Reception Given Wednesday Night For Candidates

Candidates for Goddess of Liberty for the "Happy Days" celebration were given a reception Wednesday night by the V. F. W.
Auxiliary and the Woman's Relief corps. Twelve of the 17 candidates were present and were presented with flowers by Mrs. Helen Henderson, president of the V. F. W.
Auxiliary. They were introduced by a representative of their sponsoring group, after which they formed a receiving line and were greeted by the assembly.

The program, which preceded the reception, opened with the presentation of flags by Mrs. Elaine Morse and Mrs. Maude Stannard.
The flag presented by Mrs. Stannard is the traveling flag of the W. R. C. Miss Gladys Burkhalter

Garden Wedding Joins Miss Martin And Ensign Smith

A beautiful garden wedding was solemnized Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Forest Hills Country club, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, when their daughter Jocelyn Lee became the bride of Ensign Roderick Kenneth Smith Jr., of Bellingham, Wash. Rev. R. M.
Furman of Cashmere, Wash., an uncle of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony in the presence of 365 guests.

Miss Ann Hauser of Portland sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always," accompanied by Mrs. Delilah Wheeler Judy of Forest Grove, pianist, who also played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white net dress with chiffon ruffles and a long full train of chif-fon ruffles. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid and streamers of bouvardia.

Miss Thalia Ann Harvey of Scappoose was maid of honor. Her dress was of filmy yellow net and chiffon, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Lingerman of Tacoma, Wash.; Miss Marian McGrew of Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss E. M. Milton of Hillsboro. Their dresses were in pastel shades identical in design to the maid of honor's dress. The bridesmaids carried large nosegays of mixed flowers.

Little Barbara Rapp of Hillsboro was flower girl. She wore a long yellow net dress with ruffles and corsage of roses.

Lt. Harold J. McClellan of Seattle was best man and usher.
Ensign John Elias and Ensign Samuel Fletcher of Seattle, and William Roderick Martin of Corvallis.

The bridal procession walked through the garden to the altar in front of a willow tree. Baskets of flowers, lilacs and palms were decorations around the altar. The path of the procession was marked by white ribbon.

Nature added to the reception in the garden by giving a full moon. Mrs. H. R. Harvey, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake; Mrs.
Verne Eilers of Corvallis and Mrs. Harold Kellington of Hillsboro poured. Assisting in serving were the Misses Elaine Sugg and Betty Hall of Vancouver, Wash., Elizabeth Heron and Mavis Mat-theus of Seattle, Janet Sears of Chenaille, Virginia Draper and Gertrude Glascock of Aberdeen, Wash., Margerie Kidney of Hillsboro; and Mesdames McClain, Evelyn Ann Busch Phillips and Jean Ann Pasley Nyden of Hillsboro.

After a brief honeymoon trip the bridegroom will report to San Francisco July 5. The bride's going away suit was of steel blue with white accessories.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. R. K.
Smith of Bellingham, parents of the bridegroom; Rev. and Mrs. R.
M. Furman of Cashmere, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Linn of Seattle, uncle and aunt of Ensign Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H.
Lain of Vancouver, B. C., cousins of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Eilers of Corvallis,
