

Miss Schwanke Becomes Bride Of Mr. Salzwedel

Miss Anna Ida Schwanke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard Schwanke, became the bride of Mr. Wilbur E. Salzwedel, Sunday evening, December 9, at 8 o'clock in Zion Lutheran church, Scherff, in a setting of candlelight, baskets of white chrysanthemums, palms and ferns. Rev. C. F. Nitz of Portland gave the wedding sermon and Psalm 37, 4, and Rev. C. J. Krueger, the local pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Ruth Beyers, organist, accompanied Mr. Alfred Simatoni on the violin for the recessional and recessional, and Mrs. John Goodhouse Jr., the soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer". The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered nylon over satin with sweetheart neckline and train. Her floor-length embroidered tulle train worn by her mother at her wedding, was caught in a headpiece of pearl ornaments. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid and white satin streamers. Her necklace was a triple strand of pearls.

Miss Wilene Kerkman, maid of honor, wore a gown of pink net with white dots over satin, and pink feathers in her hair. The bridesmaid, Miss Paula Engel and Miss Alma Petersen, wore similar frocks of blue and pink net with white dots with corresponding feathers in their hair. The attendants carried identical nosegays of gold chrysanthemums and white bouvardia. Miss Joyce Salzwedel, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a princess dress of blue net with white dots over tulle and carried a nosegay of pink bouvardia and white carnations.

Mr. Armin Ottemoeller was best man and the ushers were Messrs. William Rupprecht Jr. and Lester Salzwedel.

The bride's mother wore a black jeweled marquisette dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall, which was decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells, centering over the bride's table, which was decorated with pink chrysanthemums and pink and white tapers. Mrs. William G. Nickles and Mrs. Martin Stuebe were in charge of the gifts and the guest book.

Mrs. Armin Ottemoeller cut the wedding cake. Miss Elsie Wachne presided at the punch bowl and Miss Lillian Simatoni poured. Others assisting were Mrs. W. Kahle.

Feel Choked Up With a Cold?

TO GET PROMPT RELIEF from distress of those nagging colds that cause coughing and make you feel all stuffed up—put a good spoonful of Vicks VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water.

Then feel relief come as you breathe in the steaming, medicated vapors. These medicated vapors penetrate to the cold-congested upper breathing passages. They soothe irritation, quiet coughing, help clear the head and bring such grand comfort.

FOR ADDED RELIEF... On throat, chest and back at bedtime rub Vicks VapoRub. It works for hours—even while you sleep—to bring relief. Now try this home remedy. It was tested and tested.

Garden Club Has Christmas Party

Hillsboro Garden club held its Christmas party Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Johnson, with Mrs. J. L. Searcy and Mrs. Er. Carter assisting hostesses.

A Christmas tree and beautiful holiday decorations and arrangements were used throughout the rooms. Miss Blanche Britton gave an interesting talk on "Holly Habits."

The president appointed two new committees: Mrs. Kenneth Davison, Mrs. C. T. Smith and Mrs. Paul Peterson, to choose a club rose; Mrs. Elmer Johnson and Mrs. E. R. Bailey to serve on the "card and flower" committee. There was a gift exchange.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Francis Wade, daughter of Mrs. O. B. Gates, Mrs. Edwin Welch and Mrs. Elmer Johnson Jr., daughter and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Elmer Johnson.

Mrs. Kenneth Davison and Mrs. Irwin Schlegel read letters written by the national president of Garden clubs from the "Northwest Gardens and Homes."

Tea and cookies were served from a very festively decorated table. Mrs. George McGrath and Mrs. Marion Gorman presided.
