Mexicans Attend Services Sunday

A large number of Mexican farm laborers were present at the evening services of the First Baptist church Sunday, when Rev. Ralph Gorsline, guest speaker from South Bend, Wash., conducted the service in Spanish.

Except for one hymn which the Mexicans sang alone, the guests and local members joined in the singing of hymns in their respective languages. Rev. Gorsline led the singing and delivered his entire sermon in Spanish.

Special selections were sung by a junior choir and a trio composed of Alene Anascher, Joanne Baldwin and Betty Frantz. Several of the Mexicans gave testimonies which were interpreted by Rev. Gorsline.

Rev. Norman W. Brown, local pastor, welcomed the guests and the guest speaker interpreted his words for their benefit.
