

Dinner Saturday Will Honor New Club Members

CEDAR MILL.—Community club met Wednesday night at the Grange hall. The club has consulted the telephone company as to the possibility of changing the Portland telephone district to include the Cedar Mill area. A representative is to be present at the next meeting to discuss it further. A Valentine dance was cancelled as it was impossible to engage an orchestra. The dinner to wind up the membership drive will be held Saturday at the Grange hall. The dinner will honor the new members of the club. Mr. Robinson of the bus company was present at the meeting to try to discover the reason for the decrease in patronage lately and to get suggestions from people on how they might change their schedules to accommodate more people. He urged that the questionnaires handed out to riders be returned and that anyone having ideas on the subject drop a note to the bus company. Scout Commissioner Walker was present to give an outline of the principles of Cub scouting. It was voted by the club to sponsor a Cub pack in this district. Mr. Hendrickson has consented to be Cub master and plans for organizing the pack are in progress. Mrs. Young asked for help in the Red Cross drive of which she is chairman. She announces the date of the beginning of the drive as March 1. After a suggestion was made that a tunnel through the top of Cornell hill to improve driving conditions was imperative, the club voted to write a letter to the Multnomah county road commission asking for such. A camping scene by the Boy Scout troop provided entertainment. The meeting had been opened with the color guard presenting colors for the flag salute and they closed their program with the Vesper Song and a bougie call. Dick Reel spent several days visiting at his parents' home last week. He has been attending school in Lewiston, Idaho. Cornell club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Stark. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Dun Hendrickson, a boy.

Reedville PTA Meet Observes Founders' Day

REEDVILLE.—P-T-A met Friday night at the schoolhouse in observance of Founders' Day, with Mrs. R. W. Grossbeck, presiding. Following opening exercises, Mrs. L. Harris announced that present membership is 25 per cent less than that of last year and the room mothers were named to contact all non-member parents in a membership drive. Mrs. E. J. LaRue, chairman of ways and means, asked that all persons having articles for the rummage sale, especially spring and summer goods, leave them at her home or at the school before March 15. Mrs. J. Becker said intensive efforts are under way for the carnival and basket social to be held March 9 at the gymnasium. Mrs. D. Hill, Mrs. N. Brookhardt and the room mothers are her co-workers.

Mrs. A. A. Carlson reported on the county council held February 12 in Hillsboro. Mesdames Grant Brown, M. Wooley, O. George and R. Groesbeck, were also delegates from Reedville. Mrs. LaRue, Mrs. H. Bergquum and Mrs. Becker were named as nominating committee to report at next meeting. Mrs. Clyde Yount gave two vocal selections and led the group singing. The play, "Light of Tomorrow," planned because of the absence of two members of the cast. Refreshments were served by candlelight in the basement social room, with Mrs. Wooley in charge. The room was beautifully decorated in blue and gold, the P-T-A colors.

Joanne McGeorge, who has been seriously ill for some time, was admitted Monday to Jones hospital in Hillsboro, for medical treatment. Six members of the local Christian Endeavor attended the Y.F.C. meeting held Sunday afternoon at Forest Grove high school.
