Mrs. Vera Sharp, elected as protector at the Grand Temple session in Portland last October, was honored with a reception Friday night by her home temple at Gaston. Mrs. Sharp, who has been a faithful member of Lakeview temple for 23 years, received many words of praise for her work in improving the temple and her devotion to the order from Gaston, Forest Grove, and Hillsboro. She also received a number of nice gifts from temples and friends.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Sharp were Emma McKinney, past grand chief, Elma Friday, grand manager, and Edna Bond, past grand guard, both of Forest Grove; Mrs. Grace Griffith, most excellent chief, and other officers of Lakeview temple. Mrs. Mildred Koberstein was mistress of ceremonies.

The musical program included solos by Miss Gwen Vick, accompanied by Miss Lucille Riesen, who also played several piano numbers. Both are students at Pacific university. Assembly singing with Carl Klinge at the piano completed the entertainment.

Misses Meeuwse Brides of Two Brothers at Roy

At a very pretty double wedding ceremony held in St. Francis Catholic church at Roy on Tuesday morning, November 27, at 9:30 o'clock, Miss Edna Meeuwse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meeuwse of North Plains, was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence Vanderzanden of Verboort; and another daughter, Miss Edna Meeuwse, was married to Mr. Sylvester Vanderzanden of Verboort. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Vanderzanden.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Gerace, pastor of St. Edwards church of North Plains. The brides' dresses were identical in make and were a light white satin, long sleeves and long train. They wore finger tip veils with seed pearl tiaras, and carried bouquets of pink roses.

Miss Jeanette Vanderzanden, sister of the bridegrooms, was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of pink taffety with net and a pink net headpiece in her hair. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Maurice Meeuwse, cousin of the brides, was best man. Little Lois Meeuwse, sister of the brides, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of light green satin with net and a green net headpiece, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The altar was beautifully decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and greenery, and the aisle was decorated with white, pink and green streamers.

Vernon Meeuwse and Dicky Deck, cousins of the brides, were Mass servers. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Herink of Roy.

A large reception was held at noon in the C. O. P. hall at Verboort, with about 135 guests present.
