed. Another brother, J. Eugene Pitsenberg, is also in San Francisco, recovering from wounds received in action in Italy last summer.

Receive Glad Tidings

An erroneous report circulated around the streets last week that Bill Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cronin, had been killed in Belgium, but in the meantime Bill was spending a few days' leave at the home of one of his buddies in California. Just to prove it he sent home a recorded record of the birthday party in his honor. They sang "Happy Birthday" to Bill and each one told of some incident that was happening.

Mentanas Visit Here

Mrs. Bert Hager and her daughter, Mrs. Earl Matthews, of Butte, Mont., have been visiting Mrs. Hager's sister-in-law, Mrs. Nora McCourt, and Dan McCourt for several weeks. Mrs. Matthews, who is postmaster at Walkerville, a suburb of Butte, returned home last week but Mrs. Hager will remain for an indefinite visit with Mrs. McCourt.

Farwell Party Given—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ring gave a farewell party for Margaret Childwell of Aloha and Cpl. Albert Keranen, who will leave soon for California. Cpl. Keranen has been in the Aloha area for two years.

Warning Given on Lost Ration Books

Warning to the public to use greater care to prevent the loss of ration books was issued again this week by the local rationing board. The board cannot be replaced immediately and the necessary delay may mean a real hardship on families now that so many ration books have been returned to rationing.

A large number of ration books have been reported lost during the past few days, the local office reported. Only a limited supply of replacements are available. It was pointed out.

Miss McClelland Weds Mr. Shipley

BANKS—Miss Barbara McClelland of Forest Grove and Wayne Shipley of Banks were united in marriage Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was read by Rev. William Linday in the presence of a group of relatives and friends in the Community Presbyterian church at Lake Grove.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white tulle and lace with full train. Her finger-tip veil was caught with a tulle of seed pearls and she carried white roses and gardenias. Mrs. Herman Kling, sister of the bride, who was matron of honor, wore a dress of pink rose and carried yellow daffodils.

John Mellett was best man and usher was Tom McClelland. Brother of the bride and Perry McDaniel, cousin of the bride, groom.

Following the ceremony, Herman Kling of Portland, a member of the "Singing Sentinels" at Oregon shipyards, sang two songs. Decorations of the church included lifted candles and standard of flags.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and bouquets of mixed flowers. Mrs. Tom McClelland poured and an aunt of the bride served the cake. The four "Singing Sentinels" sang a number of songs during the reception.

For going away the bride wore a grey suit with white hat and black accessories. After a few days wedding trip the couple will live in Banks, where Mr. Shipley is the proprietor of the Banks pharmacy.
