How to Make Lenten Menus Interesting

If you're looking for meatless main course dishes that are tasty and hearty, here are some of my favorites. These are so good that they needn't be reserved just for Lent. You'll find them delicious at the year around.

FRENCH TOAST TUNA SALAD SANDWICH
For a satisfying lunch I serve these sandwiches along with Cream of Pea Soup. Then for dessert I like a Frosted Apple Dumping and plenty of hot coffee or tea.

Make sandwiches using a well-seasoned tuna salad mixture. For each 3 sandwiches mix together 2 slightly beaten eggs, 1/2 cup of milk and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Cut sandwiches in half if desired. Dip in egg and milk mixture. Sauté in hot shortening in heavy frying pan, turning to brown both sides. Serve hot.

LIMA BEAN AND CHEESE SALAD
Buttered spinach or Swiss chard, hot bean muffins and chocolate cake for dessert combine with this salad to make a complete supper or lunch.

To 2 cups of cooked dried lima beans, well-drained, add 2 cups finely shredded cabbage, 1 cup American cheese cut in small cubes, and 1/4 cup pickle relish. Toss lightly with Thousand Island Dressing. Serve in bowl lined with cabbage leaves. Serves 6 generously.

NOODLES ROMANOFF
Sour cream gives this dish its distinctive flavor. If you have no sour cream, add 1 tablespoon of lemon juice to a cup of cream or undiluted evaporated milk and let stand for 15 to 20 minutes in a warm place.

Cook a 6-oz. package of egg noodles according to directions on the package. Drain well. Add 1 cup of cottage cheese and 1 cup sour cream and season with 1 cup chopped onion, 1 to 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, a dash of Tabasco or cayenne, salt and pepper. Mix well. Place in casserole and sprinkle with grated sharp cheese or dry bread crumbs. Bake about 40 minutes or until crumbs are brown. Serves 4 to 6.
