

Jackson-Johnston Nuptials Held at Episcopal Church

In a beautiful candlelight setting of white gladioli and pink gerberas, Saturday evening at All Saints Episcopal church, Mrs. Patricia Johnston became the bride of Mr. James Jackson of Portland, Ore. Father Frederick performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her son, Donald Johnston, wore a blue dressmaker suit and brown fur neckpiece, with black accessories. She carried a white prayer book with an ornate and decorative cover.

Mrs. Della Duffield of Portland was matron of honor. She wore a gray suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The bridegroom was flower girl. She wore a white dress and carried a nosegay of pink roses and blue hydrangeas.

Mr. Clarence Jackson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Robert Hurd played the Lohengrin wedding march on the pipe organ as the procession and "Always" as the recessional.

Following a shower of rice as the couple left the church, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jackson, at 1714 Hazel, Misses Kathryn Santora, Ruby Jackson, daughter of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and Mrs. H. C. Steinhaus assisted in serving.

Announcements were made at the reception of the betrothal of Pvt. Donald Johnston and Miss Jean Braden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Braden of Newburg, and also of the engagement of ARN 3-c Robert Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark of Hillsboro, and Miss Margaret Womack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Womack of Hillsboro. The young men are home on furloughs. Johnston will report to Keeler Field, Miss. October 23, and Clark will report to Seattle on the 27th for further duty.

Church Ceremony Unites Couple At North Plains

At an afternoon ceremony September 30 at the North Plains Christian church, Missie Esther Arndt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, became the bride of Mr. Rudolph Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Lorenz. Rev. Ellis Maraburn performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a white satin and lace dress with finger-tip veil and carried an orchid on a white ribbon. The matron of honor, Mrs. Harney Lorenz, wore a red dress, and Miss Jane Ann Troutman, bridesmaid, wore blue taffeta. They carried pink and white colonial nosegays.

Messrs. Victor Lorenz and James Hart attended the bridegroom. William Johnston and Warren Brown were ushers.

"The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Miss Ruby Johnston, accompanied by Mrs. C. Duane Chamberlain.

The church was decorated with English ivy, fuchsia colored asters, zinnias and dahlias. A reception was held in the rear of the church with Postina Arndt, daughter of the bridegroom, as hostess. Out-of-town guests included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor of Castle Rock, Wash.; her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, and family of Longview, Wash.; the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Lorenz of North Plains; and Mr. and Mrs. James Hart and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lohner and daughter, Mrs. and Mrs. J. J. Ahrens and son of Portland, all relatives of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds received many beautiful gifts.

Miss Lebert Bride Of Stanley Shuck

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Miss Maxine Marjorie Lebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Lebert of Nasaham, Mont., became the bride of Mr. Stanley Shuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shuck of Chehalis Mountain, at a pretty afternoon ceremony Sunday at the Augustus Lutheran church in Portland. Rev. Philip Ellman read the impressive single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Carl Wolf, a former classmate of the bride, sang "Love's Prayer" and the Lord's Prayer. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle gown with finger-tip veil and carried a large colonial nosegay. She also carried a handkerchief that had belonged to Mrs. McGuire, great great grandmother of the bridegroom.

Miss Jean L. Davids, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink formal and carried a colonial bouquet of sunflowers. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Melburn Ziegler and Miss Lela Lou Hagz, cousins of the bridegroom, were dressed in blue formal and carried colonial bouquets of harmonizing summer flowers.

Joan Wendland, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue formal and carried a small colonial nosegay. Mr. Melburn Ziegler, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. He wore a blue formal and carried a colonial nosegay. Mr. Ornduff, cousin of the bridegroom, and Stanley Neitling.

The bride's mother wore a black suit and the bridegroom's mother wore a brown wool suit. They were identical coronas of pink roses and bouvardia.

At the reception in the church parlors, the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of the three-tiered wedding cake. Serving were Mrs. Ted Rutschman, an aunt of Mr. Shuck; Mrs. Fern Chapman; Mrs. Alden Veggild; Mrs. Elvin Mattson and Mrs. A. J. Bernard.

Miss Lebert was the 1943 graduating class at Nasaham high school in Montana, and has since been employed by the army engineers, first at Fort Peck, Mont., and later in Portland.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Hillsboro union high school. He served for a year in the army and has since been engaged in farming on Chehalis Mountain.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Shuck left for a trip to California. For going, they wore a black and pink ensemble with patent leather accessories.

Arrives from Astoria—Mrs. R. L. Burnett arrived last week from Astoria to join her husband, who is with McKenzie Motor company. They formerly resided here, and Mr. Burnett came several weeks ago to take his old position with the motor company.

"Maybe I Should Get a Job On a Street Car"

When we see the way people neglect their cars and trucks, we sometimes wonder whether any vehicles are going to be running by the time this war ends. But we're not thinking seriously of getting out of the service business. As long as we can get trained mechanics and factory-engineered parts, we're going to stay "on the job" to help you keep your car or truck on its job!

County Pythian Sisters Elected To Grand Offices

Three Pythian Sisters of this county were elected to office at the Grand Temple session held in Portland this week. Mrs. Elma Friday of Forest Grove, who served last year as grand protector, was advanced to grand manager. Mrs. Vera Sharp of Gaston was elected grand protector, and Mrs. Hasko Holtenbeck of North Plains, a past grand chief, was elected to senior supreme representatives alternate.

Grand temple session was well attended this year, with grand and past grand officers present. From Washington, California and Idaho, The Pythian Sisters presented the Knights grand lodge with a check for $300 as a gift to the Oregon-Washington Pythian home at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hughes returned Sunday morning from Central Oregon, where they camped for ten days at Allison Ranger station in the Ochoco forest. They were accompanied by two other couples from Portland, but only got one deer. A second deer was bagged but they couldn't find it for several days, when it was spoiled.

Social Circle Meets October 18

Social Circle meeting was moved about one week and will be held October 18 instead of on the regular meeting date, October 23. This change was made because of the meeting of the County Federation of Women's clubs at the Commercial church on October 23.

Miss Margaret Humman of Forest Grove, a teacher in Turkey for a number of years, will be the speaker at the Circle meeting and will tell of her experiences in that country. She will also comment on the present situation there, according to Mrs. Arnold Jensen, president of Social Circle.

Local Girl Selected P. U. Student Manager

Miss Erna Jean Williams of Hillsboro was elected student manager at Pacific university by the student council, which met Monday.

Alvin O. Smith of Seattle was a guest Tuesday of his twin brother, D. O. Smith, and wife. He left Wednesday morning on a business trip to Salt Lake, Utah.

Mrs. Rose Hard returned to Hillsboro Tuesday after a two-week visit in Los Angeles, Cal.

Harvest Festival And Bazaar Planned

O. E. S. Social club is sponsoring a harvest festival and bazaar in the Masonic temple on Thursday evening, October 18. The doors will open at 7:30 o'clock.

Besides the bazaar games, drawings and a snack, but will be features of the evening. Fun for all. Bring the family for an evening of enjoyment and meeting of friends.

BAKING DAYS ARE HERE

Naturally, baking success depends on top-quality ingredients, and Safeway will save you money on all such foods.

How hot breads can enhance your meals

Hot muffins and rolls give that extra fillip to the meals you'll be serving these Fall days when there's just a hint of frost in the air. While dinner is in the making make full use of your oven heat by baking some of the old favorites listed below.

Hamburger Muffins make a main dish in themselves. Brown 1/4 to 1 pound hamburger in frying pan, sprinkling lightly with poultry seasoning, salt and pepper. Add to your favorite muffin batter.

Spoon into greased muffin pans, filling 3/4 full. Bake in moderately hot oven (425° F) 25 minutes or until done. Make gravy with meat drippings, and serve over muffins. Serves 6.

Surprise Muffins are a treat for a special breakfast. Break them open for the surprise inside. Spoon muffin batter into well greased muffin pans; place 1/2 teaspoon jam or jelly on top. Bake in a moderately hot oven (425° F) 20 minutes. Makes 12 muffins.

Tomato Biscuits give flavor and color to old standbys. Simply use tomato juice instead of milk in a standard baking powder biscuit recipe. A few caraway seeds sprinkled on top of the biscuits add flavor interest too.

Supper Rolls—Place 1/4 cup shortening, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons sugar into large bowl and add 1 1/2 cups lukewarm water; stir well. Stir in one beaten egg and one cake fresh yeast crumbled. Add 3 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour all at once and beat with fork to make a soft dough. Spoon batter into well-greased muffin pans, filling half full. Cover with a damp cloth and let rise about 1 hour, or until light. Bake in moderately hot oven (425° F) 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes 18 rolls.
