

Dorothy Modrow Bride of Ensign Robert Schlegel

The home of Mrs. Hope Modrow of Kalama, Wash., was the scene of a charming wedding Sunday afternoon when her daughter Dorothy became the bride of Ensign Robert E. Schlegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schlegel of route 3, Hillsboro. Dr. Gertrude B. Crane of Pacific university performed the double ring ceremony before the fireplace decorated with pink and white gladioli and white candles. Only members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride was gowned in a full-length dress of pink tulle over pink tulle. Her finger-tip veil formed a halo cap and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Attending the bride were her two sisters, Mrs. Donald Bryant and Mrs. Andy Alkema, gowned in pastel floor length dresses and carrying arm bouquets of carnations.

Mr. Irwin Schlegel, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Mr. Raymond Derrick was usher. Preceding the ceremony Miss Dorine Fowler sang "At Dawning" accompanied by Mrs. Don Garrigus, who also played the wedding march.

Mrs. Donald Tomney poured at the reception, assisted by Mrs. Robert Woodward and Miss Barbara Korrell.

Following the reception, Ensign and Mrs. Schlegel left for a short honeymoon. For going away the bride wore a street dress of light blue with brown accessories. She will accompany Ensign Schlegel to Bremerton, Wash., where he is to report Sunday. Ensign Schlegel returned last week from overseas duty in the Pacific and expects to return to active duty very soon. Mrs. Schlegel, who is a member of Chi Omega society, will continue her studies at Willamette university where she is a senior. Both Ensign and Mrs. Schlegel formerly attended Pacific university.

Howard Hillis returned Sunday from a five-day visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Davidson, and family of Redmond and friends.
