Engagement Told At Party Saturday

At a party at their home last Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Soren Jensen announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Betty to Mr. Ivan D. Steinke. There were 23 guests present.

Mr. Steinke is a student at the University of Oregon and Miss Jensen has been attending Pacific university. She is affiliated with Theta Nu Alpha.

Wedding date has been set for September 1 at Grace Memorial Episcopal church in Portland.

Pfc. Mott Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poole entertained with a party Monday night as a surprise in honor of Mrs. Poole's brother, Pfc. Floyd Mott, who returned last week from 39 months of service overseas. Twenty-five guests were present, including out-of-town relatives and friends from Portland, Dilley and Forest Grove.

Anna Marie Reining and Suzanne Searcy returned last week from a two-week visit with Miss Searcy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hagedale, at The Dalles.

Radio Broadcast To Be Sponsored

A special radio broadcast will be given on the entire Mutual network. The program "Music for a Half Hour" presents "This is Our Cause," sponsored by the Skouras Theatre corporation and its affiliates. This program will be broadcast over KALE, Portland, at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, July 28.

The Skouras theatre chain is outstanding for its co-operation with organizations engaged in philanthropic, health and welfare work. This broadcast is in support of the work of the Oregon Tuberculosis association and the county public health associations and it is a privilege to hear it.

Mazamas Visit Orenco

Orenco Community club will meet Saturday at 8 p. m. at the schoolhouse. The Mazama club of Portland will entertain and put on the program.

Leave for Pennsylvania—

Mrs. W. D. Tate and daughter Joyce Ann, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Northrup of near Hillsboro, for the past six weeks, left Sunday for their home in Curwensville, Pa.

Children's Day To Be Observed At Trinity Church

Sunday is Children's Day at the Trinity Lutheran church, with Sunday school classes at 9:30 and public worship at 10:30. This will be a special for the children with singing by the third and fourth grades, directed by Mrs. Guy Anderson and Mrs. George Roule, teachers.

Immediately after the service the congregation and friends of the children will go to Trinity church park on Marian avenue for a pot-luck dinner. Picnic games, contests with prizes, and treats will be provided by class fathers and mothers during the afternoon.

This annual event is sponsored by the P. T. O. of the church and is in charge of a committee including Roland Langbecker, Sunday school superintendent; Mrs. Gordon Sahnaw, Harold Meyer and Thea Carl Vages. The treat tables will be a gift of the A. A. L. Edgar N. Gogel, president.

Miss Murray Weds Mr. Duane Haynes

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—The Mountain town church was the scene of a candlelight wedding ceremony Sunday evening, when Miss Laura Louise Murray, daughter of Mrs. L. L. Shook, became the bride of Mr. Duane Haynes, son of Mr. Edward Ingram of Hillsboro.

Rev. C. H. Ryan read the sing-song ceremony, and Miss Aldene Gould of Newberg played the processional and recessional. Also accompanied Miss Murray, Greer of Newberg, who sang "A Way" preceding the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a white tulle gown with finger-tip veil edged with lace, and carried a bouquet of Sweetheart rosebuds. Her sister, Miss Virginia Murray, was bridesmaid. She wore an aqua tulle dress and carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers. Mr. Henry Peters of Mountain Home was the best man.

The altar was decorated with baskets of summer flowers, palms and candelabra. Ushers were the Messrs. Shirley Fowler and Joyce Whitmore.

Following the wedding service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with about one hundred guests attending. The reception room was decorated to represent an arbor of vine maple. After the bride and bridegroom had cut the first piece of the large wedding cake, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Fred Kiser and Mrs. Shirley Hall of Tillamook, Mrs. Don McInnis of Reedville, Mrs. Alice Painter and Mrs. Ira G. McCormick, the bride's paternal grandparents, Mrs. Eunice Murray of Portland, and Mrs. Glenn Meeker, assisted by the ushers and the bridesmaid, served.

The bride is a member of this year's graduating class of Newberg high. The bridegroom graduated from Hillsboro high. Both Mr. and Mrs. Haynes are descendants of Chehalis Mountain pioneers. Her great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCormick, came here in 1873 and his great grandfather, Martin Shuck, came a few years later. Maternal grandparents of Mr. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. C. Adams, were early storekeepers and postmasters at Scholls.

The bride and groom left Monday morning on a honeymoon trip to Mt. St. Helen park, Washington, after he had answered a call to report to the draft board at Forest Grove. They will make their home at Lone Rock in Eastern Oregon, where he has a grocery store and is postmaster.

Hillsboro Officer Married in Texas

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Gibson of Hillsboro announce the marriage of their son, Flight Officer Nevill Jack Gibson, of Foster Field, Texas, to the former Margaret Reavis of Cyril, Okla. The marriage took place April 10 in the parsonage of the Methodist church in Victoria, Texas, with Rev. J. E. Dunn, pastor of the church, reading the single ring ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Cyril high school in the class of 1942 and attended Oklahoma A & M college at Stillwater for two years. B. D. Gibson is a graduate of Hillsboro high school. He took his college training at Stillwater and received his wings and commission as flight officer at Foster Field, Texas, in February. He recently finished fighter transition at Foster Field.

The young couple will make their home in Victoria for the present.

Joint Picnic Held for Employees of Banks

A joint picnic for officers and employees of the Commercial National bank of Hillsboro, Washington County bank of Banks and Commercial bank of Tillamook was held at Forest Hills Country club Saturday. A dinner was followed by dancing and moving pictures. Originally planned for Balm Grove the picnic was changed to Forest Hills on account of rain.

Have Vacation Trip—

Mrs. Chester Merrill and Mrs. Vernon Hudley returned Sunday from a four-day trip to Vancouver, B. C. They made the trip to Vancouver by plane, returning to Victoria, B. C., and Seattle by boat, and then flew home from there.

Evening Service Set Shute Park on Sunday

Due to hot summer Sunday evenings when the general public is not too much in the mood for attending church services, Rev. W. T. Musford, pastor of the Baptist Gospel chapel, says, "We'll take the church to them." Services will be held in Shute park.

The first service will be introduced this Sunday evening. There will be special music and the singing of old time Gospel hymns and choruses and the giving of spirit-filled testimonies followed by the preaching of a scriptural and spiritual and old time Gospel sermon by the pastor.

It is expected that radio listeners of the pastor's Gospel broadcast will eat supper under the trees and join in the service. An invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Nephew Killed—

Mrs. Ida Taylor received a telegram Tuesday stating that her nephew, Major Harold Stevenson of Harrisburg, had been killed on a ship December 14, 1944. Major Stevenson, who was a druggist at Harrisburg when he enlisted, served in the first group and was a prisoner of the Japs from then on. It is presumed that he had been released and was en route to the United States at the time of death. He is a cousin of Mrs. D. S. Ruthenford.

Past Chiefs To Picnic—

Past Chiefs club will hold a picnic tonight (Thursday) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gifford, with pot-luck supper to be served at 6:30. Families of the members are invited to attend. Mrs. J. R. Peppard will be assisting hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barney were weekend visitors at Seaside.

Phelps Honored Studio Luncheon

Mr. and Mrs. Orange Phelps of the Hillsboro theaters were honor guests at a luncheon given by Paramount Studios in Portland Friday for employees and exhibitors who have exhibited Paramount pictures for 30 years or more. Cecil B. DeMille of Hollywood, noted producer, was present and spoke to the group.

Starting in the moving picture business in Hillsboro in 1908, Phelps remained an exhibitor for 30 years in point of continuous operation in the state. His first moving picture business was conducted in the old frame building in the present location of the Argus. It was called the Arcadia. He also operated the old Crescent theater at First and Main, the Liberty Grand and Venetian in the present Main street location, the Majestic in the present Argus building and the Hill on Third avenue.

Miss Grell Home—

Miss Arlene Grell, who accompanied Mrs. Edna Williams to Southern California several weeks ago, returned last week. Mrs. Williams remained in the south to be near her husband, Woodrow Williams, who is stationed there. While Miss Grell was in San Diego she visited Mr. and Mrs. Warren Elliott, and also saw several of the local boys who are in training at the U. S. Naval Training center there. The last of the week she accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Grell, on a vacation trip to Bellingham, Wash.

At Father's Bedside—

Mrs. Edna Tupper was called to Eugene last week to attend the bedside of her father, John Jeffcott of Portland, who is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffcott had gone to Eugene to visit a daughter when he became ill.

A. A. U. W. Endorses National Program

Delegates to the national "non-travel" convention of A. A. U. W. voting by mail, gave endorsement to a legislative program broad in scope and looking to the next two years as a crucial period in international co-operation and home-front readjustment. Results of the ballot were released recently through the association's headquarters in Washington, D. C., and sent to the local branch by its president, Mrs. W. H. Gauger of Forest Grove, who is visiting in the east.

Four objectives of a constructive American foreign policy were approved. The maintenance of peace through adequate international machinery, including the use of force if necessary; promotion of international economic co-operation and reconstruction; the expansion of world trade and the development of world resources; the development of intellectual and cultural co-operation between nations, including the establishment of an international organization in that field, and social and humanitarian rehabilitation.

Sugar low? You can can without sugar!

All you do is substitute fruit juice or water for the syrup in the recipe. Fill to 1/2 inch of top, and process in your usual way. There is no other change.

Or, you can stretch your sugar with honey or corn syrup

Honey may replace up to 1/2 the sugar in jams or preserves. White corn syrup may replace up to 1/4 the sugar in jams, and 1/2 the sugar in preserves. Honey or corn syrup may replace up to 1/2 the sugar in canning syrups.

Sugar alone—5 pounds will... sweeten 20 qts. of fruit... or make 20-40 glasses of jelly (1/2-pt. size)... or make 15 pints of fruit butter

How to make Salads that make meals

A savory salad can make the day and the meal in this July weather. You might use a mouth-watering tender chicken base, or perhaps a base of such fruit drenched with a piquant dressing is the palate-teaser you're looking for. Add hot rolls or sandwiches to any of these, maybe fruit cobbler or gingerbread for dessert, a beverage—and presto! you have a meal.

SALAD PLATE

Attractively arrange mound or mold of lettuce or spinach leaves in center of plate. Surround with lettuce cups in which are placed half-peeled tomatoes topped with cucumber dressing (1 cup mayonnaise and 6 tablespoons shredded cucumber) stuffed eggs and ripe olives.

LUNCHEON SUMMER FRUIT SALAD

Toss together in salad bowl, 3 cups shredded lettuce or greens, 2 cups sliced fresh peaches, 1 cup seedless grapes, 1/2 cup sliced celery and 1 1/2 cups shredded cheese with 1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing and French dressing to taste. Garnish with lettuce, fresh berries and peanuts. Serves 6.

PICNIC CLUB SALAD

Toss together 3 cups cooked macaroni, 1 1/2 cups sliced frankfurters or diced luncheon meat, 1/2 cup sliced radishes, 3 tablespoons sliced green onion, 1/2 cup sliced olives, 4 tablespoons French dressing and 1/2 to 1/2 cup mayonnaise. Season with salt and pepper. Garnish with tomato wedges and parsley. Serves 6.
