Langley; "Cherokee Strip," tale of Oklahoma boyhood, Marquis James; "Pleasant Valley," Louis Bromfield; "Black Boy," Richard Wright; "A Star Danced," Gertrude Lawrence.

Miss Cawrse and Mr. Nyberg Wed At Church Rites

Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday evening, November 3, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Kathryn Loretta Cawrse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Cawrse of route 1, Cornelius, became the bride of Mr. Clayton Nyberg, son of Mr. John Nyberg of Tualatin. Dr. Andrew Carrick of Portland performed the ceremony in a setting of candelabra palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums, with candelabra lining the aisles.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with train. Her fingertip veil was caught in a halo of pearl orange blossoms, and she wore a necklace of pearls. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia and an orchid with white satin streamers.

Miss Juanita Cawrse, sister of the bride, wore a dress of honor. She wore white tulle over a gown of satin and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. She wore a small white veil in her hair with corresponding flowers. The bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Hanley and Miss Zura Nyberg, wore gowns of princess style white faille and carried nosegays of yellow and orchid chrysanthemums with white veils in their hair. The junior attendants, Miss Margaret Nyberg and Miss Gene Richards, wore white tulle over a gown of satin and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Mrs. Max Reeher Attends National Council of Women

Mrs. Max Reeher of Laurel, who is president of the Oregon Council of Church Women, was in Washington, D. C. last month for a meeting of the National Board of the United Council of Church Women, in the First Congressional church, with the president, Mrs. Hanger Sibley of Rochester, N. Y., presiding.

Attending the meeting were outstanding church leaders representing 10,000 Protestant churches in all parts of the nation, who were meeting to consider attitudes and action concerning various matters of public interest to church women, including the sending of a communication from Mrs. Sibley to the Christian women of Japan; the proposal that church women study the effects of racial segregation in their home communities as a phase of the national "Make the Charter Live" campaign; moral implications of the use of the atomic bomb; veterans programs; continued rationing of food to aid the people of the world; employment problems as they relate to women; family life; racial and economic developments; and continued emphasis on strengthening the World Church.

The group were guests of honor at a reception given by President and Mrs. Truman at the White House on Wednesday, October 24.

Couple Celebrate 31st Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Olds celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary Sunday, October 23, at their home, the Old Meadow farm, Pringle, from Salem, Ohio, and Portland were there for dinner.

They received many nice presents and flowers, and a shower of cards.

Mrs. Olds (Lauretta G. Walker) was born and raised in a grand old home and is the last of the third generation to live there. They have the good wishes of all friends that they may live to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.
