Used Clothes Drive Opens Here Sunday

Bundles of useable clothing may be taken to churches on this Sunday or next, Garrett stated. During the week bundles may be left at any of the schools or at the following Hillsboro stores: C. C. Store, Wells' department store, C. Penney Co., Fairway Market, Oakes' Grocery, Piggly Wiggly, Meltebek Furniture and Electric store, Huster Brown Shoe store, Under & Cokes Co., Portland General Electric and Safeway store. After business hours the bundles may be put through a trap door in the front of the Independence Hall on Main street.

Prompt co-operation on the part of the public will make it possible to meet the five grand total of 100,000 bundles of clothing that are assigned to Hillsboro, according to Garrett. He urged that every local resident go through his or her clothes closet and attic, sort out every useable bit of clothing that can be spared and take it immediately to the nearest collection depot.

Word was received Wednesday that woollens, such as suits, etc., need not be dry-cleaned.
