From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Mad Dogs and Wagging Tongues

The county had a "mad dog" scare last week. Phoebe Token's spaniel bit the postman, and he vowed that he was plenty mad about it.

But by the time the rumor got around, it wasn't the postman who was mad, it was the dog. And before the truth was learned, half the kids in the neighborhood had missed school, while their mothers nearly died of fright.

Wagging tongues can cause a lot of "mad dog" trouble. Like wagging tongues that gossip about our soldiers drinking too much around Army camps. It's just not true, as the government found out and told us. Milk and beer are among a soldier's favorite drinks—which is why we have the best behaved army in history. But those ugly rumors are bound to hurt morale and cause hard feeling.

From where I sit, wagging tongues can cause a heap more trouble than mad dogs.

80 Years of Service

In September 1865, just following the close of the Civil War, this bank started serving the people of this great Oregon Country. Now, 80 years later and at the close of another war, we take the opportunity to express our pride and satisfaction in the part we have played in helping thousands of businesses and individuals with their financial affairs.

As we go forward from this anniversary we pledge the people of this State and the Pacific Northwest that this bank will continue to contribute its full share toward a sound and prosperous peacetime economy.
