

Farmers' Union Expresses Thanks For Co-operation

To all who helped to make the 39th annual convention of Farmers' Union a success:

If you could have heard the praise and compliments given you by the delegates and guests on the manner in which they were received in our city of Hillsboro, you would have some conception of the appreciation we feel and wish to express. As it is, words fail us, so to each of you who individually or collectively gave us your support we say: Thank you very much!

Henry Johnson, president, and Mrs. Noble Shearer, secretary of Washington County Farmers' Union.

Ed Schulmerich Marries in Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schulmerich have received word of the marriage on February 2 of their son, Edward Schulmerich, U.S. Navy, to Miss Dixie Phillips of Delaware, Ohio. They met while attending Ohio Wesleyan university where Schulmerich is in officers' training. They will make their home in Oregon when he receives his discharge from the navy.

Rebekah Contest Losers to Entertain

The contest which ended in the Rebekah lodge in December will be celebrated March 12 at the regular meeting with a special program of entertainment, according to announcement by Mrs. Mildred McConahay, program chairman for the lodge.

Mrs. Violet Swanson, noble grand, and Mrs. Mildred Fisher, vice noble grand, were captains of the attendance and membership contest, with Mrs. Fisher's side victorious.

The January birthday committee served refreshments after the meeting Tuesday night.

Hillsboro Couple Married 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Nicodemus, who have lived in this county practically all of their lives and in Hillsboro for many years, will observe their 60th wedding anniversary Saturday, March 2. They are not planning a celebration, due to the fact that Mrs. Nicodemus is just recovering from an illness of several weeks.

Holds Special Meetings— Rev. Melvin E. Ames, pastor of the Whosoever-Will tabernacle, will hold special evangelistic meetings at the Seaguns Valley community church every night except Monday and Wednesday for an indefinite period. Services will start Sunday.

Miss Wolford Bride Of C. R. Bateman

BANKS—Hazel Maxine Wolford became the bride of Charles Ralph Bateman of Gates Creek at a simple ceremony performed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolford, Sunday, Rev. Fred Ray, pastor of the Banks church, read the ceremony at 3 p. m. in the presence of immediate relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a two-piece coral pink wool dress with a corsage of white gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Juanita Wolford, who wore an aqua colored dress with a corsage of pink camellias.

Floyd Downing acted as best man for Mr. Bateman.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Philip West served the cake. Mrs. John Timmerman cut the ices and Mrs. Walter Gikerson, cousin of the bride from Cottage Grove, poured the punch.

The serving table was centered with a beautiful wedding cake flanked on either side by lighted yellow candles.

The rooms were decorated with greenery and yellow daffodils.

Following the reception the couple left for a honeymoon at the beaches, after which they will make their home in the Lyda district where the bridegroom is in business.

Mr. Bateman graduated at Forest Education and for the past two and a half years has been with the CAA as an aircraft communicator.

Mr. Bateman graduated at Forest Grove high school. He received his discharge from the army in October of the last 27 months of his service being spent in India and China.

Visitation Church Scene of Wedding

At 9 o'clock on the morning of January 30 in Visitation church, Verboort, before altars decorated in white chrysanthemums, with aisles of pink and white streamers and candles, a very pretty wedding took place when Florence Margaret Vandehey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Vandehey of Verboort, became the bride of Mr. Donald VanDamen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William VanDamen of Roy. Very Rev. R. S. Neugebauer officiated.

The bride wore broad satin with long train and fingertip veil and crown of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book with streamers and white gardenias.

Miss Ann VanDamen, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore pink organza with head-dress of flowers to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Ushers were Anthony VanDamen, brother of the bridegroom, and Vincent VanDamen, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Robert Vandehey, brother of the bride, and Gilbert Giesbers served as ring bearers.

Dinner was served to 100 guests at the C.O.F. hall at Verboort.

After a trip to Oregon beaches the couple will be at home near Hillsboro.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Banks high school and is also a World War II veteran with three and a half years of service, two and a half years overseas.

Six Districts To Consolidate

SCHOLLS—A large crowd gathered at the Grange hall Monday evening to hear the county superintendent of schools, Mr. Scott, explain the process of the consolidation of the six districts including Granger, Kinton, Jackson, Mountaineer, Mountain Top, and Mountain Top. The county elementary supervisor, Mrs. Ralph Whitcomb, also spoke.

Ford Granger made a generous offer of six acres of land, a drilled well, and a very substantial amount of money to build and equip an industrial school building. It was voted unanimously to consolidate and the school boards will meet to make further plans.

L. Russ Hoover of Alhambra, Cal., spent a few days with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Twiford.

Carl and Axel Linberg drove to San Francisco for a week's visit with friends and relatives.

The Red Cross drive will start March 1 with Ina Sutherland in charge of the Granger district. Anyone wishing to bring or mail a contribution to her may do so.

A meeting was held in the Rider board of directors for the new water district that is to be formed here. Officers elected were: Thomas Lusk, Frank Rowell and Albert Rider.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Snyder had a short vacation at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Snyder spent the week-end with their daughter, Dorothy Potter, at Mill City.

Tom Lusk returned from a few days in Corona, Cal., where he visited with his son, T. V. Lusk, who is a patient in the naval hospital there.

Women's Society of Christian Service will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Hesse Friday at 2 p. m.

The Gleasons met at the church Tuesday evening and enjoyed a pot-luck dinner.

Tom and Robert Cabe of Portland spent the week-end with William Moore. Robert is on leave from the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brittain have returned to their home here after spending the winter with their daughter, Doris, near Hillsboro.

The annual dress-up party of the Women's club at the home of Ina Sutherland was a success, with 40 ladies, most of them in costume, present. Prizes were awarded to Beulah Young, dressed as an old grandpa, and Ruth Chandler, who portrayed Simon Legree, complete with horse whip and revolver.

Mrs. Henry Hesse entertained the church choir with a lunch and birthday cake.
