Edward Van Horn Receives Discharge After Three Years

KINTON—Cpl. Edward Van Horn arrived home Thursday after serving with the army for three years. Cpl. Van Horn saw active service in Africa, Italy, Germany and arrived in the South Pacific in time to help finish the Japs. He has the purple heart from wounds received in the African campaign. He has received his discharge and will take a well earned rest visiting relatives and friends before starting his next campaign which will probably be at either Oregon State or University of Oregon.

The Grange bazaar and carnival held a week ago Saturday proved to be a success even though the weather was bad and kept many at home. Around $170 was cleared. This money will be used for improvements to the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Van Horn arrived home Sunday from Sitka, Alaska. John Van Horn came home on Friday from Mt. Home, Idaho. On Sunday Mrs. Charles Owens served a dinner in honor of her brother, Cpl. Edward Van Horn, with all members of the family present except Fred Van Horn, who is in the east attending school for aerography training with the coast guard.
