

Installation Held By Eastern Star

In a setting of evergreen and chrysanthemums, Dolores Kamma was installed as worthy matron of Tualatin chapter, O. E. S. on Friday evening. Other officers are: Dr. J. Vernon Horne, worthy patron; Evelyn Searcy, associate matron; J. W. Barney, associate patron; Grace Busch, conductress; Ella Barney, associate conductress; Rose Cave, secretary; Elizabeth Heacock, treasurer; Edella Manley, chaplain; Jessie Sewell, organist; Dolores Epps, marshal; Dess Meyers, Adah; Irene Sturgis, Ruth; Pat Heffell, Esther; Anna Mae Nisler, Martha; Thelma MacIntyre, Electa; Estelle Kroeger, warder; Ralph Sloan, sentinel. Courtiers girls are Geneva Bowman, leader, Thelma Chapman, Jean Ann Schlegel, Iola Piercy, Eve Engelhardt, Edna Olanie.

Installing officers were Jane Hare, installing matron; Faye Povner, escorting marshal; Ruth Enschede, installing marshal; Ruth Gardner, installing chaplain; Olive Ramey, installing organist; Marguerite Lynn, lady of the lights; Joanne Hare was flower girl. Hostesses were Gene Carver, Jewel MacDowell, Bess Heffell, Aileen Easter, Clara Megarrel. Installing matron, Mrs. Hare, is the worthy matron's mother, and the little flower girl is her niece.

Irma Wood, retiring worthy matron, was presented a past matron jewel by Bess Heffell, and Erl Carver, retiring worthy patron, was presented a gift by William Wood from the chapter.

A short program included a vocal solo "The Lord's Prayer" by Ruth Chandler, accompaniment by Arlene Ulrich, and a vocal solo, "Easterners' Prayer" by Elsie Yount.

Evelyn Searcy, representing the newly installed officers with the aid of the Courtesy Girls, presented Dolores Kamma, worthy matron, with a lovely gift.

Everyone adjourned to the dining room, beautifully decorated in evergreen, where the table was decorated with white chrysanthemums and candles. Mrs. Eleanor Hare and Mrs. Ida Gulich, aunts of Mrs. Kamma, poured. Decorated cakes, coffee and tea were served.

Those assisting in the dining room were Mrs. R. W. Weil, Mrs. Herbert MacKenzie, Morris Weil and A. H. Busch.

Walkers Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Here

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Walker, residents of Hillsboro for nearly forty-five years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, December 29, at their home at First and Walnut.

Married in Long Creek, Grant county, they came to Hillsboro in the spring of 1901, and with the exception of twelve years spent on their farm four miles south of here, have resided in this city since that date.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker greeted their neighbors and close friends at an informal "open house" Saturday afternoon and evening. Their daughter, Miss Myrtle Walker, assistant professor of business at Walla Walla college, was present for the occasion.

County Students On 'U' Honor Roll

Jean A. Alexander of Hillsboro was one of 13 students of Oregon county students listed with grade point averages of 4.00—a perfect score of straight A's—for the fall term. Other county students on the honor roll are Hugh J. Stapleton of Hillsboro and Maxine Cady of Beaverton.

Miss Imlay Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Jean Imlay was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower by Miss June Gifford and Mrs. Kenneth Spencer at the S. A. Steinke home on Wednesday evening, December 19. The bride-elect of Clifford Betzer received many attractive gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mitchell of Hillsboro spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Torbet of Cedar Mill.

Jean Imlay and Clifford Betzer Exchange Vows

REEDVILLE—In a beautiful candlelight service with a setting of candelabra, palms, white chrysanthemums and ferns, Miss Jean Imlay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto George of Reedville, became the bride of Mr. Clifford R. Betzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Betzer of Hillsboro, Sunday, December 30, at 4 p. m. at the Central Christian church in Hillsboro. Rev. Harry B. Hampton of Reedville Presbyterian church officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Miss Dorothy Kirkwood played the wedding music. Miss Kathleen Imlay, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love." The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, wore a princess style gown of white satin with train, full tulle skirt and finger-tip length halo type tulle veil. She carried a white Bible and orchids in a cascade of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Hammer was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a dress of pink eyelet embroidery over tulle and carried a nosegay of roses and bouvardia. Misses Geneva Imlay, a sister, and Doris Anderson, a cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Joan Betzer, niece of the bridegroom, and Carolyn Sue Hess of Portland were junior bridesmaids. They wore net over satin in pastel shades, and carried nosegays of roses and bouvardia, as did Donna George, niece of the bride, who was flower girl. Kenneth Spencer of Hillsboro was best man. Robert and Kenneth George and Donald Hammer were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement with 150 guests in attendance. Mrs. Ross Hall and Mrs. William Freeman, sisters of the bridegroom, cut the bride's and bridegroom's cakes, respectively. Mrs. Glenn Stiff, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Margaret Imlay poured. Assisting in serving were Mesdames A. Brownlee, James Becker, Ross Hall, L. Walker, E. J. LaRue and George Lippert, and Misses Doris Brownlee, June Gifford, and Eloise Stiff. Mrs. Kenneth Spencer had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Oren Shuman, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gift table and Mrs. S. A. Becker of decorations.

Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of Hillsboro high school. Sgt. Betzer, recently discharged from the army, has served in the European war theatre the past four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Betzer left to spend their honeymoon at the Oregon beaches. For traveling the bride

Miss Geertgens Bride in South

Miss Leone J. Geertgens, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Geertgens of Hillsboro, was united in marriage to Mr. Stanley J. Walker of East St. Louis, Ill., December 22. The double ring ceremony was performed in front of the fireplace at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Barney in Berkeley, Cal., the only light being from candles on the mantel and the Christmas tree. The Rev. Franklin Toothaker officiated.

The bride wore a green dressmaker suit with corsage of white carnations and red rosebuds. Mrs. L. J. Kohlmeier was matron of honor in a black suit with corsage of red rosebuds. Mr. L. J. Kohlmeier, a cousin of the bride, was best man.

Mrs. Walker has served three years in the United States coast guard and after his discharge the young couple will live in East St. Louis, Ill.

wore a dressmaker suit of gray wool with black accessories and a corsage of orchids. They will be at home in the new Matthis apartments at Reedville after January 10.

Local Girls Place On Honor Roll at OCE

MONMOUTH—Three girls from Hillsboro, Eleanor Hanley, Carolee Nelson and Rosemary Wilken, made the second honor roll for the fall term, 1945, at Oregon County of Education. At least 15 hours must be carried for the quarter and a grade point average of three or better earned.

PEO Will Meet

Chapter BH PEO Sisterhood will meet January 7 at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. P. Cady. The program will be in charge of the Educational committee, with a white elephant sale.

Mrs. Hinrichs Honored

Mrs. Louis Hinrichs was honored with a pink and blue shower by Mrs. S. A. Steinke and Mr. Kenneth Spencer at the Steinke home in the center of the table was a large stork surrounded by many lovely gifts.

Matthis Move This Week

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Matthis and son Floyd are moving this week to a farm near Laurelvale, which the son has leased. Floyd served with the 196th infantry of the 4th division and was overseas for 39 months.

Mrs. Kabeiseman Hostess

Guests of Mrs. Bertha Kabeiseman over the holidays were her sister, Sister M. Tarcisia of Milwaukee, Wis., and Sister M. Eulalia, also of Milwaukee. Additional guests of Mrs. Kabeiseman for Christmas dinner were her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Kabeiseman, and her sister, Miss Mary Kleinsch, nurse at the Emanuel hospital, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McCrea (the former Pearl Barker) visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burke of Buxton, over the Christmas holidays.
