

CE Young People Will Hold Easter Sunrise Services, Choir to Sing

REEDVILLE—Easter will be observed by the departments of the Reedville Community Presbyterian church as follows: Christian Endeavor young people will hold a sunrise service at 6 o'clock at the schoolhouse, Sunday school will give an Easter program at 10:30 a. m., and a brief Easter message and special music by the choir will follow.

Good Friday will be commemorated by observance of the Lord's supper Friday at 8 p. m., with Dr. David Hare of Portland presiding. All are invited to these services.

Newly elected officers of the Christian Endeavor society were installed at the morning worship service Sunday by Rev. Harry Hampton, pastor of the church.

Miss Faye Nichols of the county home demonstration office will meet with the Aloha Grange Home Economics club Monday at 2:30 at the Grange hall, to assist in planning for the new club room for the group. All club members are urged to attend.

Grange Home Economics club will give a dinner April 27 from 5:30 to 7:30 at the Aloha Grange hall. Mrs. E. J. LaRue and Mrs. Jay Frost are co-chairmen in charge. Public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malcolm were hosts Saturday night at a dinner party for 14 members of the "As You Like It" study club of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snipes spent five days at their beach cottage at Pacific City, returning Sunday. Their daughter Geraldine joined them there for the week-end.

Diehl in California
Mr. Donald Diehl, who spent a go-day vacation with his parents, returned to duty and went to California for reassignment.

A group of children of the third and fourth grades were guests at a party given by Carolyn Thayer at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of the tenth birthday of Charles Hughes. The afternoon was spent in playing baseball and basketball. Refreshments followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanterin of Portland, who recently purchased the H. P. Weygant home, moved to Reedville last week. The Weygants, who lived here for many years, have moved to Hillsboro as no living quarters were available here. He operates a service station.

Special Easter Services Planned At Banks Church

BANKS—Easter services in Banks Community Methodist church will begin with Sunday school at 10 a. m., with classes as usual. At the church services, which will begin at 7:30 p. m. instead of 11 a. m., a short program will be given. Special music, baptismal services, acceptance into the church and a sermon by the pastor will complete the service.

Couples Honored
Mrs. Clara Swank and Mrs. Charlotte Jones were hostesses for a wedding shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cutright Saturday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cutright. After the games and opening of the gifts, refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Cutright were married in Utah when he was stationed there in the army. He recently was discharged following his return from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meade were honor guests at a wedding shower given at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Meade, last week. They received many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Meade were married in Alabama when he was in army training there. They recently came here from Detroit following his discharge from the army.

Parley To Get Discharge
Kenneth Parley, who has been in the navy two and a half years, arrived Saturday in San Francisco. He is planning to return to Hillsboro to be home in a few days with his discharge. He has been in the Pacific for nearly 22 months.

Mrs. Ray Parley, Mrs. Harriett Burras, Mrs. William Ruffner and Mrs. Ernest Behrman, representing the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service in Cornelius on April 10.

Banks Woman Named Vice-President at WSCS Convention

BANKS—Friday a group of Banks women attended the tri-county WSCS convention at Nehalem. Mrs. Ernest Behrman was elected vice-president of the organization. Society from Washington, Tillamook and Yamhill counties were represented. Those from Banks who attended were Mrs. Cecil Parley, Mrs. Ray Parley, Mrs. Harriett Burras and Mrs. Ernest Behrman.

Cannery Employers Crew
Kelly-Farquhar cannery in Banks has employed a crew of men for trimming and sorting strawberry plants. The plants come from Greesham and are resold to farmers here.

P. Cason of Manning was taken to the general hospital in Forest Grove, Wednesday last week for medical care. He has complications in which set in after he had a lung tapped last week.

N. Berdan was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland on April 10, where he is receiving medical care. During his absence Mrs. Berdan, who is paralyzed, is being cared for in the home of Mrs. Ray Cutright.

Francis Upward left April 10 for Glendo, Wyo., where he is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ed Orr, and family.

Farrell's Buy Moss Place
Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Farrell have purchased the Dick Moss property west of Banks and moved in last week. Mr. and Mrs. Moss have purchased a trailer house and plan to travel.

Returns from Hospital
Mrs. Fred Wilcox returned home last week from Providence hospital in Portland where she had a major operation. She is improving and is able to be up part of the time. Her sister, Miss Ann Schneider, is staying at the Wilcox home while Mrs. Wilcox is convalescing.

near Beaverton.
Beaverton Rebekahs Past Noble, Grands' club met Thursday for a pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Florence Drorbaugh in Portland. Mrs. Catherine Desinger, who has been ill in a hospital for some time, was able to join the group.

Next meeting will be a pot-luck noon dinner at the Odd Fellows hall in Beaverton May 9. Mrs. Marjorie Lewis and Mrs. Rosa Humburg will be hostesses.

Mrs. Ted Nault and her aunt, Mrs. George Garrow, spent last week at their beach cottage at Road's End and returned Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and children and his mother, all of Newberg, were among Sunday dinner guests at the Nault home in a group of 12 with six guests from Portland.

Sol Hoopii

Hawaiian Guitar Artist to Be Here

Sol Hoopii of Hawaiian steel guitar fame will render one of his spiritual musical concerts at the four-square church of Hillsboro Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 22 and 23, at 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Hoopii is of Royal Hawaiian blood and was connected with the motion picture industry in Hollywood for 18 years. He is recognized as one of the world's leading Hawaiian guitarists and is famous for his many recordings and his radio work.

A little over six years ago he was converted to the Christian ministry and is now devoting his entire life in giving sacred musical concerts in churches up and down the land. He has a fine lyric tenor voice and his manner of presenting his testimony of the power of God will be a blessing to all who hear. Traveling with Sol Hoopii is Ray Odegar of Salem, a talented pianist and cornetist.
