Pacific District Conference Held At Bethany Church

BETHANY—The 51st conference of the Pacific district of the North American Baptists of North America concluded an enjoyable five-day conference at the Bethany Baptist church. Meetings were held throughout the day with evangelistic services in the evening by guest ministers. Perhaps the highlight of the conference was the dedication of the old church as a memorial. This edifice was the first German Baptist church built west of the Rockies and was built in 1879. The past months it has been repainted and redecorated for this occasion. Rev. Olthof of Salem gave the dedicatory sermon and Rev. Bretschneider of Rochester, N. Y., gave the dedicatory prayer. Mr. Emil Stalder and Mr. Sam Graf related experiences and incidents of early times. Saturday afternoon an outing and a picnic at Washington park was greatly enjoyed. Delegates were present from the western states and Canada. Approximately 400 were at the dinner served at the church Sunday noon and 200 for the lunch in the evening. Sunday afternoon a meeting was held for the youth which was well attended.

Mr. Bob Hunt supplied the pulpit for Lloyd Tuffs Sunday morning at the Methodist church. In the evening Dr. Guy Goodsell conducted the service followed by the last quarterly conference. The congregation voted to have Mr. Tuffs return for another year as minister of the church. The annual Methodist conference will be in session from Thursday through Sunday at Salem. Mrs. Abe Stoller as lay delegate for the church will attend.

First Class Petty Officer and Mrs. James Mills and baby daughter Marilyn of Corona, Cal., arrived last week at the home of Mrs. Nancy Boy. Officer Mills is with the U. S. navy stationed in Portland and Vancouver. He has been with the naval hospital staff at Corona, prior to being transferred here. The Mills will make their home with Mrs. Boy during this time.

Marjory Graf and Jeannette Schulz arrived home for the summer from their year of studies at Oregon State college.

Bethany Community youth rally was very well attended and enjoyed by all who were present. Plans are being made for the next youth rally to be held July 13.

Robert E. Graf arrived Saturday from West Point military academy to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Graf, and family and many other friends and relatives before returning Friday evening. He has just completed his first year at West Point.

Arlene and Stanley Lundahl returned Tuesday to their home after enjoying a week with friends and relatives at Yakima, Wash.

Wallace Maurer and Elwend Krueger of Rocklyn, Wash., spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stoller en route to Gridley, Cal.

William VanLom is Named President

CORNELIUS — Mr. and Mrs. George Milne and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Mann and daughters attended the mail carriers' picnic in Hillsboro last week. Mr. Mann has been president for the past year. William Van Lom is the new president and Mrs. William Mann was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Ivan Marble and son have returned to their home in Portland after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernt Anderson. The Marbles have purchased land in Beaverton and plan to build there in the future. Mrs. E. E. Byrum, sister of Mrs. Anderson, is also spending some time at the Anderson home.

Mrs. Edna Haynes spent the last of the week visiting friends in Portland. Sunday she returned to Eugene where she has employment. Mrs. Comet Gibson arrived Sunday from Eugene to spend a two-week vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collinge. Mrs. Haynes and Mrs. Gibson are both nurses.
